

JAMES WATTS, Publisher & Proprietor.

WHOLE NO.—987.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11, 1867.

The Carleton Sentinel.

Saturday, December 28, 1867.

Editorial Correspondence.

It has been discovered that by an error in

Our Queen and Constitution.

SAMUEL WATTS, Editor.

VOL. XIX.-NO. 52.

Professional Cards.

Dr. EDMUND L. HOVEY

INFORMS his friends and the public that he has com-menced the practice of his profession in this County. Dr. Hovey has made Medicine the study of his life, Dr. Hovey has made interience in its practice in this and has had some experience in its practice in this County. During the past few years he has had the advantage of receiving instruction from representative men in the various branches of the Art, and in several of its many systems. He has also been in a position to study Surgery and healing, during the continuance of the late Civil War in the United States, in some of the largest hospitals. RESIDENCE, next below the Baptist Church. Woodstock, July 18, 1866 [30]

TEPHEN SMITH, M. D. Physician, Surgeon, and Accoucheur. RESIDENCE-Three doors north of the Episcopa

Church, Main Street. OFFICE-In the Medical Hall, King Street, nextdoor o the Post Office. oodstock, April 29 1865.

Dr. C. P Connell, WOODSTOCK, N. B. Office-In Brick Building, near the Hay Scales. -Residence at Hon. Charles Connell's.

C. F. H. Campbell, M. D., (Formerly of the Army,)

Poetry.

und I charge the sin on you Or wh Our work is before us all the same, And the guilt of it lies between us two. We have praised our love for its beauty and grace Now we stand here, and hardly dare To turn the face-cloth back from the face, And see the thing that is hidden there.

And the beautiful life of our life is o'er, And when we have buried and left the past, We two, together, can walk no more.

You might stretch yourself on the dead, and wee phet prayed, in pain ; And pray as the Fro

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1867. death I fully realized the responsibility of my Panting with the exertion, the old man bared

