"Iler Majesty the Queen. (as you are aware) has been graciously pleased to issue a Proclamation, uniting Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, on the first of July next ; and I anticipate that great advantages will accrue to this Province from the change, which will be inaugurated on that day, in its position as a pertion of the British Empire.

"I must congratulate you on the readiness with which you have completed the Legislation of the Session ; as I well know that many of you have been called (at great personal inconvenience) by a sense of public duty, from your pri-Tate business at an unseasonable time of the year.
