When you consider the fact that there were two voters present who did not vote on the question who may be reckoned for Connell, and that out of the 7 who voted for him 2 belonged to The result from Victoria (7 for Connell, and 11 for Lindsay) will be far different than might be made to appear. Besides it was urged frequently and strongly by the Secretary, that the meeting was Mr. Lindsay's and was called for him. You may conclude from this, and from the fact that out of the many voters of Victoria, most of Mr. Lindsay's friends were present.
