Professional Cards.

W: A. BALLOCH, DENTAL SURGEON!

Derice: - At the rooms of Dr. Connell, Brick Building Queen Street, Opposite "Cable House. Woodstock, July 2, 1868 .- 27.

Dr. C. P Connell, WOODSTOCK, N. B. Office—In Brick Building, near the Hay Scales.

-Residence at Hon. Charles Connell's.

STEPHEN SMITH, M. D. Physician, Surgeon, and Accoucheur.

Has removed his residence, to his new Building, two deers north of the Episcopal Church, Main Street.

OFFICE—In the Medical Hall, King Street, nextdoor

Woodstock, April 29 1865. THE Subscribers beg to call public attention to their New and spacious N. R. COLTER, M. D., (L. R. C. P. L., ENGLAND,) Close by the "WOODSTOCK HOTEL," where they Office and Residence, - - GIBSON HOUSE. can furnish a first rate fit out, having excellent horses, DR. COLTER has held public appointments in Medicine and Surgery at St. Thomas' Hospital, London. Consultation as above.

Woodstock, Feb. 7, 1868—3m-pd-7 Harness and Carriages, at a Minutes notice.

This is the Woodstock depot for the Fredericton Grand Falls and Houlton Stages.

Dr. REYNOLDS.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, CENTRAL OFFICE : UPPER CORNER, - - WOODSTOCK RESIDENCE-Mr. Archibald Plummer's, Jacksontown Road. [22-tf.] LONG'S HOTEL,

WILLIAM M. CONNELL, ATTORNEY at LAW, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCER,

NOTARY PUBLIC, INSURANCE AGENT, &c. WOODSTOCK, N. B.

C. L. RICHARDS, Wholesale Grocer and Commission Merchant,

1. NORTH WHARF, ST. JOHN, N. B ben Store A FIRST CLASS HAIR DRESSING SHAVING AND

SHAMPOOING SALOON NOW OPEN. THE subscriber would return thanks to his friends and the public for the patronage hitherto bestowed, since commencing business in Woodstrek; he would likewise ask a continuance of such favors, as he is now prepared with enlarged experience and greatly in-erceased facilities, to attend to the various branches of his business, as Hair Cutting, Shaving, Shampooing, and Hair Dyeing. Ladles' Hair cut in the latest style. Particular care given to Cutting Children's Hair. Saloen over the Hon. Charles Connell's Store, Queen Street. Closed on Sundays. GEORGE STAPLES 49 SUDJE VIII is a White Barber. CABLE HOUSE. Woodstock, N. B. THE undersigned having assumed the Proprietor-ship of the "Cable House," begs to assure his friends and the travelling public generally, that he is determined to spare no efforts to maintain the character of this house as a first class hotel.

Permanent and transient Boarders accommodated

Terms reasonable.

A. H. PARKS.

Woodstock, April 20 1868. WOODSTOCK HOTEL, ROBERT DONALDSON, - - Proprietor PLEASANTLY situated on the bank of the river, immediately at the steamboat landing, and convenient to the public offices.

Woodstock, March 25, 1868—1y-13

GIBSON HOUSE,

OPEN FOR TRAVELLERS. QUEEN STREET, WOODSTOCK. ALEX. GIBSON, Proprietor.

WATSON HOUSE. THE "WATSON HOUSE,"ST. STE-PHEN, N. B., is now in complete running order. The House is new, as is the furniture and fittings connected with it, and all the arrangements have been made with a view to meet the wants and promote the com-

The situation is most desirable, close by the Rail-read Depot, near the Post Office and Bank, and over-looking the Ct. Croix River.

HENRY RUSSELL, Proprietor.

PARK HOTEL, KING SQUARE ST. JOHN, H. FAIRWEATHER,

This House is new, is pleasantly situated, furatched in a superior manner, and will be kept as a JUST RECEIVED

COMMERCIAL HOTEL. NEW ARRANGEMENT.

COACH FARE PAID! IN future the COACH FARE of all Travellers from the Railway Station and Steamboat Landing in this City to the COMMERCIAL HOTEL, King street, who make their stay one day or upwards, will be paid by

FARE AT THE HOTEL: One Day, ... 8 0 8 1 00 One Week,..... 5 00

PEBHANRNT. Per Week, $3 25 to $4 50 The HOTEL is situated on the best business stre in the city, and nearly opposite the WAVERLY. It is handsomely fitted up and calculated to accommodate some fifty persons very comfortably.
D. P. HOWE, Proprietor. St. John, Nov. 1, 1867-45-1-y

RUSSELL HOUSE SPARKSTREET.

NEAR THE PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, OTTAWA. J. A. GOUIN, Proprietor.

March 18, 1868-13. 7. 0 / A UNITED STATES HOTEL

PORTLAND, Me. N. J. DAVIS, Proprietor.

