Confederation being a fixed fact, if elected, I will do everything in my power to promote the interests of New Brunswick; and so far as my feeble mind can penetrate, I think that a splendid future is about to dawn upon our country.

Many have their fears that our little country would be swallowed by Canada, and all our resources spent there. But I have no such fears, and think we would be much better off by being joined to a richer country, and better prepared to carry out our contemplated improvements.
