

Legislative Correspondence.

FREDERICTON, June 29, 1866. In the Upper House the following bills were passed:—To amend the act relating to shipping...

In the Lower House the day has been devoted to Mr. Fisher's resolution and the amendment. The speakers for the resolution were, Messrs. Chandler, Flevelling, Lewis, Beckwith, Dow, Lindsay, and Skinner...

On Tuesday next he would move the following:—Whereas the House on the 30th day of June now instant passed the following Resolution, viz:—Resolved, That a humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor...

Whereas the House on the 30th day of June now instant passed the following Resolution, viz:—Resolved, That a humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to appoint Delegates to unite with Delegates from the other Provinces in arranging with the Imperial Government for the Union of British North America...

Whereas the House on the 30th day of June now instant passed the following Resolution, viz:—Resolved, That a humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to appoint Delegates to unite with Delegates from the other Provinces in arranging with the Imperial Government for the Union of British North America...

Whereas the House on the 30th day of June now instant passed the following Resolution, viz:—Resolved, That a humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to appoint Delegates to unite with Delegates from the other Provinces in arranging with the Imperial Government for the Union of British North America...

Whereas the House on the 30th day of June now instant passed the following Resolution, viz:—Resolved, That a humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to appoint Delegates to unite with Delegates from the other Provinces in arranging with the Imperial Government for the Union of British North America...

Whereas the House on the 30th day of June now instant passed the following Resolution, viz:—Resolved, That a humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to appoint Delegates to unite with Delegates from the other Provinces in arranging with the Imperial Government for the Union of British North America...

Whereas the House on the 30th day of June now instant passed the following Resolution, viz:—Resolved, That a humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to appoint Delegates to unite with Delegates from the other Provinces in arranging with the Imperial Government for the Union of British North America...

The Municipal Council of this County commenced its semi-annual session on Tuesday last. Owing to the absence of the Editor, and press of Legislative matter, we are not able to give our usual summary of the proceedings of this body...

We have been requested to state that there will be preaching in the Free Christian Baptist Chapel in this Town, to-morrow (Sunday) at 11 a. m. and 6 p. m.

We were in error, last week, in regard to the Company of Home Guards from Northampton—Mr. Elliot Shea is Captain of that Company. Lieut. Baird was only acting Captain on Monday pro tem.

Per Tobin's Express, through the agent here, G. W. Vanwart, Esq., we are in receipt of late American papers.

To the Editor of the Carleton Sentinel. Sir—Some 18 officers of the 1st Battalion Carleton County Militia left Woodstock on Tuesday morning, bound for the "Camp of Instruction."

Bill to authorize the Council of the Municipality of Carleton to issue debentures, for an amount not exceeding $1200, for the purpose of meeting the expenses connected with the enlargement of the Court House, was passed in the Council. Progress was reported in a bill which provides that parish officers in incorporated Counties shall be appointed by the Council, not elected; and increases the franchise of electors for Councilors to the same as it is for members to the Assembly...

Bill to amend the act relating to the appointment of Parish Officers, was passed in the Council. Progress was reported in a bill which provides that parish officers in incorporated Counties shall be appointed by the Council, not elected; and increases the franchise of electors for Councilors to the same as it is for members to the Assembly...

Bill to amend the act relating to the appointment of Parish Officers, was passed in the Council. Progress was reported in a bill which provides that parish officers in incorporated Counties shall be appointed by the Council, not elected; and increases the franchise of electors for Councilors to the same as it is for members to the Assembly...

Bill to amend the act relating to the appointment of Parish Officers, was passed in the Council. Progress was reported in a bill which provides that parish officers in incorporated Counties shall be appointed by the Council, not elected; and increases the franchise of electors for Councilors to the same as it is for members to the Assembly...