The Men of Hallingdal. "The peasantry of Hallingdal are noted for the New Brunswickers in the House of Com-little children to provide for, the elder but five turned his face in the direction of the window, fondness of dancing, and are so nimble of foot The Ottawa correspondent of the Montreal old, the winter approaching, and no pro- where I stood concealed. There he stood, the s for our subsistence. The only resource Good Samaritan, for nearly a minute, the moon- so high that they touch the ceiling with one e to provide my children with bread was light falling full upon his broad forehead and foot. A story is told of a Hallingdal man, Assembly and Attorney General of New Brunsland, who has been Speaker of the House of e in sewing and washing. There was so flushed face, and giving a silvery brilliancy to who entered a church during the performance wick, has talked very often since he came among competition in this line of business in our his white hair as it yielded in fitful flutterings of Divine service. Walking up the aisle tired of calling Aristides, the Jast, and I have twice calculating the amount of the January invillage that I could not get employment to the motions of his hat, with which he fanned the church, he stood a moment in front of the seen men who wearied the House with very exterest on the debt of old Canada, the Dominion the question of right of members of the admin- is not so bad off as the estimates presented on he first December storm caught me with- hat upon the wheelbarrow, he softly opened the sault, he sprang over the communion rails, and the question of right of members of the admin- is not so bad on as the estimates presented on istration of Ontario and Quebec to sit in the Saturday would indicate, by the very snug little time in the State, and had made no ac- over the threshold. His effort was unsuccess- seized the offender by the neck, and hurled excellence as a thing needing variety, and is it. We have had the first division of the session we have few of. Montrealers have seen and The Finance Minister having moved that the housand miles of me. "On the 10th day of December I had been stood some time. After several fruitless efforts, ever afterwards much esteemed. We once heard him, and know pretty well who he is and House go into supply, Hon. Mr. Dorion, who is two days without food. I had husbanded a few he at last succeeded and rolled the barrel along witnessed a remarkable feat performed by a Brunswick conservatives, he adds lustre to the he adds lustre to the here adds lustre to there adds lustre to potatoes, the product of our fitter Bound of Commons of the Dominion. In pre-my starving children. Oh, Mrs. Wheeler !" Shortly, afterwards I heard it rolling on the Christiana. A brother soldier held up his cap sence, in manner and in bearing, in eloquence "While this House will cheerfully grant all and in learning; he is the peer of any one in the supplies required for the public service, it regrets House. On the opposite side of the House, fast- the departure from the long established and wise continued Hrs. Wilson, you do not know the long established and wise pangs of hunger, nor do you know the still He soon re-appeared, and taking a paper from dal man, taking a sudden leap, knocked the wedged amid the grit phalanx, sits Mr. Anglin, constitutional practice of basing the appropriation deeper pangs and withering anguish that the his pocket he stole softly up to the window, and cap out of the hand of the other with his right Catholics who was once in all of the form of public money upon detailed estimates, and deeper pangs and writtering anguing the data the broken pane. He then shut foot. The men of Hallingdal are said to have and since then of Mr. Smith, the chief of the proceedings tending to subvert the principal of the proceedings tending to subvert the principal of the principa heart of the mother, when she has no bread to the gate, and, taking his wheelbarrow, started a strange and barbarous custom when in drink. anti-confederates in his province. So long ago the Constitution in taking the complete control has seemingly been a doubter-a man attached the people." Mr. Blake, of Ontario, seconded the motion. The Hon. mover and Mr. Blake made long speeches in defence of the amendment. The hip of all those of the Irish Roman Catholics in the Dominion, who, resting their whole political Premier, Hon. Messrs. Galt, Cartier and Rose cheme on the hatred of Britain, reject Mr. Mc- in opposition to the amendment, and in defence Gee's common sense policy of conciliation and of the policy of the Government. The argupromotion of common interest. A writer of undoubted ability, a man of fine presence, and a ments against Government were that the course speaker of no ordinary force, he seems to win the was without precedent, except in exceptional mpathy of few men by his demeanor, and his cases in England; that it was unwise at the comharsh with the North of Ireland accent, mencement of this New Parliament of the New is rather fitted for defiance than for persuasion. Dominion to introduce a dangerous and despotic An Irishman, he has no blarney; an able man, he seems destined never to have a following. Mr. principle ; that the Government had had ample tish-American if you will, but apparently first 1862, and left him when Mr. Tilley that pending the settlement of the accounts beand Mr. Howe decided to go together to Quebec tween the General and Local Governments it to urge the Intercolonial railway, and union, as a sequence. Mr. Tilley deeply regretted his was scarcely possible and, certainly, not wise to loss, as one of the ablest colleagues he ever had. bring down a detail of the expenditures since They had fought the battles of the liberal party the 1st of July ; that by the 1st of March these in New Brunswick together. But his lieutenant estimates would be complete and before members. The road which the man of business travels held that the construction of the Intercolonia is not always a smooth one, leading through would be a waste of money, and union as a thing Mr. Howe urged the withdrawal of the amendnot worth the money or the trouble. When the ment-it could result in no good and he was not pposition to union in their province was sucdisposed to embarrass the Government. essful, Messrs. Smith and Anglin came to the Mr. Anglin took essentially the same view, but front as leaders of the people. Their success and their ministry was short lived ; but, during went further in declaring his sympathy with the ough, rugged path, filled with sharp-edged its continuance, Mr. Smith went to Washington principles enunciated in the amendment. He stones which cut their weary feet at every step ; as colleague of Mr. Galt, and served his own and was disposed, however, to allow the Government he sister colonies ably and most faithfully there. time to develop its policy. or thorns which prick the flesh, full of danger- Let us hope he will serve us as well in the House Mr. Holton stated that Mr. Cartier, for the ous pit-falls, which can only be escaped through of Commons. He and Mr. Anglin have fairly Government, had admitted the correctness of the and frankly accepted the situation principle embodied in the amendment, and there -THE MEMBERS FROM THE MARITIME PROfore was not willing to see the principle voted road, and, like a weary stage coach traveler, the VINCES .- The following eulogium is from the Pays :- " All the journals, all the members and down by a large majority. He advised a withall the inhabitants of Ottawa, recognize that the drawal of the amendment. representatives of the Maritime Provinces are The Premier denied the correctness of the far superior speakers to those of Canada, and statement of Mr. Holton with regard to the scope specially of the Province of Quebec. We cannot oppose to them any speakers equal to Howe, of Mr. Cartier's remarks, and claimed that as hearts at the gate ; the fond glance of bright McDonald, Tupper, Anglin, Tilley and Savary- this was a motion of want of confidence it was and what is more extraordinary, all the other better to let a vote of the House decide how the Lower Province members, with a few exceptions though not equal to those named, are equal to Government stood. Mr. Dorion said the amendment was not inour best Lower Canadian orators." tended as a motion of want of confidence, but SINGULAR MATCH .- On Monday last a match merely to give members an opportunity of record-

