sion of the American Government. Another paper takes the same view of it: " It will be dangerous to give encouragemen even temporarily, to the inter-Colonial feeling which certain influential men, both in Britain and of the United States shall force them. for their mutual protection and prosperity, into a closer compact and alliance than now exists." Government. The hon Chief Commissioner said port he says :his Excellency called upon him. I do not know sired by them and which, if carried into effect whether he is the leader or whether he brings with a careful regard to the strength and efficiwhether he is the leader, or whether he brings up the rear. He quoted from the Litany. My perhaps less than a tenth—of the land thus ification and the other not having it, though ency of the Union, they believe so well calculate.

cessors did, and for which he condemned them.

mortal seves, and as the President of the Coun-men made application for land in my County, cil has endorsed it, he, with the late Attorney and could not get it. I believe in equal rights that when the British Parliament, consisting of six hundred and fifty-six members, were acquaint- if the political head of the department was abolined that the Government has him before the British Parliament, consisting of supporters, many of whom, with the country, are now quite satisfied that the Government has him before the British Parliament, consisting of supporters, many of whom, with the country, are now quite satisfied that the Government has him before the supporters and supporters. ed with this scheme, no one outside would know anything about it. It was said, if we went into Confederation we would have to provide one or two vessels for defence. Here to provide one or two vessels for defence. Here to provide one or two vessels for defence. Here to provide anything about it. It was said, if we went into Confederation we would have to provide anything about it. It was said, if we went into Confederation we would have to provide at the Government has proved itself either quite incompetent properly to discharge its trust, or wilfully and unpardonably and entirely concurred at the time, but it was said. If would not the chief business be done in St. John had the Government has proved itself either quite incompetent properly to discharge its trust, or wilfully and unpardonably will have a Frenchman to take the stand, and they will stand by him you may depend. The more intelligence is displayed in a country, and thirds of the shipcarpenters employed in the various question of Confederation; the unfavorable light. is a navy which we have to provide alone. If the salary and pickings, without the privilege of union of the British North American Provinces; in which those vaccilations must have placed the able and settled population on the American side of commanding others, the free would be the inwe went into Confederation we would only have one-thirteenth part to pay, and but few vessels was the saving that was to be effected by doing the border, contemplate an assault upon their would be wanted. We have been taken care of away with the political head of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their continuing to collect such duties; their care of the department, and their care of the department of the depa try to do something for ourselves, and it should rallying ery of Confederation. I was almost dis- Mr. Smith-You would not have supported us not be thought an insult for Her Majestv's Min- couraged, but I believed that "he is thrice arm- had we brought forward a scheme. isters to refer to it, and I do not think the people of the country consider it so. It has been place upon the frontier, and had any such information reached you or your colleague, you would not be doing justice.

Mr. Beveridge—I would, and the Government regard to defence; their promises made only to place upon the frontier, and had any such information reached you or your colleague, you would not be doing justice.

Mr. Beveridge—I would, and the Government is endeavoring to make the Americans believe that the Government is endeavoring to make the Americans believe they are disbanding the lieve that uniting these Colonies would weaken med up with the cry of Confederation and anti- either to my own convictions or to the intelligent them. The only thing I know of that will be Confederation.

high a source, and will be considered with an are before the country. They should arise far anxious desire to meet the views of those of Her above that; but this was a question whether we Majesty's advisers; but if such views should un- were going to maintain our connection with the fortunately not coincide with the views of those mother country or not. Confederation is a queson whom alone the responsibility of action in the tion that has occupied the minds of men for six-Province falls, the Committee feel assured that ty-five years. Judge wilmor new those views Her Majesty's Government will expect and de- when on the floors of this House, and he is a cresire that the Government of this Province should dit to the country which gave him birth, and I sirable object of a union of the Colonies—who measures, making a ton of hay 2,000 and a hun- May it please Your Excellency: act according to their own convictions of right." Contend it was unfair to pass over him and ap ever they be or whatever called they shall have dred weight 100 lbs., was passed the Lower and merit can only attain to a certain degree of merit; ei have sailed from other points of the States for same They will act according to their own convictions of right."

They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions:

They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to the right of the views expressed by the hon. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to their own convictions of right. They will act according to the right of the r toot men who claim the right to do as they like, ing to Insurance offices. He was appointed on the results and establishing bave been taken, I still indulge the hope that the which might adorn the country. * * Be it Me., there to embark for their destination in school. when Her Majesty suggests that we should unite political grounds, which is a principle they have their forfeiture of the country result may show that these precautions are suffiunder one Government. The Government tell carried down to the officials on the railway, and grow bread not only sufficient for herself but, as in a manner the most convincing. us how loyal they are. Loyalty does not consist I don't know how much further they would have well, for all the other Provinces. We should not I must contess that in the true acceptation came up in the Vour Excellency admits that the contingency altho' I must contess that in the true acceptation came up in the Vour Excellency admits that the contingency altho' I must contess that in the true acceptation came up in the Vour Excellency admits that the contingency altho' I must contess that in the true acceptation came up in the Vour Excellency admits that the contingency altho' I must contess that in the true acceptation came up in the Vour Excellency admits that the contingency altho' I must contess that in the true acceptation came up in the Vour Excellency admits that the contingency admits that the contingency altho' I must contess that in the true acceptation came up in the Vour Excellency admits that the contingency admits the contingency admits that the contingency admits the contingency admit in hip service, but in obelience. A refractory carried it, if His Excellency had not interfered. only of service of a small predatory raid, is not now forscen for public opinion, but of private acts a right to public opinion, but of private acts a right to public opinion, but of private acts a right to public opinion, but of private acts a right to man is not a good subject to any country.

