	the Careleton Sentinel
SAMUEL WATTS, Editor.	Our Queen and Constitution.	ATTS, Publisher & Proprie
VOL. XVIIINO. 31.	WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1866.	WHOLE NO9
DEATH. DEATH. ne Spring will come again, dear friends, the swallow o'er the sea ; he bud will hang upon the bough, the blossom on the tree ; ad many a pleasant sound will rise to greet her on her way— he voice of bird, and leaf and stream, and warm winds in their play. h! sweet the airs that round her breathe, and beautiful is she ; he bringeth all the things that fresh, and sweet, and hopeful be ; he scatters promise on the earth, with open hand and free, at not for me, my triends, but not for me. In mmer will come again, dear friends—low mur- murs of the bee ill rise through the long sunny day above the flowery lea, he deep and dreamy woods will own the slum- berous spell she weaves, ad send a greeting, mixed with sighs, through	gamtes, jarge featured (1 meer samil forget a pressing minimum to formality in the face of missing in a finite fin	STARTLING REVELATION.—THE A RADICALS CHARGED WITH CONSPI- BRING ABOUT A CIVIL WAR.—Under July 15th, Hon. Henry J. Raymond, a politician, a member of Congress, and I Chief of the New York Daily Times, has to his paper a letter which boldly cha Radicals in Congress with conspiring to tate the Union into another Civil W puote the principal statements of the Says Mr. Raymond :— "You may have noticed the passag House, a few days since, of a resolution by Gen. Paine, of Wisconsin, calling on to organize, discipline and equip their and directing that two-thirds of the an nance and ammunition now under custo General Government be distributed do States,—the distribution among the loya to take place immediately, and that an States lately in rebellion to be postpon further orders. The resolution came the Committee on Military Affairs and v ed to a vote, without debate or delay, to previous question. It attracted as lit ion in Congress as it has in the count

sary to enable the Southern lovalists to protect the arms must be taken out of the hands of the debate upon it, as it seemed to be a matter of

A New York cavalry colonel eloped with a importance-but this was refused. Most of the leading and reflecting Radicals in If the fall elections result in the choice of Northern Democrats enough to constitute, when added to the members from the Southern States, a mapographical Charters of England, dating from jority of the House, they assume that this maority, thus constituted, will claim to be the Congress, and will act accordingly, and they will be The aggregate capacity of the machinery emrecognized by the President as the body to which ployed in the manufactories of Great Britain is he will send his message, and whose sessions he equal to the manual labor of the whole human will, if the necessity should arise, protect by military forec. They assert, on the other hand, It is stated that ten years ago there were not that the Union members from the loyal States more than four thousand acres planted with vines will claim to be the only legal Congress, and in the United States ; now there are not less will, it necessary, invoke an insurrection of the people to maintain them in that position. They do not in the least conceal their purpose, in the Prince Napoleon is a constant visitor at the event of such a collision, to appeal to force, and Tuileries, and it is believed that the breach between him and the Emperor of the French is to " drive the rival Congress, with the President and his Cabinet and supporters, into the Potomac," to use the language of one of the ablest The Augusta Farmer says that salmon, which sincere of their number. If you will of late years have been very scarce in the Kenrecall the remarks of Mr. Boutwell, of Massahusetts, in last week's first caucus, you will see siderable numbers have been caught the present this movement clearly foreshadowed-indeed avowed. He declared his belief that an issue of A young and wealthy mulatto and a young force was rapidly approaching, and that we must of every name to reach and rescue the neglected baby, I shouldn't dare to stand very near lady, who eloped from Mobile, recently, were be prepared to meet it. He acts, and all who overtaken and brought back. The friends of the co-operate with him in these measures profess to young lady took the African to parts unknown. act, under the appreliension that the President intends to resort to force, --- that he means to dis-

