

His goodness, power, and love ; As through life's many ills they move, And treasure housed above.

'Very well.' Mr. Frazier noted the street 'I was glad when I came away But I can go and number. 'And now take that note to straight to the place.' your mother.

later period they were taken for the bones of Let us have a peep, therefore, at the market

'I will write the gentleman a note, thanking These fossil bones of elephants are extensively possession of the officials, and they are vigorous-The merchant did not resume his newspaper him for his kindness, and you must take it to scattered, not in Europe only, but almost all ly sweeping the strewn grain into heaps. Very The confectioners of Paris have agreed with a after the lad departed. He had lost his interest him in the morning. How light it makes my over the world; in Scandinavia, in Greece, in pretty little heaps they are, too; and yonder missionary seciety to insert extracts from religiin its contents. For a time he sat with his face heart feel to know that we are going back to Spain, in Italy, in Africa. In the New World, sacks, twelve to fourteen in number, will soon tal motioes. so that no one saw its expression. If spoken to dear England. God is good to us, my son, and too, we have found, and continue still to find, be filled with them. A few minutes more, and A Polish engineer has devised a plan for contusks, molar teeth, and bones, of the mammoth. the work is done-the sacks are filled. And now, necting the Black Sea and the Baltic by means of easily could have been taken had the 'South' What is most singular is, that these remains ex- in the innocence of your heart, you perhaps imist more especially in great numbers in the north agine (not being as familiar with grain as le pere Poland. of Europe, in the frozen regions of Siberia; re- Goriot) that these sacks of corn-market sweepgions altogether uninhabitable for the elephant ings are of no earthly use, and that the only ob- Marquis of Carmarthen's and the Hon. G. B. abundantly able to have wrenched the North t ing, the vast rivers which descend to the Frozen Ocean sweep down with their waters much dust hole. Ob chinance simplicity and igno-trance! Those sacks will each command a res-bones buried in the soil and in the excavations hey were ten times more numerous they would left by the rushing waters. in our days. Every year, in the season of thaw- ject of removing them is to throw them into the Bruce's names appear in the list for £5 each. only too eagerly be snatched up. And what years old each, have started a local newspaper. left by the rushing waters. New Siberia and the Isle of Lackon are; for then, you ask, is done with them? What is done They do the editing, composition and press-work the most part, only an agglomeration of sand, with them? Do you keep (to paraphrase Mr. The sheet measures seven inches by ninc. ice, and elephants' teeth. At every tempest the Thorley's advertisement), do you keep chickens, sea casts ashore fresh heaps of mammoths' tusks, ducks, pigs, or cab-horses? It you do, assuredly and the inhabitants are able to drive a profitable there was no need to ask that question. Why, Calcutta. The rainfall at that spot is upwards of which will some day be in the vicinity of the Pa-·Oh, pa! pa!' sobbed the child clinging to A man's firm tread approached the door. It trade in the fossil ivory thrown up by the waves. these sweepings not only find a ready sale, as six hundred inches in the year, or twenty times nama railroad, if 'manifest destiny' is to be bes neck, and leaning her wet face close to his. was opened, and the boy's mother, and the boy's During summer, innumerable fishermen's barks food for the animals above named, but there is that of the very worst climate of Western Ireland. lieved." direct their course to this isle of bones; and in such a wide demand for them that they are ac-New York Central Park is said to have been a winter, immense caravans take the same route, tually manufactured (I know of no more approall the convoys drawn by dogs, returning charg- priate word) in order to meet that demand ! swiftly and gracefully with a pair of artificial the dim vista of the future, the natural boundaed with the tusks of the mammoth, weighing Yes! it is even so. Corn Market sweepings are ones A Madrid letter states that M. Monturiol. each from a hundred and fifty to two hundred as regular an article of commerce as pickling a Spaniard, has solved the problem of submarine pounds. The fossil ivory thus obtained from the vinegar or split pease, and can be obtained to steam navigation by the invention of a vessel which frozen north is imported into China and Europe, any extent just as readily .- London Society. can remain for hours at a considerable depth, can discharge cannons from below, and even act as a where it is employed for the same purposes as ram for piercing the hulls of iron-clad ships. Dick Turpin Redivivus. The romantic days of Dick Turpin, Claude out again, and she clung to his neck, sobbing. deep emotion that lay beneath. He said it, Asia. The isle of bones has served as a quarry Duval and others of that ilk are being revived on burgh Journal, a child whose hands are like fish's 'Has she ever punched and slapped you be- looking down into the dark, soft, tender, brown of this valuable material for export to China for the Pacific Coast, and highway robbery is of fre- tail of a fish. It is about three years old and eyes. 'But I think there is a providence in our five hundred years ; and it has been exported to quent occurrence. A few weeks since a stage has beautiful features. The doctors are opera-Europe for upward of a hundred. But the sup- was stopped about one mile from Virginia City, ting to improve its condition if possible. _ Nevada, according to the rules of the road. An The War Department has received through the I have just arrived in this place from, _____ ply from these strange mines remains undimin-ished. What a number of accumulated genera-ostruction was placed on the highway, and as 'a tender little thing that I love, and to-day 1 ished. What a number of accumulated genera-tions does not this profusion of bones and tusks the stage came up the postilon received orders to scribed by the citizens of that place for the bene. That he would be alive after what occurred at "halt." He did so ; a cocked musket was point- fit of destitute freedmen. This is the second of a your capital may be strange, but it is true neverif I told ! Oh dear ! Don't let her do it papa !' hand of a servant ! You have a noble boy who It was in Russia that the fossil elephant re- ed at his head, and others of the gang made the like donation. 'It's a lie !' exclaimed the nurse passionate is fatherless; let me be to him father. Oh ceived the name of mammoth, and its tusks passengers get out and stand in a row on the A young lady named Murray, wishing to look I saw him and B. Harris. who left with him Florence ! there has been a great void in our mammeth horns. Pallas asserts that the name wayside. Men kept guard over them with load- into the future, visited a fortune-teller in Brook- not four weeks ago, and learned from him all the to her father's ear. is gether, and if the old love fills your heart as it the north believe that these bones proceed from about thirteen thousand dollars in cash, besides when, looking in Miss Murray's face, she found Theatre on the night of the 14th of April last, an enormous animal, which lived. like the mole, six gold watches, and several diamond jewels.- that she was dead. in holes which it dug in the earth. It could not A lady in the coach was not molested, for the A noted spiritualist, Dr. Randolph, says now support the light, says the legend, but died when leader of the gang said he would "scorn to rob that after an experience of five years as a medium and green spots; all above the knee there were And so it proved. The lady and her son did exposed to it. According to other authors, the a woman." Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express was third imposture, one-third insanity, and onenot less than a dozen of those distinguishing not go back to England, but passed to the mercoin was appropriated. After the rascals had got all that was to be It is to be inferred that they had a high time wonders how the man that was killed in the barn After the rascals had got all that was to be had, the stage was allowed to proceed on its jour-bad, the stage was allowed to proceed on its jour-Derry, N. H., in 1769, as the parish "voted that Derry, N. H., in 1769, as the parish "voted that to the name of the elephant when of unusual ney. One of the men robbed was a Boston merchant, who was out in Nevada on business. He and two thousand Bisket, and three Barl of Rum, mate friends could not recognize him as Booth. will doubtless think it a rough country. From & five Barl Syder, for the meeting hous raizing." He thinks not. He believed, innocent or guilty,

