At Oak Park, near Chicago, Ill., on the 9th of Jan. of Typhoid Fever, Ann, beloved wife of Angus Cameron, late of this Town, aged 45 years, deeply regretted by all who knew her.

At Williamstown, Jan 21st, William, fourth son of Thomas and Mary Gibson, in the 29th year of his age. Dear mourning friends! I feel for you-For I have lost a Brother too; Your loss is great, I know tull well; Your grief too deep for tongue to tell. The anguish of a mother's heart, When with a child she's called to part, And lay it in the grave so low, None but a parent e'er can know. A son so gentle and so young, Whose race on earth so quickly run; We could not bear it, dearest Lord, If not supported by thy word, And acts of kindness which can come, So lovingly from those at home Wrings my heart, in anguish then, I cry, Lord Jesus come and reign; O come and raise the sleeping dead-Call loved oncs from their dusty bed-Immortal life they then will have, Who did on earth for Jesus live, With Gabriel's final trumpet's sound We'll see them coming from the ground, And then may we, together, rise To meet our Saviour in the skies, For Jesus tells us, in his word, That Paradise shall be restored; This earth anew in beauty bloom And fitted for the saint's sweet home. Then father, mother, brothers, sisters dear, Trust in the Lord, be of good cheer, William we hope will rise again, Free from sickness, death and pain. In that blest land, to which we go, No morrow shall we ever know, Then we will shout our sufferings o'er