It is supposed they lynched him. The consent of Congress is asked by Thomas perse the present Cangress on its re-assembling Scott and the other eminent engineers, to in December if it refuses to admit the Southern A western farmer who wished to invest the their names is written 'papa,' pull up their bridging it; wrought iron to be used in construe- Seward the declaration, that this Congress should tion, cost not to exceed three millions, time, never reassemble unless the Southern members The incumbent of Humburgh, a village near scarcely say that Mr. Seward never made any office they see their old partner (to whom babies Halesworth, in Suffolk, refused to perform the remark of the kind, nor that the project ascribed have long since ceased to be a novelty) laugh burial service on a child, because its parents to the President is purely an invention, or at

were Wesleyans, stating that his doing so would best the crazy dream of a political nightmare. render him liable to suspension from his office But in either case it serves the same purpose. It covers, and is held to justify, the determination to arouse the North, and prepare for a resort Mr. Spurgeon, in a speech at the recent annito force upon the assembling of the Fortieth versary of the Baptist Union in London, made Congress in extra or in regular session; and this determination is arowed. And the resolution to which I have referred, for an organization of the militia, and a distribution of arms in the Northern States, is the initial step to its execution." The total receipts of the United States from

The cause of all the increased comforts which much to do in spreading these ' denominations' home to dinner, and press the little velvet April 1st to June 30th, 1866, are $129,353,812; Valley has within a few years lost five of its A CURIOUS CALIFORNIA STORY .- A late issue of members by death. By some curious coincidence any music half so sweet to the ear as it first Perhaps the most remarkable wedding anni- a friend residing in San Francisco has at each versary on record has just been celebrated at decease been on a visit to the family, and the Olmutz, Bavaria. A landed proprietor of that fact has been so remarkable as to attract notice, ceptibly, one by one, that little plant winds its place gave a fete in honor of his golden wedding, and in the minds of some create a superstituous tendrils round the parent stem'! How anxious- and the united ages of husband and wife amount- dread of him. The year following the third death ed to two hundred years. He was 103 and she the gentleman paid a visit to the family, and the lady of the house said in a jocular manner on first wide, and deep, and how long a shadow in States 8,588 miles of railroad, costing $296,260,- bring? Apparently in good health at the time, in an hour alter she was a corpse. Recently ho 128. In 1860 there 30,598 miles, costing $1,-134,452,909. The aggregate value of merchanpaid his accustomed annual visit, and a daughterin-law, who had been lingering with consumption for some time, died soon after his arrival. estimated in 1860 at $3,900,000,000-an enor. No blame is attached to him as an instrument in mous traffic, created by railroads in little more causing these deaths, yet that singular fatality than ten years. to the family has been attendant upon his peri-The husband of the eldest daughter of Queen odical visits is most remarkable. In Italy, the any of the regions pictured by the poets; even fection. A literary man, whose valuable works too apt to undervalue the thoughtful and stuoccupy prominent positions, The husband of her This story reminds one of the old backwood second daughter has a command in the Austrian story of the man and his three sons who died in army. Prince Teck, just married to the Prin- quick succession. The father was bitten by a skill in the use of instruments and a knowledge ccss Mary of Cambridge, has accepted a com- rattlesnake, and, dying immediately, his three sons followed him, one after another, from the same mysterious cause. Finally, it was discover-Pigeons in immense numbers have congregated ed that one lang of the rattlesnake had remained in Stephen Township, C. W., and are rearing in the toe of the father's boot, and as each son in turn wore them he received a slight puncture fang, which caused death. Until the mystery be filled with their nests. Sportsmen have made unrelenting war upon them without appearing was thus naturally solved, a terrible Nemesis seemed to be hovering over the family, giving rise to various extraordinary conjectures and super-Amongst the " revivals" in England is the old stitions .- N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

The Albany papers challenge any locality to corn in a quarter of a day recently. tions and exaggerates its virtues. But this are flaceid; they require an artificial stimulus. always appreciate a well-swept hearth and smi- swallowed at one draught a bucketful of water, peal was made by Mr. Kasson, of lowa, to allow completely healed.

within three years.

for two years.

portion of really ' good' material.'