C. F. ESTEY, PROPRIETOR

29 KING STREET, ST. JOHN, N.B. Good Stabling on the premises.

WILLIAM R. NEWCOMB. STAGE HOUSE-TOBIQUE

Comfortable Extras Furnished at the shortes setice for any point [39^t

EASTERN EXPRESS COMPANY. Immediately on the running of the Steamers, this Cempany will have faithful messengers and safes on board each boat. The public may rest assured that all goods, money packages, &c., entrusted to their charge will be safely and promptly delivered, and at reasonable rates.

We hold ourselves responsible for all goods entrust-

G. W. VANWART, Agent Woodstock

Woodstock, May 1, 1868.

Matten

SAMUEL WATTS, Editor.

Business Cards.

Livery Stable,

Extras furnished when Required.

A Coach from these stables will attend the Steamers and Cars, for the convenience of passengers. Persons wishing a cab for the Steamer or Cars leaving in the morning, should leave their orders at the office, the Woodstock, Aug. 27, 1868-35.

FREDERICTON, N. B.

THOS. W. SMITH, Proprietor.

First Class Accommodation for

TRANSIENT & PERMANENT BOARDERS

AT REASONABLE PRICES.

Good Stabling, and a Careful Hostler always in att

EATING HOUSE.

IN GRAND TRUNK DEPOT.

Portland, Me.

CARRIAGE FACTORY.

SAMUEL T. BAKER

CONNELL STREET, WOODSTOCK, N B.

WAGGONS and SLEIGHS of every description made to order at the shortest notice, and on low

PAINTING done in the best style by J. W. Boyer. REPAIRING done with neatness and despatch.

Shop in rear of "Cable House."

TRUNK MANUFACTORY.

Germain Street, St. John, N. B.

Manufacturer and Wholesale and Retail

TRUNKS, VALISES, CARPET BAGS, &C.

CANVASS COVERS MADE TO ORDER.

Repairing neatly done at shortest notice.

W. H. KNOWLES.

PATRICK GILLIN.

Importer and dealer in

Wines & Liquors of various brands

Carefully Selected.

GROCERIES, ALE, PORTER, &c.

Queen Street, Woodstock, N. B.

JOSEPH HORNCASTLE

GENERAL COMMISSION AGENT,

INDIANTOWN, ST. JOHN, N. B.

WILLIAM SKILLEN.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B.

JOHN J. MUNROE'S

Market for all kinds of

65 PRINCESS STREET, St. JOHN, N. B.

JOHN J. MUNROE.

65 Princess street, St. John, N. I

LL ready for trade in Trunks and Valises.

Manufacturer's Depot for Ladies and Gents Tru

Trunks, Imitation Trunks, California

Trunks, Packing Trunks,

EVERY VARIETY OF TRUNKS

Call and see for yourselves at
JOHN J. MUNROE'S

sept 21-40 69 Princess street, St. John, N.

ROWE & SHERMAN.

Fredericton, N. B.

of the Shipping & Commission Business.

Having in process of erection a capacious Wharf, be completed by the time that navigation opens, feel confident in saying that our facilities for cannot be surpassed in the Province.

Consignments solicited.

J. H. Betterell,

Wharfing and Shipping all kinds of Lumber

Fton. N. B., Mar. 8 1867 L. W. SHERMAN

ESTABLISHED IN 1834.

JOHN HENDERSON & CO..

Hatters and Furriers,

(CRYSTAL BLOCK,)

283, NOTRE DAME STREET.

MONTREAL.

HENRY CONROY.

Hair Cutter, Wig Maker, &c.

Canterbury Street, St. John, N. B.,

HAS constantly for sale and makes to order article of Ladies Ornamental Hair, Long Hair, Head Presses, Craps Curled and Plain, Frizettes, Ringlets.

Also—Gentlemen's Wigs and Scalps.

Hair Cutting and the various branches of his pro-

E. D. WATTS.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Corner of King Street and Market Square

Braid, Switches, Waterfalls, Curled and Plain, &c.

made up in any style, on moderate terms.

st john july 27, 1867—tf 31

No. 1, King Street.

Saratoga Trunks, Ladies Dress Trunks, Jenny 1

Jan. 1868-6m-52

and growth Ash wanted.

Woodstock, April 12, 1868-16

St. John July 8, 1868-tf-28

Meals at all hours. Suppers and Collations furshed Military and Fire Companies at short notice.

Fredericton, July 2, 1868-27.

Portlan ! Me., Oct 1, '65

Carriages!!

VOL. XX.-NO. 41.

Horses!

Our Queen and Constitution.

JAMES WATTS, Publisher & Proprietor.

WHOLE NO.—1028

r something of the sort, and as no "resolution"

there, and actually did die in consequence.

in Liverpool for twenty-five dollars a ton.

Poetry.

THE NEW SONG. Beyond the hills where suns go down And brightly beckon as they go, I see the land of far renown,

The land which I so soon shall know Above the dissonance of Time, And discord of its angry words, I hear the everlasting chime,

The music of unjarring chords bid it welcome; and my haste To join it cannot brook delay O song of morning, come at last,

And ye who sing it come away ! O song of light, and dawn, and bliss, Sound over earth, and fill these skies,

Nor ever, ever, cease Thy soul entrancing melodies. Glad song of this disburdened earth, Which holy voices then shall sing; Praise for Creation's second birth,

And glory to Creation's King.