The Victoria Express gives the following account of the storm at Tobique on the 25th ult. "TERRIFIC GALE AT ANDOVER!—FOUR BARNS AND TWO DWELLINGS DESTROYED!—Seldom has the journalist of this Province such painful tidings to record as it becomes our duty to do at present. The village of Tobique, in the Parish of Andover, about 24 miles from Grand Falls, has been the scene of the most unprecedented freak of nature. On the evening of Monday last, about 7 o'clock, a tornado, equalling in terrific grandeur those of Northern Africa, passed over the flat district on the western side of the St. John river, about 2 miles below Tobique, destroying in its course several two-story dwellings. Coming from the westward, the warping elements swept the dwelling and barn of Mr. Smith, breaking the collar and breast bones of Mrs. Smith, who was in the House, wounding her little boy in such a way as to render his recovery hopeless. A nail from some part of the building having penetrated his temple and coursing through the head, came out in the forehead. Its course extended across the river to the residence of Mr. Hallett, Parish of Perth, utterly destroying everything in its way, scarcely a vestige of the barns remaining where they once stood. A wagon which lay in the vicinity was raised from its situation and landed about fifty feet distant, with the pole stuck in the ground, body upwards.

About the same time, or perhaps a little later, we had a severe shower, but nothing more than the usual attendant of a thunder storm. These parties have lost their all, and no visible means of repairing the loss remain. We hope that a generous and sympathizing public will not let the matter rest until something is done for the sufferers. Mr. Galt made for the sad accident to Mrs. S. and her boy.

THE CANADIAN BELL FOR THE FENIAN RAIDS.—The cost of defending Canada and the other British Provinces from the incursions of the Fenian brigades, must amount to two or three millions of dollars; and it may be calculated that the robberies committed by them at Missisquoi and Fort Erie, together with the injury done to the trade of the country, if it could be ascertained, would be worth more than the cost of the Fenian Raids. It is Mr. Galt's intention to present his little bill to the American Government for those disbursements and losses; but we certainly think he ought, and that the claim should be accompanied with a memorial or minute consisting of the names of the Fenian Raids, the Fenian despatches to Mr. Adams, in which he so conclusively proves that England is justly liable for the losses inflicted on the American commerce by Southern raiders during the late civil war—surely, if the British Government are responsible for the depredations of the Fenian Raids, and stealing out of British ports, without the authorities having any knowledge of their designations or designs, the American Government is responsible to us for the damage done to us by the Fenian Raids, as it is in respect to the sea pirates, the others were land pirates, the Fenians, also, unlike the Southern raiders, made no secret as to their intentions. They openly declared, from hundreds of platforms, and through thousands of newspapers, that they were preparing for an invasion of these provinces, and that they would not be deterred by any military force. They collected vast sums of money for the purpose, and purchased arms and ammunition with it from United States arsenals. In short, their preparations for the threatened enterprise were undisguised as those of Austria, Prussia, or Italy, at the present moment. It is difficult to see how they could have done this, and the whole of their followers, were in bitter earnest in the matter, and almost everybody believed that an attack would be made at some time in the near future. Under these circumstances, we cannot conceive how our neighbors can refuse to comply with our demand on them in the premises, especially when we consider the nature of their own pretensions in the Alabama and Shenandoah affair, and the admitted fact that President Johnson only refused to say the word "I" and the word "did" never taken place.—as he could have trumped out the conspiracy months ago. We therefore express the hope that our "little bill" will be forthwith transmitted to Washington for their consideration. It is a strong conviction that it will be passed, and that the Fenian Raids will be a precedent for England to follow in settling the American requisition for the Fenian Raids. Mr. Seward is just the sort of a "cunning fox" who would throw away a spear to catch a whale. We would not, however, advise the Minister of Finance to rely too much on the receipt of this money, or to include it in his schedule of Ways and Means for the ensuing year.—Montreal Transcript.

The National Division Sons of Temperance has been holding its annual session in Montreal. The only representatives present from New Brunswick were Messrs. J. H. A. B. and W. W. Treasurer of the N. D. and O. D. Watson, Esq., G. W. Watson, Esq., and O. D. Watson, Esq. The latter came thirty-five Grand Divisions in thirty-two States and Provinces. They show 1,025 authorized divisions in active operation, containing 122,624 members and 1,283,285 members. During the past year 29,279 new members have been admitted and 7,750 old ones expelled by various causes. Of lady members 14,605 were admitted during the year, mostly in Massachusetts, Maine, Ohio and Canada West. Massachusetts has the largest number of members, being nearly one-third of the whole number. Canada West exhibits the largest number of subordinate divisions—two hundred and one—Massachusetts and Nova Scotia following with 125 each, Maine with 88 and New Brunswick with 82. By the various subordinate divisions, $1,911,921; cash on hand and invested $1,741,916; income of Grand Divisions for the past year $12,189; of the National Division $1,071,146. The Grand Divisions contain 8,278 members, and the National Division 455. Among the communications received was one from Nova Scotia respecting the formation of a National Division of the British North American Provinces.—Globe.

