a ministerial crisis in consequence of the last speech of M. Rouher on the Roman question in the Corps Legislatiff. It is reported at Florence that Garibaldi has again disappeared from the Island of Caprera and it is feared that another attempt against Rome will be made by the party of action. The speech of the French Minister, M. Rouher, in which he said that Italy should not take forcibie possession of Rome, gave rise to an angri debate in the Italian Chamber of Deputies yesterday Prime Minister Membrea informed the House that he had asked the French Government for an explanation of the speech, and he expected to receive a reply from Paris by Monday. He added that Italy could only gain Mr. Jasper, of Milwaukee, was recently walking along the street, when, as he passed a shabby-looking woman, he heard a baby call "papa"

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance; nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.