It has been said that they are going to change provisional Government organized and President elec-weakened by uniting is rum and water.

them, and another that the late Provincial Sec- said he was sorry it did not go further, that they that Victoria is anti-Confederate. I must differ retary ought to have told his predecessor of it had not made use of stronger language, using an from him in his conclusions; true the particular They thus acknowledge that they are not fit to expression I am ashamed to repeat. These are locality in which he resides may be anti, but I attend to the business, for they tried till they the loyal men, and we are the conspirators. My know that the people of the upper and lower got a man out of office, and then found fault be- hon. friend (Mr. Wilmot) said in Canada, that parishes are most anxious for union. rause he did not do the work for them. The he was not opposed to a union, but he was not people complain they connot find a mem-satisfied with the Quebec Scheme. Mr. George election as an anti-Confederate, and his return that would raise a barrier to the further exten- went to your House and said I believe you are a certain families or he will not be fit for office. I Lower House had passed theirs—reason is obvito Quebec, was not on the floors of the House, position.

I said that the Fenians sympathised with the his wish, he is not satisfied. He says that when Antis, and not that the Antis sympathised with a division was taken upon the question abolish-the Fenians. The Attorney General then jumpsing the office of Postmaster General, there were ed up in a great rage and said. " I see the hon thirty for it and nine against it. That was begentleman is opposed to the Government." I cause, when a question came up, they got up the made those remarks not with reference to any- rallying cry, that every man who was elected a thing before the House. He said I was not wor- Confederate was violating his principles if he did thy of a place in the Legislature. I thought it not vote with the Government. A cry is now would be very convenient for the hon. member raised, that if they vote against the Government to keep me out until this question is disposed of. the House will be dissolved. I never was into It reminds me of the allusion made last year, neither do I care much about having a seat in the of to-day, necessary to communicate to our read- an insurance of $1600 Something was said about our being in the mud. a Government, and I do not care about going in. comparing the Government to Nebuchadnezzar's Legislature. When I was first requested to of- ers. Mr. Connell's speech we will, when it apimage, which was made of iron, clay, brass. gold fer, some person said I would not get three hun-and silver. If reports are true, the silver is gone dred votes, but the event proved he was wrong, have this week printed Mr. Lindsay's. and the gold with it. Some say the clay is gone and if the House was dissolved to-morrow, I am too. I should think it was, as I see here a large ready to run again, so they need not think disquantity of brass, or perhaps it was meant that solving the House will have much effect with able to Mr. Costigan's Qualification Bill prevails the following is the concluding paragraph. The the clay and brass had been mixed together and me. There is another thing ought not to have in the Assembly, and are sorry to find Mr. Lind- ment must go by the board: converted into mud. I do not know what to call been done—that is, speculating in land. I con- say making a strong opposition to it. The quesmy lion, friend, whether to call him President of sider that the greatest sin the Government have the Council, or Attorney General, or Leader of been guilty of. I believe no greater evil can be tion of universal suffrage which members have North American Provinces will strengthen the These several Reports deserve, and will rethe Government, or Plenipotentiary extraordi- inflicted upon a community than allowing one dragged into it has nothing whatever to do with ties which bind them to the Mother Country and ceive, an extended notice when we have a little nary. I do not know who is the Leader of the man to monopolize the lands of the policy of the bill. It is just here, as perti-Government. It was said that the hon member will quote a report of the Earl of Durham, who for St. John (Mr. Wilmot) in connection with was at that time Governor General of British titled to vote should not be restricted in their will rejoice to learn that this great measure the the Hon. Mr. Smith, were appointed to form a North America. At the 159th page of his remind would lead me to quote from the general granted has been even occupied by settlers, much every voter in the County prefers the latter as ted to benefit British America, is heartily approvought not to have done," and we have no confidence in them. I have heard it intimated outside that they have one office promised to two of three members, and they have some offices upporters. Then again, they intimidate some by saying, if they vote against the Government there is most constituents. In anything that concerns the interest of the Province, or the interest of the Province of the province of the province of the interest of the Province, or the interest of the Province of the Province confession. "They have done the things they less reclaimed and cultivated. In Lower Canathe man most cuinently qualified to represent da, with the exception of a few townships bor-increased through the increase of population."