Yet look ! ah, that heart has beat its last, ne next December storm caught me with a started on the table. The officiating clergy-nel or food. I had not a friend nor an gate. He rolled the barrel to the gate, and alighted on the table. The officiating clergy-nel or food. I had not a friend nor an gate. He rolled the barrel to the gate, and alighted on the table. The officiating clergyintance in the country. We had been a then commenced another struggle to raise it man, who was renowned for his great strength, legal and constitutional argument it was nearly perfect. But a popular assembly regards even tances. I had not a relative in the world ful: the barrel rolled back. After some time him back again among the people, where he is it accounted shief. In a motion in effect providing for the tances. I had not a relative in the work in this spent in vain, the poor old man arose from remained for some time insensible. Now, the which occurred to day he failed utterly to pro-duce an effect. * * * Mr. Gray is a gentleforehead with his pocket-handkerchief, he again of strength, and the clergyman in question was position. An unexperienced widow, with two his head, and, fanning himself with his hat, two days without lood. I had husbanded user to the grassy door-yard, till he got out of my sight. soldier, a Hallingdal man, in the garrison at House of Commons of the Dominion. In pre-continued Mrs. Wilson, "you do not know the floor of the little stoop, in the rear of the house. as high in the air as he could, and the Hallingtowards his home. I watched him as he re- Being well primed with finkel, they draw their as 1849, Mr. Gray was a unionist. Mr. Anglin "On the morning of the 10th of December tired, till his form in the moonlight, as seen short knives, and point them to each other, to any party by the accident of common hatred, give them. Alas! I do; too well do I. I divided the morsel I had left between my through the tears that filled my eyes, seemed they inquire in an amicable way, "How far attached to none by common principle. What two little ones, and put the last chips on the to dissolve into a halo of sparkling gems of will you go?" A certain portion of each fire, a boxful of which I had gathered the day light. "I could sleep no more that night. After the remainder of the blades are carefully bound before, when the snow commenced to fall. Without having eaten anything for two days, some time I went below, and found the note round with cloth, so that the knives cannot I went out through the snowstorm to the grove under the broken pane. It was in the same penetrate beyond a certain distance. All prewhere I found some sticks and bush ; with plain handwriting, and ran thus : "There's sent then set to work and stab and slash each those I started homeward, I had not gone far bread for the widow and orphans. They shall other in all directions. Sometimes these encounters end fatally, but a little blood-letting till I saw Judge Withrow, at a distance behind not want. Be of good cheer." me making his way towards the village. I "In the morning I found a barrel of flour does none of the parties any harm. It may then regarded him as a proud old man, who on my porch. The secret was out as to whose be asked if these strange combats arise from a Smith, his late premier, is one of your sound, so- time to prepare the information required. On cared for no one but himself. Embarrassed was the kind hand who had been supporting natural taste for shedding blood. It is said at my situtation, I hid behind an old barn me and my babes, when there was no eye to not to be so, but that the custom has been American and British after, an able man, a the Government was one of those very excepuntil he had passed. I had every reason to bear witness save that All-Seeing Eye which is handed down from father to son for many generations, and that any Hallingdal man who resuppose that, if he knew me at all, he must ever awake to take note of such goodness." dislike me, for my husband had abused him. "But Mrs. Wheeler," cantinued Mrs. Wil- fused to fight when challenged would be brand-My husband was a warm-anti-Mason. His son, "you can never know the anguish of my ed as a coward " zeal had led him, on one occasion, that too, but mind on discovering my benefactor. I re-Homes After Business. a short time before his decease, to ridicule the proached myself severely, as I reflected, and institution of Masoury in the presence of Judge called to mind with what bitter feeling, almost Withrow. This had no other affect than to amounting to hatred, I had regarded the dear ong green lanes bordered by sweet smelling produce a smile from the old man. My