CANADA TO BE " GOBBLED UP."-The Chicago Tribune, in an article on a 'Growing Nation, gives its readers an account of the wars through which the American Republic has passed, the It states that, at the time of the last war with A sum of £120 has been collected for the pur- Great Britain, the position of the two countries pose of erecting a monument to Tom Sayers. The was such that the republic would have been "But the opportunity was frittered away .--When it will return, the future alone can tell. One thing, however, is certain : if Great Britain is ever again engaged in war with the United States, her American colonies will be snatched up by this Republic as quickly as a hawk would gobble a quail. The Canadas would give a rethemselves, and sell their own paper on the street. liable and satisfactory boundary on the North. namely the Polar Seas. The Atlantic and Pacific The wetest place in the world is Cherrapoorja, give us good natural boundaries on the East and situated in the Kossya hills, twenty miles from West, and the Southern line is a moveable one, Cock-a-doodle-doo! We don't object to our neighbors giving wing young man who has lost both legs, but skates to their fertile imaginations, and seeing, through destiny' seems to tix, provided such contemplation gives them pleasure. It is very silly, but harmless; still outsiders would think quite as highly of them if they would leave such bragadocia alone, and make better use of their present possessions. The South, Utah, and the war debt require all the attention that the people of the There is in Westchester county, says the New- United States can give at present .- Globe

Through holy men by God inspired, The Bible was received : With things divine their minds were fired While they His truths believed.