Baltimore merchant's wife and $11,000. At and the colonel had not. Mr. Thorpe is preparing an edition of the To-

Norman Conquest. pressing they are before the drink, and how de- tirely in their affections that without love their he thinks of tea fights, and he will tell you that household tasks, however repugnant they may they bore him beyond measure. Why? Be. be to your tastes, than doom yourself to a lovecause there are no means of getting partially less home. Women of a higher order of mind from which he drew an income that would be drunk. When I use this offensive term I only will not run this risk; they know that their than two millions of acres in vintages. speak the truth. Every man who has taken feminine, their domestic, are their first duties.

Babies.

Baby-carts on narrow side-walks are awfu bores, especially to a hurried besiness man. Are they? Suppose you, and a certain pair of nebec, have now become quite common, and conblue eyes, that you would give half your

While urging the united efforts of Christians partrimony to win, were joint proprietors of that masses of our country, one of the speakers at yon and call it a 'nuisance.' Its all very well of the windows and laid up in safety. Not a the convention in Cleveland related an anecdote for bachelors to turn up their single blessed noses at the little dumpled Cupids; but just wait till their time comes! See 'em the minute accumulation of his industry in United States dickies and strut down the street as if the state securities, went to Jay Cooke's office to procure owed them a pension. When they enter the the treasury notes. The clerk inquired : . What denomination will you have them in ?"

Having never heard that word used exceptin his sleeve at the new fledged dignity with ing to distinguish the religious sects, he, after which that baby advent is announced. How perfectly astonished they feel that they should

Well, you may give me part in Old School have been so infatuated as not to perceive that Presbyterian to please the old lady, but give a man is a perfect cypher till he is at the head get about one good preacher out of every eight No one enjoyed this anecdote more than the them looking in at the shop-windows with intense interest, at little hats, coral and bells, July 1st, 1865, to March 31st, 1866, were $949,- of a family ! How frequently one may see students, and that nothing could change the prosaries to the poorest household in her kingdom. tice Chase, who, when Secretary Treasury, had and baby jumpers. How they love to go 159,535; total expenditures for the same period cheek to their business faces ! Was there ever estimated expenditures, $72,988,163.

telligence have provided. History seldom pre- gentlemen, your animal spirits are not sufficient each can raise an angry word and discomfor sents us with the details of the domestic life of to enable you to be convivial this evening. In Depend on it, there's a great deal of domestic our forefathers, and as poetry colors and groups your normal state you are not amusing. You happiness in a well dressed mutton chop or a produce the equal of Mr. David Hart, who, al- themselves ;- others that it was simply a matter them for her particular purpose, we insensibly will be bored and I shall be bored. The cor- tidy breakfast table. Men grow sated of beauty, though now in his 66th year, hoed 660 hills of ot detail in the War Department ;- others that become used to looking back upon the 'olden ners of your mouth, I perceive, have a down- tired of music, are often too wearied for convertime' with a reverence that hides its imperfec-ward tendency, and your muscles of risibility sation, (however intellectual); but they can day last week, for a triffing wager, actually the instance of the Secretary of War. An ap-

'olden time' was without doubt vastly inferior In those decanters you will find port and sherry; ling comfort. A woman may love her husband the bucket holding twelve quarts. to the present age, in morality, intelligence, and in those silver-capped bottles there is champagne. devotedly-may sacrifice fortune, friends, famirefinement, whilst it was utterly destitute of the Intoxicate yourselves, I pray you, as speedily ly, country for him-she may have the genius last dates the lady had returned, but the cash Congress take this view of the political future : comforts and appliances which now constitute as possible ; then you will be funny ; then you of Sappho, the enchanting beauties of an Armiso important an item in the aggregate of human will be merry ; then you will dance, laugh, ogle da ; but-melancholy fact-if with these she happiness. Some of our most common enjoy- and sparkle ; and my party will go off well.' fail to make home comfortable, his heart will the reign of King Æthelbert, A. D , 604, to the ments were in the middle age unprocurable Look at pic-nics and croquet parties, how de- inevitably escape her. And women live so eneven by the wealthy. Indeed, when we come to examine how our ancestors lived, we almost lightful after ! Ask any man you meet what existence is a void. Better submit, then, to wonder why they lived.

More than one meaning to the Word.

