We are sorry to observe by last week's Express, that our usually good-natured friend, the 3rd prize, (given by Adjt Gen. Maunsell.) Editor, has been troubled with "bile.". In the first place he appears angry because the address 4th prize, Pt. Woodward, Capt. We attended the Grand Falls court in order to publish what occurred there; had the Editor of the Express taken the same trouble we did, he would have been in precisely the same position with us. We reported the charge and address in reply, so that we should not necessarily be beholding to any one. Subsequently we asked the Foreman of the Grand Jury for a copy, of the address which he gave us before we left; report by the original. So that whether the Express has reason to complain of any want of discourtesy, we have had no voluntary courtesy Express has the following :-