By faith they saw the promised land, Bright Paradise restored, Adorned by God's Almighty hand, And did those sights record.

Some for His truth have life laid down, They suffered at the stake: For each laid up there is a crown, Which none fiom them can take.

When J sus comes the righteous dead, Will triumph o er the grave, They then the golden streets will tread, And palms of victory wave. J. F. B.

Select Cale.

As You Have Opportunity.

Mr. Frazier sat reading in his countingroom. He was in the midst of a piece of interesting news, when a lad came to the door and said-' Do you want a boy, sir?'

Without lifting his eyes from the paper, Mr. Frazier answered 'No,' to the applicant, and in rather a rough way.

Before the lad had reached the street, conscience had compelled the merchant to listen to a rebuking sentence.

. You might have spoken kindly to the poor boy, at least,' said conscience. 'This is an opportunity.'

Mr. Frazier let the paper fall before his eyes, little girl. and turned to look at the lad. He was smallbut clean. The merchant tapped at one of the windows of the counting-room, and the boy glanced back over his shoulder.

A sign from the merchant caused him to re-"What did you say just now ?" . Do you want a boy, sir?' The lad repeated the words he had spoken, hesitatingly, a few minutes before.

Mr. Frazier looked at him with suddenly awakened interest. He had a fair, girlish face, dark brown eyes and hair, and though slender and delicate in appearance, stood erect, with a manliness of aspect that showed him to be al-on any matter he answered briefly, and with we must be obedient and thankful." nothing of his usual interest in business. The Just a little before evening twilight fell, word change in him was so marked that one of his came up to the woman that a gentleman had partners asked him if he were not well. ' Feel called and wished to see her. ' Go and see who it is, Charles.' she said to her son. a little dull,' he evasively answered. Before his usual time, Mr. Frazier left his Oh' mother ! it's the gentleman who sent store and went home. As he opened the door you the note !' exclaimed Charles, in an underof his dwelling, distressed cries and sobbings of tone, coming back quickly. And he wants to a child came upon his ears. He went up stairs see you Car he was up i with two or three long strides and entered the There was a hasty glance of the woman's eyes around the room to see if everything was in ornursery from which the cries came. "What is the matter, darling ?' he said, as he der, then a few changes in attire. caught the weeping one in his arms. 'What 'Ask him to come up, my son,' she said and

Charles went down stairs again. ails my little Maggie ?' 'Jane,' said Mr. Frazier, looking at the new found friend looked into each others faces. nurse and speaking with some sternness of man- 'Oh, Edward !' fell from her lips, in a quick, ner, 'why is Maggie crying in this manner?' surprised voice, and she started from her chair and stood strongly agitated before him. He

The girl was not excited, but pale. advanced, not speaking until he had taken her 'She has been naughty,' was the answer. 'No, pa! I ain't been naughty,' said the hand.

child indignantly. 'I didn't want to stay here 'Florence ! I never thought to see you thus, all alone, and she punched and slapped me so he said, in a calm, kind, evenly modulated voice; ordinary ivory-which is furnished, as we know, hard. Oh, pa !' And the child's wail rang but her ears were finely chorded to perceive the by the elephant the hippopotamus of Africa and fore ?' asked the father. 'She does it most every day,' answered the meeting,' he added. "I have a motherless child, 'he said at last

"Why haven't you told me ?" 'She said she'd throw me out of the window | find her body purple with bruises from the cruel

Mr. Frazier sat down, and baring the child's does mine, there are golden days for us in fuleg to her hip, saw that it was covered with blue ture.' marks. He examined the other leg, and found chant's stately residence she becoming its mis- which, in the Book of Job, designates an unt in the same condition. tress and finding a home there, and the boy a known animal; or from the epithet mehemot Mr. Frazier loved that child with a deep ten- truer father than the one he had in former years which the Arabs have been accustomed to add ready conscious of duty in the world. But there derness. She was his all to love. Her mother, called by that name. between whom and himself there had been no 'Do good as you have opportunity.' Only size.

J. WILKES BOOTH REDIVIVUS .- The Norfolk tail of a fish. It is about three years old, and Post contains the following singular letter :--MOREHEAD CITY, Jan. 5, 1866. Editor of the Norfolk Post :-

Lincoln until they were told that it was him by Laura Keene, his bitter enemy. He did not, however, to me deny or admit that he had done did not seem to be much of that stuff in him that is needed for the battle of life. "Take a chair,' said Mr. Frazier, an involhis mind. The boy sat down, with his large, clear eyes fixed on the merchant's face.