A Roman Senator, who in the Empire's palmy days possessed estates in Naples and Britain equivalent to a royal revenue in this day, had neither glass to his windows nor a shirt to wine until he flushes in the face or feels unusuback, and when he rode in his coach of solid ally inclined to talk, is-if he has but taken a gold, without spring or covering, might envy single glass-partially drunk.

our laborer who goes out to his work in a railroad ear. An Earl of Northumberland breakfasted off of wooden trenchers and dined in state off of pewter, and when he was absent from Alnwick Castle, the glass was taken out cabbage, carrot, turnip, or other edible root, that showed that the 'denomination' was not grew in England during the early part of the restricted to its theological meaning.

reign of Henry the Eighth, and from the scarcity of fodder, fresh meat was only obtainable during the summer, salted hog's flesh being generally used by all classes the rest of the year. So important an article, then, was cattle, that it was known as 'live money,' and our word ' capital,' which signifies stock generally, was derived from the Latin word 'capita,' or heads a little deliberation, replied :

of beasts. The etymology of the law term chattels ' is similar. Queen Elizabeth was satisfied to breakfast off me the heft on't in Freewill Baptist." of a tankard of ale, and dreamed not of the day when tea, coffee and sugar would become neces- honored president of the convention, Chief Jus-

many of which were formerly beyond the reach

But not for me, my friends, but not for me ! flashed through my mind. My past life glided before my vision as to a drowning man : must Autumn will come again, dear friends-his spirit I give up all hope? Could I, by keeping touch will be With gold upon the harvest-field, with crimson quiet, keep her at bay until help came? Could He passeth o'er the silent woods, they wither at I coax her? I endcavoured to smile The moment I tried I knew I had miserably Slow fading in a still decay-a change that is

Oh! rich, and liberal, and wise and provident is of a hyena.

He taketh to his garner-house the things that ripened be; He gathereth his store from earth, all silently, gather me !

on the tree

his breath,

not death

Select Cale. MY PRAIRIE ADVENTURE.

I rapped, and a voice replied, ' come in !' was passing her right hand rapidly around her

-a cheery, resonant voice-' come in !' and I, limbs from right to left and left to right, howlhalf-frozen, of course, went in.

As the door opened to my hand, I beheld each corner of the room in succession, to finally the rotund form of a woman of some thirty rest upon me ' Hush !' said she. years of age, whose smiling countenance wel-

Of course I hushed ; in fact I had been pretcomed me, as she placed a chair by the fire. and with true western hospitality invited me to ty effectually hushed for the preceding halfhour ; 'twas an unnecessary injunction, and she take a seat and make myself comfortable.

I accepted the invitation, and hugging the ought to have known it ; had she had her reasfire as closely as a due sense of duty to my new on perhaps she would. She quieted herself at this, and appeared greys would warrant, I informed her I had got bewildered when the storm came on, and the be listening also, and I distinctly heard in the snow had covered the always blind tracks that wall or on the outside of the logs, a grating run so unintelligible over the prairies, had lost noise like the rasping of a file.

Oh, God! I see it all now, 'tis clear as day all knowledge of the points of the compass, had wandered on until nearly discouraged, had light; I had fallen into a den of thieves, who hailed with delight the gleam of light from the kept this she tiger to destroy their victims, the window, struggled up to it, and should trespass lost sheep was a ruse, the band were close at upon her kindness for the night, and get some hand, and the noise was a signal for her to finish of her folks to convey me to my stopping-place her bloody work.

The mysterious movement of her hands, he in the morning. She informed me that her husband had gone wild, startled look around the room, was reto the mill with a jag of wheat, and would re- peated, and she shook her scanty night-dress main until noon the day following, but I was fiercely and trotted her limbs up and down as entirely welcome to such accommodations and though she stood on hot iron, moaning and howlhumble fare as her poor roof could afford for ing at times, threatening me by look and gesthe night.