"Resolved, As the opinion of this Committee allow men to purchase large blocks of land, greatly to be regretted for the sake of all parties. to guard the interests of both large and small that the amount the Lientenant Governor is en- which the poor man has to go through and make titled to receive, as salary, is £3461 10s. 8d. per roads, as this interferes with the prosperity of annum, and the Solicitor General and Provincial the country. Why should a poor man be com-Secretary £230 15s. 4d. each," and further pelled to make roads through another man's pro-"Resolved, That the amount paid beyond these perty; that land having been obtained for two was taken which proved adverse; it was then portant work. sums were improperly paid, and without suffici- shillings, and kept until it is worth four dollars reconsidered and progress reported, and will an acre, in consequence of the settlements around have better luck, we hope, next time. The reg- for some time. When we say, that his speech is Yeas-Kerr, Williston, Vail, Costigan, Me- it. It has been said here that when they sold Clelan, Skinner, Smith, McPhelim, Scovil, Fer. land and put the money to interest, it brought ular debate was opened by Mr. Beveridge, who ris, Lindsay, Anglin, W. J. Gilbert, S. H. Gil- them in more than they received from timber li- was followed by Mr. Needham; the speech of and one from Southampton, complaining of the censes. I contend the country would be a gain- the latter gentleman we did not near, but was, time taken up in the debate, and expressing He had thus allowed His Excellency to do what he thought was wrong in his predecessor's actual settlement being attached to it, for it has office. Another thing he ought not to have done been calculated that every settler is worth three taken up too much by reviewing everything that tion, over Anglin and Fenianism. We can tell was, withholding the despatches sent out here for dollars a year to the revenues of the country. Mr. Fisher has ever done or left undone. "Com- in the debate the Government is chargeable. It the information of the Legislature. Mr. Lindsay This and the late Government blame each other parisons are odious," and if Mr. Fisher in his con- has not been urged on by them at all, and havthen read a despatch dated the 12th of April, in regard to this. (Hon. Mr. Smith.—Which which he said should have been received here Government was most to blame.) All the late the 26th of April, and which contained informa- Government did was to order the survey. (Mr. ing made for him, which we scarcely hope he course they could have it their own way and tion of importance respecting military defence Wetmore.—Was the money paid.) The ex-Sur- will, he will have ample opportunity of making sold, we say this, that whatever was told them and Confederation, that should have been laid veyor General said it was not paid. Why did comparisons exceedingly odious to the Governation about Anglin has never been contradicted, and before the Legislature at that time assembled, but which was not laid before them at all. The but which was not laid before them at all. The next thing they ought not to have done was, survey was made only ten months ago? If there they should not have written that dispatch, dated was any reason why the public lands should be politically, morally or socially, it is scarcely wise ince from Fenianism, is support to show how ince from Fenianism. July 12th, which was insulting to her Majesty's sold to others than actual settlers, notice should either Mr. Smith, Anglin, Needham, Hatheway much danger was apprehended. Government, and which was signed by the im- have been given to the Deputies. I know that or others we might name, provoking a personal we referred to the fire here on Sunday morn-General, will make the immortal nine. The for all. It was not right that a few men should Mr. Beveridge's speech we give below—in as ton's loss was very heavy; some 700 bushels of President of the Council said the despatch justithe rest kent in ignorance. There was five thouthe rest kent in ignorance. There was five thouthe rest kent in ignorance. There was five thouplans formed of what was going on, and the rest kent in ignorance. There was five thouplans formed on the supposition of a dissolution: He then read the despatch dated June 24th, sand acres purchased in fictitious names, and then Mr. Beveridge—So much has been said upon assistance. Mr. Thomas Smith is quite a heavy 1865, to which the other was an answer, and the resolution was rescinded, and he got ten said he could see nothing in it to justify them in thousand more; previous to this he got a three the Amendment before the House, and the sub- loser; and also Mr. J. Sutherland, who lost a said he could see nothing in it to justify them in thousand more; previous to this he got a three returning such an answer, and continued: the years license to cut the lumber on it, and if any jects relevant and irrelevant thereto, by gentle-President of the Council said, he only knew of one else had bought it he could cut all the lum- men who have preceded me, that there is but whether it will alter a single vote from what was two persons, outside of Parliament, who knew ber off of it. Then again they said, by doing anticipated at the commencement or not, has plan proposed," i. e., that of enrolling a Home wisdom of the Legislature will not surely pass a plan proposed, it is containly observed the opinions of many of its that when the British Parliament, consisting of master General, they would make a great saving. however, to be an exception to the general rule certainly changed the opinions of many of its Guard to serve only in case of need "would be supporters many of the day Gold 1281".

The Times says, that by refusing to unite to- hon. friend referred to what Judge Wilmot had cleeted to support Confederation; and there are done wrong; their delegations fruitless except in the Drovings that would receive the confederation are insufgether we show a want of loyalty, and this Gov- said and done, and how he voted, thus admitting ernment say in the Minute of Council: " When the truth of the charge brought against them that greater and more direct benefits from union with a wish is expressed by Her Majesty's Govern- they had made politics their rule for their apment, it will be received with that deference pointments on the Bench. I do not believe in which is due to suggestions emanating from so Judges interfering in the political questions which

Mr. Lindsay then read the reply of the Colo- their base, and take another course on Confed- our part. It has been said by the opponents of an able and elaborate speech, establishing very the conquered, a confed- their base, and take another course on Confed- their base, and take another course of the Confed- their base, and take another course of the Confed- their base, and take another course of t nial Secretary to those immortal nine, and could the representation heretofore made by me.