PRESBYTERIAN UNION.—The Union of the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick Presbyterians took place last night in St. David's Church, Sydney street. Our Reporter had furnished us with full notes of the interesting ceremonies on the occasion, but the demands made on our space by important English Despatches prevents a lengthy notice. We can only state that the Rev. James Bennett of this City was unanimously chosen Moderator of the United Synod, and the Rev. Mr. McGregor, of Halifax, Clerk of the Synod. The body takes the title of "The Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces of the Union." The Union gives the utmost satisfaction to all parties interested.—Telegraph.

There were only six persons in Memphis in 1861 that voted against secession. Now there are not less than 500 persons each of whom claim to be one of the six.

A man fell out of a third story window in Pittsburgh, Penn., one night recently, and his body was found in the morning, partially consumed by rats.

A number of New York ladies are preparing a splendid ball to be presented to Garibaldi, and a number of young men are to be chosen as the bearers of it to Italy.

Artemus Ward expects to make $50,000 in England.

Upwards of 400 clerks have been thrown out of employment in London in consequence of the recent bank failures.

Colonial News.

The Victoria Express gives the following account of the storm at Tobique on the 25th ult. "TERRIFIC GALE AT ANDOVER!—FOUR BARNS AND TWO DWELLINGS DESTROYED!—Seldom has the journalist of this Province such painful tidings to record as it becomes our duty to do at present. The village of Tobique, in the Parish of Andover, about 24 miles from Grand Falls, has been the scene of the most unprecedented freak of nature. On the evening of Monday last, about 7 o'clock, a tornado, equalling in terrific grandeur those of Northern Africa, passed over the flat district on the western side of the St. John river, about 2 miles below Tobique, destroying in its course several two-story dwellings. Coming from the westward, the warping elements swept the dwelling and barn of Mr. Smith, breaking the collar and breast bones of Mrs. Smith, who was in the House, wounding her little boy in such a way as to render his recovery hopeless. A nail from some part of the building having penetrated his temple and coursing through the head, came out in the forehead. Its course extended across the river to the residence of Mr. Hallett, Parish of Perth, utterly destroying everything in its way, scarcely a vestige of the barns remaining where they once stood. A wagon which lay in the vicinity was raised from its situation and landed about fifty feet distant, with the pole stuck in the ground, body upwards.

About the same time, or perhaps a little later, we had a severe shower, but nothing more than the usual attendant of a thunder storm. These parties have lost their all, and no visible means of repairing the loss remain. We hope that a generous and sympathizing public will not let the matter rest until something is done for the sufferers. Mr. Galt made for the sad accident to Mrs. S. and her boy.

THE CANADIAN BELL FOR THE FENIAN RAIDS.—The cost of defending Canada and the other British Provinces from the incursions of the Fenian brigades, must amount to two or three millions of dollars; and it may be calculated that the robberies committed by them at Missisquoi and Fort Erie, together with the injury done to the trade of the country, if it could be ascertained, would be worth more than the cost of the Fenian Raids. It is Mr. Galt's intention to present his little bill to the American Government for those disbursements and losses; but we certainly think he ought, and that the claim should be accompanied with a memorial or minute consisting of the names of the Fenian Raids, the Fenian despatches to Mr. Adams, in which he so conclusively proves that England is justly liable for the losses inflicted on the American commerce by Southern raiders during the late civil war—surely, if the British Government are responsible for the depredations of the Fenian Raids, and stealing out of British ports, without the authorities having any knowledge of their designations or designs, the American Government is responsible to us for the damage done to us by the Fenian Raids, as it is in respect to the sea pirates, the others were land pirates, the Fenians, also, unlike the Southern raiders, made no secret as to their intentions. They openly declared, from hundreds of platforms, and through thousands of newspapers, that they were preparing for an invasion of these provinces, and that they would not be deterred by any military force. They collected vast sums of money for the purpose, and purchased arms and ammunition with it from United States arsenals. In short, their preparations for the threatened enterprise were undisguised as those of Austria, Prussia, or Italy, at the present moment. It is difficult to see how they could have done this, and the whole of their followers, were in bitter earnest in the matter, and almost everybody believed that an attack would be made at some time in the near future. Under these circumstances, we cannot conceive how our neighbors can refuse to comply with our demand on them in the premises, especially when we consider the nature of their own pretensions in the Alabama and Shenandoah affair, and the admitted fact that President Johnson only refused to say the word "I" and the word "did" never taken place.—as he could have trumped out the conspiracy months ago. We therefore express the hope that our "little bill" will be forthwith transmitted to Washington for their consideration. It is a strong conviction that it will be passed, and that the Fenian Raids will be a precedent for England to follow in settling the American requisition for the Fenian Raids. Mr. Seward is just the sort of a "cunning fox" who would throw away a spear to catch a whale. We would not, however, advise the Minister of Finance to rely too much on the receipt of this money, or to include it in his schedule of Ways and Means for the ensuing year.—Montreal Transcript.

