THOMPSON'S HOTEL, Grand Falls, Sep. 18. Newcomb's team brought us here to-day over (weather considering) very good roads, in fine style; our fellow-travellers proved excellent company; and among them, you may be sure, W. H. Needham, with his wonted cheerfulness and quaintness, did not tend to lengthen the toria, for the September Circuit, 1866, journey. By the way, Needham told a story of Humbly beg leave to congratulate you upon himself that we had not seen or heard before, your Third advent among us, and pray that Maine press.