The same of the color than the col tinued. This reply was just as much as to say: me to say anything, for they may come round all largely increased. But, I say, out of union our not injure us. He sustained his argument by With regard to my speech made on the 8th connexion with either or both, and when the dition supported by Downing and others. I cannot believe the loyal men of New Bruns- right. I think by what is foreshadowed in the taxes must largely increase. Look at the large the most conclusive testimony gleaned from va- December at Woodstock, to which Your Excel- public mind has changed to such a degree as to Cuba with Liverpool dates to the 25th, has arrived. wick endorse the views expressed by those im- Speech, that they are going to get up another expenditure, to which this Legislature but re- rious reliable sources. mortal nine. These are things they ought not delegation and have another excursion, for the cently assented, for the support of a local army to have done. I will now speak of things they Attorney General says he is willing to go for and navy, and where I ask is the money to come ought to have left undone. I believe when a some Scheme. He said when we advocated a from for the support of our schools, and for the a man is paid $2,400 a year to fill an office, he Scheme of Union, that we were " political sche- maintenance of our roads and bridges? I tell should attend to his duties, and not have to mers" and "conspirators." Now they are going you, Mr. Speaker, and I tell this House, it has make excuses for sins of omissions. It is the old to get up a political scheme, but I do not know got to come by direct taxation and that too, in a story Adam left the blame on his wife and his whether they are going to "conspirit" or not. When the subsidy for Westwife left it on the devil. (Laughter.) The Pres- They called a man who was going to carry out ern Extension, and the branches to St. Stephen ident of the Council says the late Attorney Gen- the wishes of his Sovereign a "conspirator." I and Woodstock are provided for but little of our eral ought to have known the Export Duty law heard it stated on good authority, and I need revenues will be left for other purposes. It is was to expire. Another says the Provincial not go off the floors of this Legislature to prove said our revenues are increasing; it is but slowly Secretary ought to have known it. Another, it, that the Chief Commissioner, on being asked in comparison to our increasing expenditures .that Fisher found it out and should have told whether he had read that Minute of Council, My hon. colleague said, I think, in his speech, ber of the Government at Fredericton, there Brown said there, were some things in the scheme was the best proof he could offer as to the corwere so many pleasure excursions. Two of them they did not like either, they would meet him rectness of what he had stated off to England to tell Her Majesty's Govern- half way in considering a union, for they did not Mr. Beveridge—That amounts to nothing. I We learn that the meeting of the Teach- of Magistrates of Carleton County, at which his call." Sold everywhere at 25 ets. per box. ment what they knew before; but, in order to say they had done something for the £800 they had done something for the £800 they had received they made an arrangement for a not see how any British subject to Berlin in interests peace.

Its Value is Incalculable.—For all diseases breaking they wish to take any unfair advantage of their fellow-colonists. I am in favor of a union and I do low-colonists. I am in favor of a union a had received they made an arrangement for a hot see how any British subject can be opposed and had not I had four friends who were too kind and put in double votes, which of course last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local and had not I had four friends who were too kind and put in double votes, which of course last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. With which children are afflicted during the pro- to it, but to agree upon a scheme of union, we was not the case, nor to my knowledge, did you kind and put in double votes, which of course last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. Inspector Freeze was present and informed the see my report until it was in print; without my local last, was of a satisfactory and pleasing character. eral made it under a Bill which he had done all make some concessions or we will never were lost, I would have been two votes ahead— Board, we understand, that the next regular knowledge a revision could not be made. In he stood the test of the tree of the t he could to defeat when it was before the House. agree to any terms. My hon triend (Col. Boyd) to fail. Cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and made a speech in Canada in favor of union. We did not be made. In the could to defeat when it was before the House. agree to any terms. My hon triend (Col. Boyd) to fail. Cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and made a speech in Canada in favor of union. We did not be made. In the could to defeat when it was before the House. Some concessions or we will never when it was before the House. In the could to defeat when it was before the House. Some concessions or we will never when it was before the House. In the could to defeat when it was before the House. In the c my hou. friend from St. John (Mr. Anglin) (Col. Boyd, not in favor of the Quebec Scheme.) In the Upper House it was announced that committee from the Carleton County Institute went to Canada. I do not know whether they I did not say it was, but I heard him speak His Excellency would receive the address of that bambug, and a bankrupt, and I don't want to believe in freedom and equal rights for all. There ous, to prevent certain papers being made pubhave anything to do with you; we would have are a great many things in the scheme which are lie before the debate down stairs is through. a social time would we not? It was in this spi- complained of in Canada, and it is doubtful, if Mr. Costigan gave notice of motion for papers rit they went to Canada; they said we did not we get a new scheme, whether we would come respecting some Crown land transaction in Vicare bankrupts, and are trying to take advantage that New Brunswick is to get $63,000 a-year particularly embarrassing to that department. in Canada, are doing all in their power to cultivate. The suspension of reciprocal trade will be have been Then they had another pleasure gent, that unless we run into debt to the extent by particularly embarrassing to that department.

Mr. Connell tells us that the statement made have been they had another pleasure gent, that unless we run into debt to the extent by particularly embarrassing to that department. of the building of the inter-Colonial Railway, which it follows to the building of the inter-Colonial Railway, which it follows to the boundary line. It boundary line. Mr. Buck estimates a saving of which EVERY INHABITANT OF NEW ENGLAND is said, "evil communications corrupt good man-WHICH EVERY INHABITANT OF NEW ENGLAND is said, "evil communications corrupt good manwould soon reach that amount, and Canada does wrong petition. We are happy to learn that a should seek to prevent by all proper." He was led to do something he ought not come in with a debt equal to burs if we take ners." He was led to do something he ought not come in with a debt equal to ours, if we take new bill has been decided upon which will meet not to have done, but, I believe if my hon. friend the population of Canada into consideration. the views of all parties, probably, it being a comesprocity, and the prosecution of the internation.

repents he has a right to expect mercy, and if We would have more money for local purposes promise. The bill, we understand, will provide al line, will, in our opinion, never be built—repents he has a right to expect mercy, and if we would have more money for local purposes promise. The bill, we understand, will provide than we have now, and have the Inter-Colonial for the mercy and the mercy al line, will, in our opinion, never be built—

Closely allied to this is the political Confederation of the Provinces, which can never be brought