The National Division Sons of Temperance has been holding its annual session in Montreal. The only representatives present from New Brunswick were Messrs. J. H. A. B. and W. W. Treasurer of the N. D. and O. D. Watson, Esq., G. W. Watson, Esq., and O. D. Watson, Esq. The latter came thirty-five Grand Divisions in thirty-two States and Provinces. They show 1,025 authorized divisions in active operation, containing 122,624 members and 1,283,285 members. During the past year 29,279 new members have been admitted and 7,750 old ones expelled by various causes. Of lady members 14,605 were admitted during the year, mostly in Massachusetts, Maine, Ohio and Canada West. Massachusetts has the largest number of members, being nearly one-third of the whole number. Canada West exhibits the largest number of subordinate divisions—two hundred and one—Massachusetts and Nova Scotia following with 125 each, Maine with 88 and New Brunswick with 82. By the various subordinate divisions, $1,911,921; cash on hand and invested $1,741,916; income of Grand Divisions for the past year $12,189; of the National Division $1,071,146. The Grand Divisions contain 8,278 members, and the National Division 455. Among the communications received was one from Nova Scotia respecting the formation of a National Division of the British North American Provinces.—Globe.

PRESBYTERIAN UNION.—The Union of the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick Presbyterians took place last night in St. David's Church, Sydney street. Our Reporter had furnished us with full notes of the interesting ceremonies on the occasion, but the demands made on our space by important English Despatches prevents a lengthy notice. We can only state that the Rev. James Bennett of this City was unanimously chosen Moderator of the United Synod, and the Rev. Mr. McGregor, of Halifax, Clerk of the Synod. The body takes the title of "The Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces of the Union." The Union gives the utmost satisfaction to all parties interested.—Telegraph.

There were only six persons in Memphis in 1861 that voted against secession. Now there are not less than 500 persons each of whom claim to be one of the six.

A man fell out of a third story window in Pittsburgh, Penn., one night recently, and his body was found in the morning, partially consumed by rats.

A number of New York ladies are preparing a splendid ball to be presented to Garibaldi, and a number of young men are to be chosen as the bearers of it to Italy.

Artemus Ward expects to make $50,000 in England.

Upwards of 400 clerks have been thrown out of employment in London in consequence of the recent bank failures.

American News.

The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps.

Arrival of the Cuba. The Cuba arrived at Halifax July 24. No military news of importance yet received. Preparations for great struggle continue night and day, but main anxiety now is to get the fleet ready to start. It is generally believed that Austria is resolved to concentrate all her strength in an effort to secure supremacy in Germany, and after such crossing of swords as will satisfy Austria will surrender Venice to Italy, as she is willing to come to amicable understanding. Times speaking of apparent delay on the part of Austria, observes Austria no doubt has some reason for her apparent inactivity. Her generals are able, troops eager, and there is obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. Daily news thinks inactivity has been imposed upon Austria by Prussia. Prussian troops enter the Balkans, and the movement of Benedek are kept very secret; nothing more than reconnaissance appear to have been made by Austrians in Upper Silesia. Prussians continued to fortify themselves at Dresden. Zdenka had surrendered to Prussians. Vienna papers assert Saxony Town Zettin has been destroyed by Prussians in consequence of refusal of inhabitants to pay war contributions. The Prussians have taken the Elector of Hesse and his Minister of War into custody. Federal army corps, Prussian, French, and Hanoverian troops effected a junction with Prussian army corps. Federal army corps