The house was one of those log buildings so How could I endure this? I began to wis common through the western country, contain- it over, to welcome even death to this agony of ing but one- large, low room on the ground suspense. Ten minutes more-it seemed an age floor, clay-chinked walls, a rough plank floor- -I felt as though years had passed since I stoping, a bed in one corner, and a number of ped at that house. My hair had turned prematreacherous-looking benches, scattered promis- turely gray, most assuredly. I watched her with the intentness of extreme fear. She seemed cuously about the apartment. 5 I had got so far in my survey, when a black- to be making up her mind to some new deviltry, haired, rosy-faced urchin of some twelve winter's for she stood up, nodded her head, advanced to burst open the door with the alarming informa- the wall, opened a small door that had heretotion that the sheep had escaped the fold, and fore escaped my notice, appearing to search for wandered into the wood, no one knew when or something, and finally drew out a knife, a most murderous-looking weapon, and brandished i With the energy and decision of a pioneer aloft with a wild, exultant shout of triumph. woman of the West, my hostess seized a cloak It was all over; at last my time had come : and hood, told ' Chris' to saddle Fed and Bally a satisfied chuckle, and as she turned upon me and with a 'I shan't be gone long' to me, hur- a million menacing fires shot from her eye. I though a fructuous fancy represented their riv- are well known to the world, says that after dious men, and to sneer at them as mere book felt my reason giving way ; I was reconciled to ried out of the door. Soon the soft tread of the horses, muffled by my fate, when the rapid galloping of a horse the snow, passed the door, and melted gradual- was heard outside, and a moment after my host- A single bright thought, worked out into means stituting a word of two syllables for one of of common arithmetic, by the help of certain ess appeared at the door. ly in the distance.

failed, my smile must have approached the grin The fiend seemed to be aggravated by it she snarled and snapped her teeth together, shook her head in a threatening manner, raised And he will gather me, my friends, and he will her height six feet erect, and approached the Arrival of the CHINA I shut my eyes, and hope winged her flight, from my soul. I sat with closed eyes for five minutes or so awaiting the expected blow. did not fall. I ventured to look about again, cautiously. She had returned to her stool, and

ing like a wolf, while her gleaming eyes sought sole possession of the establishment. I would the knife under the clothes, running her hands gifts of the gods of classic antiquity. make the most of this when I reached home : around her feet in the old, unaccountable man-'twould be worth telling.

I hugged the fire still closer in my content- To say it was the happiest moment of my life, ment, congratulating myself upon the fact that when my hostess appeared at the door, would I was not the possessor of a flock of run-away be but a faint expression of my feelings at that sheep, leaned my head against the rough logs time. I could have kissed her with joy. of the wall, and prepared myself for a comfort- Shaking the snow from her clothes, she turned able nap, pending the search for the lost sheep. to the old woman with what I could plainly perwhich I mentally concluded would be an unsuc- ceive was an anxious and relieved look, and cessful one.

Cogitating the foolishness of sheep in gen- ' Have the rats been troubling Granny again? eral, and this lot in particular, I closed my well, we'll set a trap to eatch them, that we eyes involuntarily, and had nearly lost all con- will. sciousness, when a low, smothered chuckle from With a cunning and fiendish leer at me she the corner by the door, where the bed stood, replied, 'Rats are more dangerous than mice, and kittens may get hurt.' She stretched her caused me to open my eyes in some baste. I had imagined myself alone in the house ; length on the bed, hauled the bed-covering over what could it be? No noise-no movement her head, and disappeared forever from my for the space of a minute or more. I sat watch- sight. ing the door and listening intently. Could it The relief I felt can be imagined, not des be I was dreaming when I heard the chuckle ? cribed. My nervous system had received a shock I have not got over to this day; but No, 'twas too real. A movement of the bed caught my attention. every moment I felt my strength returning. I I watched it closely.