The hon. Attorney General stated here last Sestion of the Provinces, which can never be brought to pass unless an unfriendly policy on the part sion that he was sorry that his hon. friend (Mr. of each other, and would not require half the Town in any assessment for any loan the choice of a delegate to the Legislature. If two speedy accomplishment of which is ardently de- tender our thanks for copious tyles of late Amer-have never thought of settling in person, and gret that His Excellency has referred to Wood He says that is paid back; that is not the question. The question is, has he a right to draw it? tion. The question is, has he a right to draw it? speculating upon its acquiring a value at some speculating upon its acquiring a value at some of the has a right to draw it, he has a right to draw it. We believe the with very great judgment. We believe the principle of the bill is the same as that proposed which was carried in 1864. I will read the resoter. I am opposed to any Government who will mander-in-Chief has been misinformed, which is constituency that sent me here to represent them, In regard to the appointment of Judges, my did I not record my vote against them. I was Canada than would Victoria; this is largely owing to her geographical position, adjoining as she does that Province, and thus laving additional facilities for free and uninterrupted trade. Mr. Smith-Was you not elected an Anti? Mr. Beveridge-No! I told the people at the hustings that I was in favor of Confederation, though not wedded to the Quebec Scheme air not what man or set of men brings about the de- A Bill to establish uniform rate of weights and went voluntarily or whether they were paid for strongly in favor of a union; but he is one of branch on Monday. This, it is said, has taken was thereupon appointed to take the necessary it. (Mr. Anglin - I paid my own expenses as I those men who believe nothing good can come the Government by surprise, as it was its inten- steps to make that meeting as convenient and ers of Woodstock.

Saturday, April 7, 1866. Editorial Correspondence.

FREDERICTON, March 29, 1866.

> SATURDAY, March 31. This forenoon Mr. Costigan's Qualification Bill

MONDAY, April 2. A fire occurred here on Sunday morning which ured. A stable adjoining and several other out houses were destroyed, in one of which were two paratively, decrease his salary. horses and two cows. Considerable flour and There is little supplementary to our telegram other goods were destroyed. Mr. Atherton had

Mr. Needham has been speaking all the afternoon, and resumes again to-morrow-a synopsis His Excellency to-day received the Council for a copy of the same work.

ity of New Brunswick, will I know afford much concerns the interest of the Province, or the rights of the people, I should have no hesitation in going back to my constituents. I will now call attention to things that ought not to have been done. He has allowed His Excellency to draw the same amount of salary that his predecessors did, and for which he condemned them.

ARTHUR'S Home Magazine for April is recited them to ought to be to the retaining it. The question for giving immediate value to ought to be to the retaining it. The question for priving immediate value to ought to be to the retaining it. The question for giving immediate value to ought to be to the retaining it. The question their grants; and, unfortunately, the land which was intended for persons of poorer order, who misrepresentatives?

County will be likely to attach a motive less pointment with the Town Council, as proposed in the original bill. We are glad that this combination to things that ought not to have been done. He has allowed His Excellence to improve it by the not to have been done. He has allowed His Excellence to improve it by the not to have been done. We have any different his statement was ought to be to the retaining it. The question for giving immediate value to ought to be to the retaining it. The question for privision is that which gives the ratepayers different his statement was ought to be did, then he is guilty of a gross recitively. For cheaping of their grants; and, unfortunately, the land which was intended for persons of poorer order, who misrepresentation, to which the people of this ceived. For cheaping and intended to the provision is that which gives the ratepayers different his statement was ought to be to the retaining it. The question for April is recitively the privilege of electing a Director of the Railway Company, instead of leaving the amount of stock, and a very product to the did, then he is guilty of a gross recitively. without unduly embarrassing any interest of the Town; and we think the bill has been prepared with very great judgment. We believe the Leary, under the concurrence and advice of Mr. Connell, who has been throughout anxious property holders. We believe the measure will recommend itself to the general approval of our Between His Excellency and Hon. Charles Contownspeople, who will, we hope, unite in giving

Mr. Needham is still speaking, and will speak exhaustive, it is the best term we can find. He has just read two letters, one from Canterbury regulate the matter. As to the people being whole Provincial resources to defend the Provning-we are sorry to learn that friend Atherfriends, and justified the opposition of those who have never expressed confidence in them.

The hon. Provincial Secretary was, we are sorry to learn, suddenly called to St. George by an alarming attack of illness of his father. Mr. Needham has finished

By Telegram from Fredericton. THURSDAY, April 5.

Miller and McDonald, Nova Scotia Legisla tive leaders of anti-Confederation party, have Hon. Mr. Chandler, in Legislative Council spoke for three hours, explaining and defending Quebec Scheme. In Lower House, Wetmore been speaking all the afternoon; most elaborate conclusive argument against Government: he was pledged to vote against Confederation in this House, but his own views had been greatly modified; he was and always had been a Liberal, and had lost confidence in Government be- Carleton Sentinel :cause they had violated principles of Responsible Government and allowed the Governor to Charles Connell, Esq. have his own way. Anglin has commenced to atalias do) That is all very well. Suppose I out of Nazareth, and that a man must belong to tion not to have that address received until the profitable to all concerned as possible.

the route of Western Extension as surveyed by colleague and myself to Your Excellency. some $700,000 by the adoption of this line. We have no space now for further notice.