hus- old man. While such feelings were rankling flowers, beside the trickling brooklet, in the band, as he informed me, became exasperated in my breast, no doubt he was devising plans meadow land. On the contrary, it is often a at the coolness, and reproached the good old to supply the orphan with bread in secret, man as a Mason. He treated him very unkind- obedience to that divine direction, "Let no ly, and, from what he informed me, must have thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth. "My dear Mrs. Wilson," said Mrs. Wheel allowed his feelings to betray him into very imprudent and abusive language, to which the er, her eyes suffused with tears, "I shall never the most watchful, earnest care. Each day's forgive myself for having misjudged this good business is a day's journey over this rough poor old man made no reply. "I went home with my sticks and limbs, old man. Indeed, how people will talk about borrowed a loaf of bread from Mrs. Lisle, and those whose merits they cannot know." wayfarer needs something more than simply "Think of it, only think of it Mrs. When est, he requires solace. He is tired of the dull after a day of grief and despair, went to bed at er," continued Mrs. Wilson, only think of my prose of life, and needs its poetry. He needs "The next morning, upon rising, I found children being fed by the man who had been o meet the warm greeting of loving lips and upon the floor, and under a broken pane in the called "proud old aristocrat, black-hearted window, a sealed letter. It contained a twenty Freemason," by their father. He had been sparkling eyes; the shouts of happy children. dollar bank note, and ran thus: Poor woman told by my husband, the parent of my little the many thousand little arrangements for comkeep stout heart, and an upright life. The ones, that he was no better than a murdererfort that only a woman's loving hand can make ; virtuous have nothing to fear, though they that he would not believe him or any other arrangements that silently tell of a thoughtful may be poor. The poor have nothing to fear Mason under oath ; still he had money for the fits he would prefer not to sound a trumpet be- if they are upright. This is your money, and wife, and bread for the offspring of the man there is more in store for the widow and the who had thus insulted him. It was noble in him. Many a man having fatherless in the time of need." " I could scarcely believe my own senses .- seen you gathering sticks, would never have I wept for joy, and laughed like a maniae, un- given you a second thought, said Mrs Wheeler. til I startled my children with the vehemence "Yes and when my child came screaming happy of all, and you will but fulfill your des- sanguinary excitement to a prize fight. with joy that she got a piece of wheat bread, tiny of my joy. "A liitle longer, and this munificence would how ready his benevolent soul interpreted her The Sainted Dead. have been too late, for I was near the famishing joy, and traced it to its true cause. With what They are our precious treasures-changeless English army can read and write. point. I had began to writhe under the a thrill it must have appealed to his great heart hunger-pain I had heard of as indicating the to have led him to penetrate my situation from treasures. Let us look forward hopefully .-and to rebuke such injustice to one of the best last suffering of fainting mortality among the so slight a circumstance! This shows how Not lost but gone before. Lost only like stars diligently his heart keeps vigil for suffering of the morning, that have faded into the light famishing paupers of Ireland." Ah! Mrs. Wheeler, fancy a scorpion gnaw- humanity while on his mission of mercy. I of a brighter heaven. When the earth is dark, ing at the heart strings; fancy coals of fire ap- could stoop down and kiss the dust of his feet. then the heavens are bright; when objects plied to the naked flesh? No, no, you can- Mrs. Wheeler tell the sewing circle that God around become indistinct and invisible in the not. It is only those who have felt Death's cold will thank Judge Withrow notwithstanding shades of night, then the objects above are more clearly seen. So is the night of sorrow fingers stealing along their pulses, and his their decision to the contrary." chill, damp breath fanning their cheeks, that "Thus was I supplied till Mr. Wilson and and lonely twilight at the grave of our friends, I were married. Since then I have been a but then already they shine on high. While we can know the pangs of starvation. "Of the sources of this gratuity, and the rich man's wife, I am proud to own that my weep, they sing. While they are with us, upon