' How old are you ?' 'I was twelve last month, sir,' replied the "What splendid eyes,' said the merchant to himself. And I have seen them before, dark and lustrous as a woman's.' Away, back in the past, the thoughts of Mr Frazier went borne on the light from those beautiful eyes; and for some moments he forgot the present in the past. But when he came back into the present again, he had a softer heart towards the stranger lad. 'You should go to school a year or two longer, he said. 'I must help my mother,' replied the lad. " Is your mother very poor ?"

* Yes sir, and she is sick.' The lad's voice shook a little, and his soft, of interest in the news after which his mind was faced, patient looking woman, reading a letter searching, when the boy interrupted him. 'I which had just been left her by the postman. and that would help, you know. I think you ward. 'It looked very dark,' she murmured, would make an honest and useful lad. But ' but the morning has broken again.' you are not strong.'

stood up in a brave spirit. The merchant looked at him with a steadily increasing interest. ' What is your name ?' he asked.

' Charles Leonard, sir.'

'Is your father living ?' Mr. Frazier did with sunbeams. not look at the boy, but still kept his face away -his voice was low and not very even. ' No, sir he died four years ago.'

sympathy, died_two years before, and since that a week before the lad's application to the mer time, his precious darling-the apple of his eye chant, had this injunction been urged in his untary respect for the lad getting possession of __had been left to the tender mercies of hired hearing by an eloquent preacher, and the words nurses, over whose conduct it was impossible for coming to his thoughts, led him to call back the often feared that Maggie was neglected—often Many times he thought of this incident after-troubled himself on her account hut a succine the authorities, for, mounted on good horses, that applause.

> agination as possible. Mr. Frazier was profoundly disturbed ; but tunity for doing good been neglecting.

even in his passion he was calm. 'Jane,' he said sternly, 'I wish you to leave this house immediately." Mr. Frazier rung the bell, and to the waiter

'See that Jane leaves the house at once, I slite advance from fust cost, i bought a ticket the geological period in which these animals who answered it, said : she may wish it taken. Here is the money that slippery condishun, covering about 5 akers ov aris due. I must not see her again.'

woman's eyes grew brighter in tears that filled a strong heart were awakened alive.

'Oh. yes, sir, I'm strong !' And the boy and the door was pushed hastily open.

' Charles, dear. The boy entered with excited countenance.

found in greatest numbers is the valley of the Upper Arno. We find there, a perfect cemetime so common in the valley that the peasantry troubled himself on her account-but a suspi- wards, and of the small event on which such learned their value, however, they reserve them cion of cruelty like this never came into his im- life long issues hung, almost trembling in view for sale to travellers. It is very strange that the East Indies, one of the two regions which is now of what he might have lost had that light opporthe home of the elephant, should be the only country in which fossil bones have not been dis-

Of all parts of Europe, that in which they are covered. But from the circumstance that the Josh Billings on Skating. and the grate amount ov helth and muscle they of the globe, we are drawn to the conclusion (to was a bloody monster, and had murdered a great sion of the Provinces by a foreign power is a cirwoz imparting tew the present generashun at a which many other inferences lead) that during and went within the fense. I found the ice in a lived, the general temperature of the earth was remony.

quite unusual to him. He was fond but quiet iron tew their feet. It was a most exciting then was the cause of that uniformity of temper- ber-how many a babe has gone from earth to rushed into the house, sword in hand, and cut (ov both genders) nuctuated past me pro and con, 2 and fro, here a little and thare a good ed superflous and inappreciable the heat which of sorrow or of gladness, which people never waz piktured on menny a nobell brow. Az the the Year Round.

femail angells put out ov the pond side by side

The pale woman smiled, and held out her ment. I felt like a kanall hoss turned suddin-ful landscape at noon. Plum and cherry trees coming in sadness, to tears and silence. Go home bas tweets much a capital of $25,000,000 It the good will of their ambitious neighbours, and ly out to grass. I didn't kno how tew proceed. Az one ov the angelis, more sudden than awl There was an instant change in the merchant's hand to her boy. He came quickly to her side. ly out to grass. I didn't kno how tew proceed.

South, for the Cape of Good Hope, when awl here and there, flowed across the landscape, and nal, as Saturday night.