kept my hostess between me and the bed, and to live long than to live well. Measure by ed men. Learning is only the means, not the foil is spread upon a setting-bed of marble, and an nabob; and when he came to write his vari-I am not a man gifted with great personal asked in a subdued whisper, if she—pointing man's desires, he cannot live long enough; end; its value consists in giving the means of on it is placed the prepared quicksilver; the description of scenery and vegetation were encourage. I am, constitutionally, nervous and to the form on the bed-wasn't a little-point- measure by his good deeds, and he has not liv- acquiring, the use of which properly managed glass is then laid on the top of this and pressed description of scener thereon, why should not this be a port of entry for Canadian trade during the winter months? timid, and when the suppressed chuckle was ing to my head; meaning to enquire in as gen- ed long enough; measure by his evil deeds, enlightens the mind, Connected by rail directly with Canada, why should not either St. Andrews or St. John berepeated, and the covering of the bed stirred, the manner possible, wasn't she a raving maniae. and he has lived too long. down with heavy weights. Here it remains Among the "Garibaldini" there are four or come a port for the arrival and departure of the I could not have stood alone, conveniently; She laughed a jovial laugh and said : A PUBLIC DANGER.-A glutton of a fellow about twenty hours, when it is examined, and five vivandieres, of whom a correspondent writes: Montreal Ocean Steamers? Indeed we believe my knees were decidedly shaky. 'No. Granny is all right, but mortally afraid TO CURE A FELON.-Shave the finger so as was dining at a hotel, who, in the course of the "Their dress is very pretty, it consists of a pair no provision for the efficiency of the Canadian if found free from flaws, is ready for use. of baggy trousers, a short green skirt, and one canals can be complete, unless it takes into ac-Rooted to the chair I sat, as the covering of of rats, and gets excited when left alone. I to nearly start the blood, then apply a poultice ' battle of knives and forks,' accidentally cut it's helt alone. I to nearly start the blood, then apply a poultice ' battle of knives and forks,' accidentally cut the bed was removed and I beheld a woman of colossal proportions rise up, and swing her bare for the belied, but my face belied my face belie feet clear of the clothing, over the side of the words, and my involuntary shudder betrayed additional pain caused by other remedies. -Ru- don't make that ar hole in your countenance since i was full of rats, and now I don't think vise either volunteer or Tyrolese to take liber- expenditure of about five million dollars or one ties with her, at all events as long as she carries million sterling. Can our Canadian friends the emotions of my mind. ral New Yorker. any larger, or we shall all starve to death.' I have one.' that sharp, bright stiletto in her girdle." reasonably object to this?

of even the richest, is found in the accumula-Composition and Rhetoric. tion of capital, augmented and diversified in its There is no doubt that the practice of writing employment by the security given to it, by the out passages from good authors is very bencdemand which it in turn produces for labor, and ficial as a means of improvement in composition. the reward it holds out for the discovery of the The frequent reading of such works as are disnew and useful in science, arts and mechanics, tinguished for purity of style as well as brevity and by the facility of exchange, by which all and force of expression is recommended. Mathe products of labor and skill are bartered, di- caulay's 'Essays,' for instance, if constantly rectly or indirectl;, for one another. Civiliza- read, must tend to improve the style of compotion and progress have brought to every country sition. In both speaking and writing it is cerin which they have found lodgment, more real tain that, to express one's ideas clearly and luxury and happiness than were to be found in well in as few words as possible, is a great perers as flowing with milk, the trees dropping writing an article he carefully revises it, strikhoney, and their acorns as edible as chestnuts. ing out every unnecessary word, and even sub-of extending the happiness and dominion of three, or of one for two, wherever it can de done Well, here was an adventure. I was left in The maniae settled down on the bed, and hid man, does more for the world than all the fabled without interfering with the sense and full force of the sentence. A Romantic Story. RICHES. - A young man once expressed his

A Memphis paper says some ten years ago surprise to Dr. Franklin that the possession of a young couple married, and at the end of a great riches should ever be attended with great problems, were the result of deep and profound year, after the birth of a daughter, they separ- solicitude, and instanced a merchant, who al- study and thought. It is wrong to class among stage coach. There is a four-in-hand which does ated, and a divorce was obtained. For nine though in possession of unbounded wealth, was years they never saw nor heard from each other. as busy, and much more anxious, than the most The little girl was taught to believe that her industrious clerk in his counting-house. The father was dead. Two or three days ago, as doctor, in reply, took an apple from a fruitthe lady and her daughter entered a business basket, and presented it to a child in the room, house they met the husband and father coming who could scarcely grasp it in his hand. He out. Each stopped and looked at each other's then gave him a second, which filled the other; face. Then the father turned to the child and and choosing a third, remarkable for its size and who reduced the invention to practice. stooping down, took her in his arms, and press- beauty, he presented that also. The child, his name and turned. Another look and the little man with more riches than he can enjoy.' sive are made. The plate-glass, which comes Scriptures ordered her to forgive those who tres- sociated with the Confederate cause-the pre-