ACCEDM

The following is a Canadian view of some of

Surgeon, Physician and Accoucheur, TAS settled in Woodstock for the practice of hi RESIDENCE-At the " Cable House." [tf-18

Dr. REYNOLDS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

CENTRAL OFFICE : UPPER CORNER, - - WOODSTOCK. RESIDENCE-Mr. Archibald Plummer's, Jack [22-tf.] sontown Road.

WILLIAM M. CONNELL,

ATTOBNEY at LAW, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCEB

NOTARY PUBLIC,

INSURANCE AGENT, &c.

C. L. RICHARDS,

Wholesale Grocer and Commission Merchant,

1, NORTH WHARF, ST. JOHN, N. B.

former residence by Fire,

DOCTOR SMITH

W. P. DONNELL,

Tobacco, Segars, &c.

GIBSON HOUSE,

QUEEN STREET, WOODSTOCK.

PHILLIPS HOUSE.

PARK HOTEL,

KING QUARE ST. JOHN.

nodate the travelling public

East Florenceville, Oct. 25, 1866-44

who favor him with a call.

East Florenceville, is prepared to accom-

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

1-6m

[19]

43-1y

But not like him could you break the sleep, And bring the soul to the clay again. Its head in my bosom I can lay,

And shower my woe there. kiss on kiss, But there never was resurrection-day In the world for a love so dead as this

And, since we cannot lessen the sin By mourning over the deed we did, Let us draw the winding sheet up to the chin. Ay, up till the death-blind eyes are hid !

Select Tale. THE WIDOW'S STORY "How I do despise that old man !" said Mrs. Wheeler, addressing Mrs. Wilson, an looking after Judge Withrow, who had just passed along the sidewalk under the window. " Despise him !" said Mrs. Wilson, giving a peculiar emphasis to the pronoun him. "Yes him. Why not ?"

"Rather let me ask why, Mrs. Wheeler. On account of the destruction of his "Well," returned Mrs. W., "I can scarcel say why; but the other day, when the sewin circle was held at my house, he became t LAS REMOVED to the house lately occupied by subject of conversation, by passing along the H Mrs. Blake, on the corner of the street in rear of the Free Christian Baptist Meeting House, imme-diately north of that building. Woodstock, Sept 20, 1867. sidewalk, as he has just this minute done, with that same straight, haughty dignity, and bending self-pride so peculiar to him, and all agreed that he was a grotty, proud old aristocrat, and that he cared for no one but hi

French, Brandies, Pure Wines. Hollands Geneva, English Ale and Irish Porter. " Of course you would read his thoughts and tell who he cared for, and for whom he did not, Main-st., Weedstock, N. B. said Mrs. Wilson, ironically. "But pray te me," continued she, " did any one know a sin-OPEN FOR TRAVELLERS gle thing that could detract from his character as a moral, a noble-minded, and a humane ALEX. GIBSON, Proprietor.

"Well, yes," replied Mrs. Wheeler, "Har-THE subscriber, having taken a house at riet Smith said she had called upon him day last winter, with a subscription soliciting a No pains will be spared to make parties comfortable little aid to our sewing circle, and he evasively fore him. Now don't you think that was very impudent, to say the least of it ?"

"I wish," replied Mrs. Wilson, her voice trembling with emotion, "I had been there to expectant love, the gentle ministrations that be-guile us into an old easy chair at the fireside income of dressing one hundred and twenty fire. The question we ing and dressing one hundred and twenty-five before we are aware of it. Such little tokens sheep in four hours and thirty-three minutes. f affection and sympathy constitute the poetry beating their opponents by two sheep or nearly six and a half minutes. The winners were two of life. Think of this, ye wives and daughters and the lossers three in number, and the match of business men, make the home hours the most was for $2000. The scene was quite equal in Savary, and Young .-- 21.

The question was then taken as follows : YEAS-Messrs. Rlake, Cameron (Inverness). Cheval, Chipman, Coffin, Coupal, Croke, Dorion, Fortier, Geoffrion, Godin, Holton, Huntington, Kierzkowski, Mills, Oliver, Parker, Power, Rav.