'Here is a letter from a gentleman in New tew onst, with gorgeous swoop terrifick down- was lost in the woods. A golden sun hung in "It was ever my invariable custom in my A curious convulsion of nature occurred lately is only to be regretted that the Canadian Governcrumbling into a limpid heap she went, with the sky, and as it turned, indicated the striking youth," says a celebrated Persian writer, " to be which an immense mark hill, a dwelling house, meet the diptomacy of Mr. Seward. The intention York, who says that he is directed by your un-cle Wilton to pay our passage to England, if skirt ard tapring ancle. Awl gethered round cle Wilton to pay our passage to England, if skirt ard tapring ancle. Awl gethered round below, where a slowly creeping tortoise served Koran. One night as I was thus engaged, my moved to a distance of about two acres below their are not the sort of people to be successfully dealt Koran. One night as I was thus engaged, my moved to a distance of about two acres below their are not the sort of people to be successfully dealt Koran. Where?' The voice was quick and firmer. 'Where?' The voice was quick and firmer. 'In London, sir.' we will return. God is good, my son. Let us the bursted angell; but lo ! in a minnitt's space below, where a slowly creeping tortoise served koran. One night as I was thus engaged, my moved to a distance of about two acres by, strewn with in this way. The effect will be to drive them as a hand. A bird of elegant plumage, upon a father, a man of practical virtue, awoke. "Be- original sites, and the beach, close by, strewn in the opposite direction, and in place of promo-be thankful.'

various parts of the State, too, we hear stories of The matter of negro suffrage was brought out that if found, he would have been sacrificed to men being robbed by highwaymen. In the Sou-Representatives at Washington. Upon a petition did. And as there can be no harm in telling, I tery of elephants. Their bones were at one thern portion of the State there have been gangs that women be allowed to vote, Mr. Brooke said will state what he told me-omitting names, of these knights of the road roaming about, com- that he was in favor of female suffrage if the ne- He crossed the river at Georgetown ; stopped mitting all sorts of depredations. They dely groes were permitted to vote, as he rated white the next day near Fairtax Court House; the next highways, do what they wish, and get back to been exterminating the cannibal inhabitants of a velling-most by night, and suffering severelytheir mountain retreats before the officers can village in the island of New Caledonia, in the Pa- he reached Florida, where he was detained for start after them. One of the most notorious cific, they have been killing and eating the cap- some time, until Harris, who was not mentioned desperadoes that has been in this State since the into their hands. A French garrison has now procured a boat, which they ventured to sea in, days of Joaquin-his name was Henry-was re- been placed on the Island.

cently killed in San Bernardino County. He The Syracuse Journal says : "If the posses- ken sick, and has been the most of the time since. In October he was much better, so much so that he took some exercise in the open air, but many men in California. A sheriff's posse caught cumstance which will disable this government relapsed and was confined to his room until about four weeks ago. His constitution, in my judghin by strategy, and dispatched him without ce- the remedy is to be found, not in the abandonment, is ruined, and I don't believe he will live ment of our national policy, but in the acquisition long. He was preparing for a change of climate, of the territory which affords the offending faciland if no relapse has taken place, is probably now ities. This might be accomplished peaceably, by in another country, where he will meet with more

As the waiter left the room, Mr. Prazier hug-ged his child to his breast tightly again, and the point of the globe, the cold began to has been wrecked how many a soul lost how where the wimmin sot on benches while the fel- gressive cooling of the globe, the cold began to has been wrecked- how many a soul lost-how ried, and while the wedding lestivities were be- may publish it. I shall not be in this country to Yours, truly, them. The area of all treasures of the heart! A week is a history. A week marks events the temperature render-Mr. Frazier had already forgotten the point in a small back chamber sat a pale sweet (w) hoth cenders) fluctuated past me pro and (w) hother (w)

(JOSEPH FRIEDBERGER.) J. F.

It was a most exsiting scene ; i wanted reached it from the sun. But no human being, hecd. Go home to your family man of business. Lyons workmen have subscribed to send to the on its wheat, another on lumber, a third on fish ; tew holler "Bully," or lay down and rool over. not the toughest negro, could support such a Go home, you heart-erring wanderer. Go home United States, in memory of President Lincoln : and, with the exception of Newfoundland, it may • but may be I can speak a good word for you, ing it, and her soft brown eyes were lifted up- But i kept in, and aked with glory. Helth course of stewing, steaming, and broiling. - All to the cheer that awaits, wronged waif on life's "Thirteen bands of gross de Tours silk, of which be said that their only foreigu market has been