says has met him in various parts of this County. To His Excellency, the Hon. A. H. Gordon, C. Fisher) who was one of the delegates who went number of troops that we do now in our isolated bill, and also a clause to make one Director of has looked into the matter at all could advance so that he could confront him; hut now he has such an idea; for he must know that the Inspectors are paid a stated salary, without any perquisites whatever. In the present case, as Mr. completely destroyed the Livery Stables of Mr. Freeze pointedly remarks, he is advocating a G. R. Atherton, with a number of valuable principle the establishment of which, while it sleighs, harnesses, &c; one horse was badly in- will very materially increase his duties will, com-

> ACKNOWLEDGMENTS .- From John Bennet Esq., Chief Superintendent of Schools, we have received his Annual Report for 1865. We are the subject. We are glad to know that a feeling so favor- with the address, and gave an answer, of which We are also in receipt of the Postmaster General,s Report for 1865. Also the Fifth Annual Report of the Crown Land Department.

more space at our command. To Mr. F. S. Risteen, Boston, we would Fine weather prevails at present. The

From Richmond, Va., we have late Amer-ne by Mr. P. F. Beardsley. Preaching to morrow (Sunday) at Ray-

Late papers by Tobin's Express. Thanks.

FURTHER CORRESPONDENCE

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, March 29, 1866. Sir,-I am directed by His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor, to acknowledge the receipt on the 27th inst., of your letter of the 25th. His Excellency does not perceive that there is any essential difference between the statement, to the correctness of which you demur, and that which body of men. Whilst, of course, His Excellency was aware that you, like himself, thought it no impossible that, in the event of a serious attack being made elsewhere, small border raids might upper part of the County not long since, (can- the principal excitement was in regard to Barbacoas be attempted in the vicinity of Woodstock.

It being then conceded that no attack in force would be apprehended. His Excellency presumes the same measures of defence should be adopted as are required at points where, if a descent be made at all, it will probably assume a more ser-not now forseen for the first time, for it was against such an attack that His Excellency desired to provide when recommending the formawhich His Excellency understands was revised by yourself, you discussed the possibility of an attack by a band of some fifty men. You were then of opinion that it "would be unwise" and "was question of Confederation; the unfavorable light You do not, of course, imagine that the peacedrawing bills of exchange on London, and ac- therefore it made, will be made by strangers. But fused. Now to secure independence the Govern- ment profess to intend to muster men out, yet under cepting loans from the Banks in St. John with- His Excellency has not learned that any unusual ment must be strong; it must possess the con- cover of night they send reinforcements to the fronout the slightest authority; their conduct with assemblage of suspicious characters has taken fidence of the people do they possess such? To tier. Last night four companies arrived at midnight fidence of the people do they possess such? To in this city; this morning there were no signs of them policy; their conduct with regard to Judicial no doubt have hastened to put His Excellency in appointments, and with regard to the manage- possession of intelligence of so much importance. ment of the Crown land department, without an His Excellency therefore cannot concur with franchise without influence? The Government News from the City of Mexico to the 19th ult., says, adding needless burdens upon our already colap- ficient, and he is well satisfied to know that his sed treasury-pall these things exposed in strong opinion in this respect coincides with that of the light this session have disgusted their professed highest military authorities in these Provinces.

. I have the honor to be. Sir. Your obedient servant. F. S. KENE,

Private Secretary.

House of Assembly, March, 1866.

cient to meet the emergency.

lency is pleased to allude, I have to say, from the be all anti-Confederate, if a demand be made, the Positively ascertained that Head Centre Stephens is Excellency, or in my place in the Legislature. I cannot understand why Your Excellency has by myself previous to publication, has to do with you may again hear from this grave correspondence now. Your Excellency's conclusions with regard to my views in several particulars seems to be quite as far from being correct, as the information Your made the reference at all, much less what the ment that you did not see it.

Yours, &c. SAMUEL WATTS. Editor Carleton Sentinel. Your Excellency acquieses in the prudence of gative Medicine.

a copy of a report recently made by him showing regard to calling out the militia, and which subsequent events have justified, as they have also the advantages to be derived from a change in the still later correspondence addressed by my covered in India. The Indian railway companies want a closer union with you, for we believe you off as well as we did before. They complain toria, which promises to make some developments Mr. Burpee, and now under contract. The pro- I still adhere to the opinion that if our advice their locomotives. posed change in the route begins at Hartt's had been acted upon in its earlier stages, this correspondence need not have been so extended, and watch was stolen from a clergyman while he was rate. The suspension of reciprocal trade will be a cogent argumers with the Canadians in favor a cogent argumers with the Canadians in favor a cogent argumers with the Canadians in the control of $7,000,000 we were not to get it.)

If we build by us last week as to the number of signers to the control of $7,000,000 we were not to get it.)

If we build strikes the St. Andrews road at the control of $7,000,000 we were not to get it.)

If we build strikes the St. Andrews road at the control of $7,000,000 we were not to get it.)

If we build strikes the St. Stephen branch, which it follows to the district might have been allayed. In the present instance Your Excellency ap pears to have been guided by the counsels of Your Excellency's constitutional advisers, a course quite consistent, placing, as it does, the responsibility where it should fairly rest.

Your Excellency's most obedient servant, CHARLES CONNELL.

M. G., Lieut. Governor, &c., &c.

Communicated.