NAYS-Messrs. Abbott, Archambeault, Ault, Anglin, Beaty, Beaubien, Bechard, Bellerose, Benoit, Benson, Bertrand, Blanchet, Bolton, saulniers, Dobbie, Drew, Dufresne, Ferguson,

Victoria, O.), Morrison (Niagara), Monroe,

The House then went into Committee of Sup

Resolved. That a sum not exceeding Five Mil-

Hon. Mr. Tupper withdrew his resolution to ed doubt of the legality of any issue of Governince of Canada, which did not apply to the Dominion. A motion being made of concurrence in the Rupert Land resolutions passed the other made with regard to the territory. He made it appear that Rupert Land had a very cold climate

-extremely cold; that the soil was sterile, and unfit for settlement and agricultural pursuits.

Mr. Holton moved the following amendment :-- of the British N. A. Act 1867, an order in council, tounded on an address of the Canadian Par-

Be it resolved that, according to the provisions

H. FAIRWEATHER, Proprietor.

JOSEPH A. C. PHILLIPS.

This House is new, is pleasantl situated, fur Wheeler, in surprise. nished in a superior manner, and will be kept as a First-Class Hotel.

WILLIAM R. NEWCOMB. STAGE HOUSE--TOBIQUE

Comfortable Extras Furnished at the shortes otice for any point.

Barnum's EATING HOUSE. IN GRAND TRUNK DEPOT.

Portland, Me.

Meals at all hours. Suppers and Collationsfur-nished to Military and Fire Companies at short notice. Portland, Me., Oct 1, '65

AMERICAN HOUSE.

C. F. ESTEY, PROPRIETOR. 39 KING STREET, ST. JOHN, N.B.

Good Stabling on the premises.

WATSON HOUSE. THE "WATSON HOUSE," ST. STE-

1-3 PHEN, N. B., is now in complete running order. The House is new, as 1000 is the furniture and fittings connected with it, and all the arrangements have been made with a view to meet the wants and promote the comfort of travellers.

The situation is most desirable, close by the Rail-road Depot, near the Post Office and Bank, and overooking the ft. Croix River. HENRY RUSSELL, Proprietor.

St Stephen, July 10, 1867.

CABLE HOUSE. MAIN STREET, WOODSTOCK, N. B

THE subscriber having again taken charge of the CABLE HOUSE, and put everything in connection therewith in complete order, would respectfully solicit a call from the traveling public and his friends.

The stages for Grand Falls and Fredericton leave reg-ularly W. D. BALLOCH. Mason. But it is different now; I love the word. To Judge Withrow I owe a debt of graularly Woodstock, Aug 22, 1867-34

Watches! Watches!

ROBERT D. BAKER

intends opening a shop in Woodstock for the repairs of Watches, Clocks. and Jewellery.

the business, is confident that he can give entire satis- do explain yourself?" R. D. B., having had eleven years experience in faction to his customers in every particular, as he is a "I will. You know that Mr. Clark, my first-class workman, and keeps the best Tools and Ma-

All kinds of Watches and Clocks repaired in the defend the good old man.' "Why, what do you mean ?" inquired Mrs.

when he goes to do good."

Vilson 2

"I mean to give honor where honor is due, noblest of men. I can well bear witness that he does not sound a trumpet before him

"You surprise me still more. He is not certainly, in any way connected with your husband's family ?" said Mrs. Wheeler, dropping her crochet work into her lap, and looking inquiringly into Mrs. Wilson's face. "No; he is no family connection of his

"When and where, then, did you become acquainted with him? I did not suppose that you had ever spoken to him, much less did suppose he was an intimate personal friend." "Nor is he. He has never spoken to me

nor have I to him." "Do you know that he is a Freemason, Mrs

"Yes, I do."

"How is it possible, then, that you can speak well of him to be a Freemason? Why defend a black-hearted Mason ?"