EDUCATION .- That man is the best educated who knows himself, and takes accurate common the common potato, reduced by a pulverizing then a carriage was called, and but a few minutes were elapsed before they were remarried. sense views of men and things around him.

lisped 'papa.' Oh, how closely and imperly they hang over its cradle when the cheek 97, and they were married in 1791. flushes and the lip fever-parched ; and how their happy homes its little grave would cast My dear sir-depend upon it, one's own baby dize annually conveyed over the railroads was is never a nuisance ! Love heralds its birth.

Practical and Studious Men.

Those who call themselves practical men are men. The practical navigator, with a little mand in the Austrian army.

printed formulas and tables, can guide his ship safely through the perils of the pathless deep. their young. They selected a piece of woods But he should not sneer at book-learning, for about two miles square, and every tree seems to those charts and tables and instruments by which he makes his observations and solves his to diminish their numbers.

the distance from London to Brighton daily in the non-producers all who do not labour with and it pays as a rival against the rail. would indeed be blind and toilsome. To pro-A Paris correspondent says that the whole of duce great results the brain and arm must move the 4th of July the Emperor sat by his telegraph more together-the ideal be wedded to the wire in the Tuileries, and till very far in the practical. The world has as much reason to night, tulking with Berlin, Vienna and Florence.

Alone, with only his telegraphic operator, he bless the memory of the inventor as that of him settled by direct communication with the Emperor of Austria, after midnight, the details of the transfer of Venetia.

How MIRRORS ARE MADE .- Probably few means of rough brushes ; next a bag containing committed the prisoner for trial.

The charming poet Merz, who died recently in process to an almost impalpable powder is ap- France, was a believer in the doctrine of the Some very learned men are the greatest fools plied to the glass, the potato-dust escaping transmigration of souls, and had declared. from There appears to exist a greater desire in the world ; the reason is they are not educat- through the meshes of the bag ; then a plate he had been a palanquin-bearer to a great Indl-

WHAT A TORY GOVERNMENT MEANS .-five hours, and stage coaches are to be placed on Under this heading "A Whig" writes to the Lontheir hands. But for studious men what would several of the roads in the South of England .- don Daily News :- "A Tory Government at be the present condition of agriculture? It People patronise the Brighton one very fairly, present means Government by a minority in the House of Commons-a complete unsettlement of the reform question-the repeal or abolition of the tax on malt-the maintenance of church rates -the exclusion of Dissenters from the higher degrees and honors of the National Universitiesa fundamental change in the Irish educational system in favor of an intolorant State Churchthe appointment of men as Judges in Ireland who have made themselves odious to the people, and who defend all the bigotry of the present In England a woman who lost her pocket book and the misrule of former times-a weak eternal declined to prosecute the thief. She appeared policy in the presence of war-the ronsing of in the witness box, with a Bible in her hand, and fresh suspicions and apprehensions in the United from France or Germany, is first polished by passed against her. The magistrate called other dominance of the squirearchy in domestic affairs evidence, however, on the strength of which he -an attempt to break up the Whig party, to separate its aristocracy from the popular cause."

> WHARF AT ST. ANDREWS .- The Standard with much reason asks :--

With the completion of our Railway, and its extension by a Wharf to a deep water terminus at Joe's Point, and a bonded Warehouse built ed her to his bosom and covered her with kiss- after many ineffectual attempts to hold the three es. Sitting her down he looked once more into apples, dropped the last on the carpet, and burst of our readers have a very clear idea how the her mother's face and started to go. He heard into tears. 'See,' said Franklin, 'there is a huge mirrors that are so fashionable and expen-

husband and wife were again in each other's arms. They were left alone for a few minutes.