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Sir, - Before leaving the County, please allow without any unfortunate results, nothing has hapme, through your columns, to correct a false in- pened of moment for two days.' sinuation which has obtained a partial circulation and which is said to have been set in motion by Iowa, recently. Fifteen mothers, with their litone of your most influential men. The object the author seems to have had in view was, to strike a of the prettiest. Each baby got one vote and no blow at the cause of "Free Schools" and assessment for their support, by operating upon the prejudices of those who are not informed upon also indebted to C. E. Freeze, Esq., Inspector, To prevent any such effect is the only cause why I write you at this time, as personally, I care nothing for such a fabrication. The state- disabled. ment, in substance, runs thus :- The reason why Sir C. O'Leghlan has introduced in the Inspector Freeze is so active and zealous for the British House of Commons a Bill, the object of introduction of assessment for the support of which is to empower judges to permit juries to be schools is, that he may put money into his own supplied with refreshments, to discharge them pocket, as he, in addition to his salary, receives without giving a verdict when there was no proban extra fee for every school visited, and, as as- ability of their agreeing, and to render it legal to sessment will greatly increase the number of take a verdict on Sunday. The bill also permits schools in the County, therefore he must be vast- juries to disperse to their homes or for refreshlieved, and will probably prejudice the minds of eral was willing that the Judges should have many, I would not occupy your space with its power to order refreshments for juries, but he obdenial. Many of your readers already know, jected-as the mass of the public will also do-tothat there is not the first particle of truth in the juries being allowed to separate before they had above statement. They know that, Inspectors given a verdict. have a fixed salary beyond which they receive not IMPROVED RIVER STEAMERS .- It is stated that snow has entirely disappeared from our streets, a single cent. It then, I was prompted at all by Messrs. Hatheway and Small are preparing to runners have given place to wheels, and every- selfishness, I would seek to make the number of place on the river next spring, a steamer which posed system, my labours must be greatly increa- at sixteen miles an hour. An American Comsed without increasing in the smallest degree my pany, it is reported, intend also to put a fast false; if he did not, ignorance itself can be no Farmer.

Yours truly. wandstock. April 3. E. C. FREEZE.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL!] . port progress on the game in course of playing an alleged outrage on another Southerner who was arin Victoria. Nothing very special has come un- rested by negroes and bayoneted; several shots were der notice since my last, if I except the flurry fired into the mob, but riot was subdued by the Mayor caused by exposing their doings. The effect was their State ticket yesterday, including Governor. stunning, as you might perceive by the feeble atity, previously referred to, was beautifully illus. the increase. Gold 1283. out witness what was afterwards done; an adit over in his usual bland style.

plans formed on the supposition of a dissolution: French Government like the good old dame who counted her chickens before they were hatched. Of course you know the drift of the bill lately introduced in mond celebrated the first anniversary of their deliverneedless" to increase our expenses by the step of the House on property qualification of members; in their own names, to run for honors—the free ring the day. Gold 1284. His Excellency entirely concurred at the time, offerings of a free people. But, as I before retives; are they allowed to exercise their elective troops, while secretly calling out more. will be stable when the institutions and appoint- Gen. Orgazon has proclaimed himself President of the ments are not exclusive, when favoring no class, tolerant for all, they are completely in harmony Belgian envoy are being vigorously pursued by the with the wants and desires of the majority of French police. Gold 1273. the country. Then merit shall be the only pass the country the only object of public rewards. Is elected their entire State ticket by a large majority, such the case? And in order that a sense of from Galveston, Texas, says an Express company had ease may be spread through all classes, the pre- been robbed of from eighty to one-hundred thousand ceeding principles should be carried into effect; dollars; no clue to robbers.

stability, which would tranquilize the citizens NEW YORK, April 5, p. m .- The Herald and World and permit them to rely on the future. Are sensation stories about the Fenians, former says Killian and Downing started for Bermuda at the these laws obeyed? Away with the afflicting head of 5,500 men, in five fast steamers, with object that we a small and scattered people should an hour. Arraigning the Government and paropinion that the necessary precautions for defence and intrigue often triumphs over the genius or 600 men have gone in small squads to Machias, falsehoods can be substantiated at any time.

"Truth ever lovely since the world began, The foe of tyrants and the friend of man." Relying on the justice of the cause, if you will.

Madawaska, March 27, '66.

foundation in fact, the evidence of which I herewith submit is a letter from the Editor of the Carleton Sentinel:—

Carleton Sentinel:—

Frederictor, 29th March, 1866.

Ches) is certainly valuable to soldiers in the field, and I feel satisfied, if generally adopted at the hospitals, many sleepless nights of the weary soldier would be averted. Our regiment are now testing their qualities, and I believe are all satisficity as continued endorsement of his policy, and are received and books closed; cache progressing at the rate of 19 miles a day. Great annual University boat race resulted in victory of Oxford over Cambridge by three lengths. Napoleon received address of Corps Legislatiff, made a speech, accepting vote of great majority as continued endorsement of his policy, and fied with their good effects in alleviating those spoke in favor of extension of liberty, as calculated to DEAR SIR, -In reply to your enquiry this after- distressing affections of the throat arising from strengthen and enlighten, Government not at liberty noon, as to whether you revised the report of your cold and exposure. They are now daily prescribspeech made by me, on the occasion of a meeting ed in our hospital and at the surgeon's morning

AYEL'S SARSAPARILLA for Scrofulous complaints, and Ayer's Pills for all the purposes of a Pur- A Savannah letter says the sugar crop will be a quarter less than was expected. Gold 128.

EDITORIAL ITEMS

A bed of combustible mud has been disare beginning to employ this curious material in

A Colonel Debertel, at St. Andrews, Canada, addressing his men a short time ago, told them that " his heart was in the cause." At that mo-

There was almost a riot in New Orleans, occasioned by struggles for pieces of the rope with which a murderer was hanged.