"Mrs. Wheeler, I will tell you why, and after I have told you, if you do not love the dear old man, you are not as good a woman as I have always given you credit for being." "Love him, Mrs. Wilson? No I shall never even respect a Freemason, much less love

"I think none the less of him on that account, though I confess that I can remember No pains will be spared to make this House all that when my blood ran cold at the name of Free a first class Hotel should be. titude that nothing short of love can ever can

" For what do you owe him gratitude?" "For peace of mind, for a home, for bread Would respectfully intimate to the inhabitants of Woodstock and surrounding country that he intends opening a shop in Woodstock for the repairs of

"Mrs. Wilson," said Mrs. Wheeler, " pray first husband, was without means, and, in fact, very poor. He bought a lot in the suburbs of kind, the comforting, the blessed words which present husband is a Freemason. When he earth, they lie upon our hearts refreshingly, the letter contained, I could not form the sued my hand, I told him that I would remain like the dew upon the flowers; when they disremotest apprehension. But there they were, a widow or marry a Feemason, and that, until appear it is by a power from above that has he became a member of the Order his suit must drawn them upward, and, though lost on earth,

"From that day forward, the same blessed prove unavailing. He then told me that he they float in the skies. Like the dew that is hand-writing accompanied by a like donation had been a Mason, and that he was indebted absorbed from the flowers, they will return to and a few brief words of encouragement, peri- to that circumstance for his acquaintance with us; but like the flowers themselves, we will in my window; but the kind hand that fed the my name mentioned by Judge Withrow, whose Then those whom the Heavens have absorbed widow and her orphan was still unknown to eloquent pleadings for the widow and orphans and removed from us, by the sweet attractions me. From that day neither I nor my little had directed his attention and, ultimately, his of their love, made holier and lovelier in light, affection towards me. And in his manner I will draw toward us again by holy affinity, and ones wanted anything.

"The spring came, and the price of flour learned that I and my children had long been rest on our hearts as before. They are our arose to eleven dollars per barrel and was very subjects of the special care and solicitude of the treasures-loved ones-the sainted dead.

scarce in the market. I would not, in fact, I Lodge. "I will never say another word against th could not, indulge in the luxury of wheat bread at such a price, and used Indian meal instead Freemason's again, said Mrs. Wheeler, and 1 of flour, altogether. "One day my little girl came running through if he is not afraid that the Church might re-odically found its way through the broken pane me, as it was in the Lodge he had first heard die, yet only to bloom again in the Eden above. of Edinburgh.

PRINTER'S DEVILS .- From wild, friendless boys in the streets are made what are called printer's devils; next they become printers, in grandeur, they not unfrequently make their mark in the years ago was paid a thousand florins a song, must have been based on the law of the Provnation and in the world. Dr. Franklin was a Beauty, voice, and money went rapidly. most eminent instance in the early days of our country, and Thurlow Weed, Horace Greeley, Simon Cameron, Hannibal Hamlin, Gen. Dix, It is said that whenever he gives audience to evening-Mr Jones made a lengthy speech, Schuyler, Colfax, Gideon Wells, and many inually thinking what is best to do, seldom anything. The great incentive to success is to make a beginning. The first dollar saved, the ing a fortune and to completing a journey

It is said that the Methodist suuday schools in the United States have a million of scholars. Bowell, Bown, Brousseau, Brown, Burpee, Burton, Cameron (Huron), Campbell, Carling, Ca-Sixty-eight per cent of the recruits for t ron, Cartier, Cartwright, Casault, Cayley, Chamberlin, Cimen, Colby, Connell, Crawford (Brock-

The Russian army has been increased 100,000 ville), Crawtord (Leeds), Currier, Daoust, Demen during the past year.

Ferris, Fortin, Galt, Gaucher, Gaudet, Gendron, A flock of wild pigeons thirty miles long is Gibb, Grant, Gray, Grover, Hagar, Harrison. ported by a Pennsylvania paper. Heath, Holmes, Howe, Huot, Hurdon, Irvine, the Jackson, Johnson, Joly, Keeler, Kempt, Kirk-patrick, Langevin, Lapum, Lawson, Little, Mac-donald (Cornwall), Macdonald (Glengarry), The London policemen are murdering all dogs caught in the street in pursuance of law. A man in Boston is under two thousand dollars Macdonald, Sir J. A. (Kingston), McDonald, (Middlesex), Magill, Masson (Soulanges), Mas-son (Terrebone), McCallum, McCarthy, McDoubonds for issuing forged insurance policies. A $25,000 slander suit is now on trial at New gall, McGreevey, McKeagney, McMillan (Resti-gouche), McMillan (Vaudreuil), Morris, Morison

Albany, Ind., with a hundred witnesses. The writers of the London Saturday Review receive forty dollars a page.