A light, quick step was heard, on the stairs, scene i ever stood behind. The long red tape from their necks swum in the breeze, and the ble ingenuity and skill in the manufacture of figures-your dirty shop-your busy store. Rest ed in gold thread, and runs thus : " Souscription trade in all kinds of eattle has already been stopfetherz in their jockeys fluttered in the breeze, clocks. A very wonderful one made by them with those you love : for God alone knows what populaire a la Republique des Etats Unis.- ped on a paltry excuse, and with the idea that toil, and give one night to the joys and comforts width, and embroidered with 35 silver stars on a be closed, under the idea that, rather than lose it, toil, and give one night to the joys and comforts width, and embroidered with 35 stars typifying the the Provinces will consent to share, either direct-fetherz in their jockeys fluttered in the breeze, clocks. A very wonderful one made by them with those you love: for God alone knows what offerte en memoire d'Abraham Lincoln. Lyons, Canadian farmers will thus be coerced into those and other things (tew mutch to menshun) flut- was exhibited to the Dutch so long ago as when next Saturday night will bring you. Forget the 1865." and other things (tew mutch to mensual) nut was exhibited to the battles with life which have tered in the breeze. I don't think i ever was Maylau was at Degima in the port of Nagasaki. World of care and the battles with life which have Draw close around the far 'I am going to get a place, mother,' he cried to ber the moment his feet were inside the door. to ber the moment his feet were inside the door.

the second and the se

There was an instant change in the merchant's manner, and be turned his face so far away that the boy's eyes could not see its expression. For a long time he sat still and silent—so long time he sat still and silent—so long time he sat still and silent—so long that the boy wondered. The boy's face was all aglow the track, and the place merchant is the boy's face was all aglow. The boy's face was all aglow the track and was bound the fore in the card merchant is the boy wondered. The boy's face was all aglow the track and was bound the fore in the card merchant is the boy wondered. The boy's face was all aglow the track and was bound the fore in the card merchant is the boy wondered the fore is not exactly for your getting a long time he sat still and silent—so long that the boy's face was all aglow the track and was bound the fore in the card merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and merchant is the boy's face was all aglow the track and mercine track the amount is the boy's face was all aglow the track and mercine track the amount of the card mercine track the amount of the card she may wish it taken. Here is the money that is due. I must not see her again.' As the waiter left the room, Mr. Frazier trug-the nonl was erected little grosery buildings, Saturday Night.

kissed her with an eagerness of manner that was lers (kivered with blushes) hitched the magic make itself felt at the polar extremities. What many a loved one lowered to the narrow cham- ing celebrated, the brother-in-law of the Rajah read it.

in his caresses. Now the sleeping impulses of scene: the sun was in the skey-and the wind ature which we now regard with so much sur-heaven-how many a little crib or cradle stands then attached the bridercom and the bride's was in the air—and the birds ware in the South —and the snow waz on the ground—and the the terrestrial sphere. The earth was still so

In London, sir. and enuger live rotorideo)	be thanking.	was in its lawful plase, and on she fled, laffing branch of a plum-tree, by its song and the chap	hold," said I to him, " thy other cultured are	from 20 to 30 feet above its ordinary level, while tring the poney of concession. It will calousy of ne-
'How long since you come to America ?'	I Thankas now drow from his nookat the note	The second state winds reading when each hour e	X - I - · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	i i and aver an area of 12 or 10 110 or greator independence, and a person
' Two years.'	which Mr. Frazier had given him, and handed	-more happynss than belonged tew me-and pired; and, as the song ceased, a mouse spran	" awake to praise God." " Son of my soul," said	the ground all around, deep crevices. The slide gotiators, who are alleged to be so much interest- acres, was cut up with deep crevices. The slide gotiators, who are alleged to be so much interest- covered an extent of over 12 acres in width by ed in reciprocity as to be willing to purchase it
'Have you been in this city ever since ?'	it to his mother.	az i sloly wended back tew mi hum at the tay- from a grouto near by, and, running over th	ne It is better to breep that a	covered an extent of over 12 acres in width by ed in reciprocity as to be willing to purchase it four or five in depth.—Three Rivers Inquirer. at almost any price.—S. A. Journal.
have you been in this city ever since :		ern i felt-good. [hill, instantly disappeared.	mark the faults of thy brethren."	four or five in depto. of the state the state of the stat
'No sir. We came here with my uncle a	. What is this ! she asked	setures. It is, turther house to be whom - i be compreted next setures.	1. Annuith a bur sugar to some a much to Wonderful Japanese Clock.