Seven barrels of human remains-arms, heads, legs, &c ,-were recently found in the streets of Chicago. The San Antonio (Texas) Herald is charmed with the serene peace that prevails in that city :- .. With the exception of fitteen or twenty fights and the exchange of a few friendly shots

A Baby convention was held at Muscatine, tle ones, were present and voted on the question more. Every mother voted for her own offspring. The Pall Mall Gazette quotes the unpublished French official document which states that the French Mexican expedition to the end of 1865 had cost $27,000,000, and 11,000 men killed and ments before the criminal case in which they are Did I not know, that this absurd story is be- engaged has been completed. The Solicitor Gen-

Schools less, and use my influence against the in- is expected will make the passage to and from St. troduction of . Free Schools," as under the pro- John in one day. The rate of speed is calculated steamer on the river next spring. We hope both Now sir, the "influential man," whoever he parties will carry out their intentions so that the be, must have known that his statement was public may have quick passages and low fares .--

American News.

[By Telegraph to Sentinel.]

NEW YORK, Arpil 3rd. - The President has issued a end, and the late rebe! States fully reconstructed and entitled to a restoration of their former relations to the Union. The Savannah Herald has an account of a riot which took place at Macon, between Negro sol-Sir, -I shall now, as I promised, briefly re- diers and some young men, who endeavored to avenge and citizens. The Republicans of Connecticut elected tempt to contradict my statements through the NEW YORK, April 3rd, p. m .- It was rumored in Acadian, and an admission to an item which Washington yesterday that a stormy Cabinet meeting goes far to show the truth of such an existence. Had resulted in the notification of Secretaries Stanton I have the satisfaction of acquainting you that my former letter was so full of truth—and you know facts are very stubborn—that plarming. know facts are very stubborn .- that alarming tructive fire visited the oil regions yesterday. The symptoms were manifested from the outset of Hyde and Egbert farm wells, at Petroleum Centre the exposure; some were indeed feverish, while took fire, and 35 wells were burned; loss estimated at others played off with a show of sang froid al- 25,000 bbls. of oil and $125,000 in property of various most bordering on recklessness. (By way of a kinds. Late South American news says, in order to secret, I might tell you that some of the gamb duty on importations of rize, yellow butter, cheese, lers are not what I would call sound on secrecy, lard, beef—fresh or salt, jerked beef, beans, pease, but so much the better for us.) I was in the lintels, corn, hay and fresh vegetables. At Panama, vassing on the sly) and the purchase of popular- Gold Mines, and the rush of emigrants thither was on trated at the sale of a bridge, conducted by the NEW YORK, April 4.- Despatches from Washington that it will be admitted that it is needless that Chief Commissioner's representative. It was contain the following: Mexican minister Romero has distinctly stated before the sale that the whole received official advices confirming the defeat of Imwork was to be included in the sum sold at, perial Gen. Mendez, and the occupation of Pastaroa, ditional sum of $50 was allowed the purchaser troops. The Secretary of State gave this evening an entertainment to Madame Juarez, wife of President The contingency of a small predatory raid is through the influence of a certain leader, a high Juarez. All the representatives of the Spanish Ameroffice holder in the County. I told him at the ican Republic were present, also the Russian Minister, squandering the public money, but he buttered son. A letter from Paris has been received here, sta-Should the present House weather the storm, Cruz with great secrery; 2,000 Austrians are to be sent soon to Maximilian, to fill up the Austrian contingent, the expenses of whom will be defrayed by the

> RICHMOND, Va., April 3 .- The freedmen of Richance from bondage to-day; a procession embracing port to advancement, and services rendered to NEW YORK, April 5 .- Republicars in Rhode Island including Gen. Burnside for Governor. A dispatch

Mexican Republic, on yirtue of the Constitution of 1857, at the town of Culiocan. The assassins of the nor ten men do not constitute public opinion : tion, and as soon as a landing is effected, a Proclama-views expressed on that occasion, I have never writer is perfectly willing to subscribe his name. guest of John Mitchell in Paris, and will leave for departed, either in private conference with Your But not to go to such an extent—those so-called boat via Galway. Fenian affairs received some attention in Parliament. Atty. General, for Ireland, said, with respect of parties under arrest who had come from America, he was ready to give favorable consideration to their application for release on their promising to leave Ireland, and return whence they came. In House of Commons, Mr. Gladstone announced that Government intended to proceed with Reform Bill, regardless of suggestions and proposed amendments; they would resist Grosvenor's amendment, as it im-EVERY SOLDIER SHOULD HAVE THEM .- From R. plied a direct want of confidence in Government .-Excellency has received about my having revised B. Heintzelman, Steward 72d Reg., P. V. "Your House adjourned until April 9th, Easter holidays. my speech already alluded to, which is without medicinal preparation (Brown's Bronchial Tro- Stock of Anglo-American Telegraph Co., £600,000. to undermine and overthrow. Vienna and Berlin journals centinue full of warlike rumors, military preparations, etc. Reported England, France and Prussia resolved to tender mediation; asserted Eng-

will be held in Woodstock in October next. A ment that you did not see it.

Woodstock in October next. A ment that you did not see it. oftens the gums, and allays all pain.

Buy Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for Coughs, Ayer's Saraparita for Scrofulous complaints.

Saraparita for Scrofulous complaints.