Machine belting is new being successfully man-Nachine belting is new being successfully man-Rankin, Read, Renaud, Robitaille, Rose, Ross (Dundas), Ross (Prince Edward), Simard, Simpufactured from paper. 000 son, Sproat, Stevenson, Street, Sylvain, Thomp Faber's establishment sends out 220,000.

son (Ualdimand), Thompson, (Ontario), Tilley, Tremblay, Tupper, Wallace, Walsh, Webb, White, Whitehead, Wilson, and Wright.-115. lead pencils yearly. A family quarrel, in California, resulted recently in seven deaths, and three dangerously inded. A lively family. Australia proposes to spend one hundred and ply, and the following Resolution was adopted : forty thousand dollars in "receiving" the Duke lions two hundred and sixty-four thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine dollars be granted to Water from the river Jordon and wine from Her Majesty, towards defraying the expenses of the Service of the Dominion, not otherwise pro-Jerusalem are used at the sacrament at Beecher's church, Brooklyn. vided for, from the 1st day of July, 1867, to the Flax is so profitable in Canada that four mills 31st day of March, 1868. have been turned into linen mills, and near Preston twelve hundred acres of flax were raised. refer the petitions against Mr. McDonald to the Thirty Baltimore bakers are under arrest for select committee. Such seemed to be the genshort weight. Thirty thousand loaves have been eral disposition of the House. The resolution

A Roman Catholic cathedral is to be built in granting vote of credit of Tuesday was concurondon, second only to St. Peter's-at Rome- red in on Wednesday. Hon. Mr. Smith express-A tamous German prima donna, who a few ment notes since the first of July, as such issue died in rags in a cellar in Berlin recently. Theodore, the King of Abyssinia, has a true harbarian fondness for coarse theatrical effects.

strangers, or to chiefs who come to make submis- throwing discredit upon the favorable statements sions, he leans negligently on two magnificent others, are striking examples at the present tame lions, while two others roll, gape or stretch at his teet within supporting distance; and he enjoys like a child the emotion which this formidable living decoration inspires in the visitor. MAKE A BEGINNING .- Those who are con- When the British Lion takes a part in this imposing tableau it is expected that King Theodore will be the astonished party.

The manufacture of gold-beaters' skin is a liament to Her Majesty the Queen, praying that secret which it is said, only five men in the world Rupert's Land and the North West Territory first mile travelled, are something toward amass- know. The art of preparing it has brought a should be united to this Dominion on the terms fortune to the manufacturers. Wickstead, of and conditions in such address set forth, would London, attained the highest perfection in the have the full force and effect of an Imperial stalast generation, and promised to leave the tute, and would bind this House to provide whatbey show earnestness of purpose. How many will persuade my husband to join the Lodge prehend such a step. You almost make me ime.-Exchange.

after that sometimes editors, in which capacity

a poor, idle, erring outcast is now crawling secret to a relative at his death bed. In his dy- ever sum of money might be required to extina poor, idle, erring outcast is now crawling through life in a state of wretchedness, who might have held up his head and prospered, if instead of putting off his resolutions of amend-ment and industry, he had only made a begin-ning.—Channing. the secret to his nephew. ning .- Channing.

most workmanlike manner, and warranted. the village, and built a small house on it, which was not yet finished when he died. He had no Watches, Clocks, Jewellery, means except such as resulted from his daily AND WEDDING RINGS, constantly on hand for sale. Also-Tools and Mate-rial, wholesale for the trade. Please call before gonomy, enabled him to pay for the lot and the ing elsewhere. building, as far as it was completed. After his Woodstack Nov. 30, 1867-tf-48