MR. NOBODY. I know a funny little man, As quiet as a mouse, Who does the mischief that is done In everybody's house. There's no one ever sees his face,

And yet we all agree, That every plate we broke was cracked By Mr. Nobody. 'Tis he who always tears our books-Who leaves the door ajar; He pulls the buttons from our shirts,

And scatters pins afar.

That squeaking door will always squeak,

For, prithee, don't you see, We leave the oiling to be done By Mr. Nobody. He puts damp wood upon the fire,

That kettles cannot boil His are the feet that bring in mud, And all the carpets soil. The papers are always misled; Who had them last, but he? There's no one tosses them about But Mr. Nobody.

The finger-marks upon the doors By none of us are made; We never leave the blinds unclosed, To let the curtains fade. The ink we never spill; the boots That lying round you see, Are not our boots! they all belong To Mr. Nobody ! - Riverside Magazine.

Select Tale.

MADELINE.

It was in Brighton, about nine o'clock, o one of those cold, blustering evenings of storm and wind that generally usher in the month of November. The streets were almost deserted and the flickering gas, whose flames were invaded by the searching blast, gave an unsteady and sickly light to the lonely thoroughfare, as a tall, emaciated man, dressed in worn an shabby habiliments, walked with trembling and unsteady steps down the broad footway.

Occasionally, from bodily weakness, or the URVEYOR OF LUMBER, piercing blast that impeded his exhausted frame, he grasped the iron railings to support his weary body and aid his fainting progression. or sale of Lumber and all descriptions of Country At length, and after many pauses, the gaunt figure stopped before the steps of the largest mansion in the street; and as he clutched firmly the railings to steady his rapidly increasing COMMISSION & SHIPPING MERCHANT debility, a faint smile of intense joy radiated for a moment the sunken eyes and hollow features of the sinking man. The next instant the smile was succeeded by a livid suffusion of the face—his eyes closed VALISES AND TRUNKS! his hands relaxed their hold of the spikes, the knees doubled under, and the body sunk heav ly on the pavement without sense or motion.

A attention of all Wholesole buyers for the Town and Country trade is called to my various styles. Almost at the same moment the door of mansion was opened, and a gentleman in prime of life, who was leaving the house, hast ened down the steps, while the parish surgeon. who had observed the man fall, came up, with a few passers-by, at the same time.

The figure, as it lay across the path, and was seen by the dim reflection of the street lamp, and the flickering lights of the domestics who had been summoned by their master, appeared The person of the unknown was tall and Shipping, Forwarding & General Commission Merchants, graceful, and dressed in a costume, though WE would respectfully inform the public generally that we are prepared to attend to all branches worn and much soiled, which betrayed evidences of former taste and fashion; while the ger. short, dark moustache formed a marked contrast to the cold whiteness of his countenance and death-stillness of every feature. His high, smooth forehead and long wavy hair were satuparish surgeon, as he knelt to examine condition of his patient; "my servants carry the gentleman in, and pray adopt E. H. Betterell. every means that art or humanity can suggest repressing his patient's violence.

Hudson Bay Furs, Snowshoes, Moccasins, Indian to restore the unfortunate sufferer." Curiosities, Wholesale and Retail. The surgeon immediately embraced the humane proposition of Lord Daymer, and had the stranger conveyed to a warm bed, and adopted all those remedial means that experience and the obscurity of the case seemed to call for. Ha! I begin to understand it all!" exclaimed Mr. Kightly, suddenly, as he leant over bed. "There is no effusion here, my Lord: faction. Ladies sending their own hair can have it it is pure mental and bodily exhaustion—evident starvation. Some wine there-quick !brandy !- food !" and the surgeon administered with dispatch and judgment such sustenance in real surprise; "why, she married Frederick tears FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS, as the new view of the case warranted. Night came on, and the surgeon, in his solitary watch, sank into a deep slumber.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1868. sat erect in bed, still and rigid as an awakened the old wound, and I fell-fell; but now, Lieutenant Raby and herself, and the seeming and ultimately to secure in manicles the hands

A few minutes later, and both were borne t their separate beds; every agent within the writhing in impotent fury, goashing his teet for Madeline, forming a fearful contrast in its bung like parted curtains down the white and man is concerned," replied the surgeon

With a quiet motion of the head, the strang- And breaking violently from the arms of to preserved, even from her friend, the circumer gazed from side to side, and then, with a the surgeon, the madman sprang from the bed, stances of her unhappy nuptials with Walter stealthy action slid quietly from the bed, his and in defiance of every attempt to check the Raby tall figure and sepulchral hue of features, as vociferations, the excited lieutenant filled the Madeline's brief recital, connected with the seen through the surrounding obscurity, giving house with startling cries of "Madeline!" and disjointed narrative of the lieutenant, opened a ghastly and supernatural character to the "Murder!" recuseitated man. Slowly traversing the apartment, he stopped abruptly before the sleeping violently open; and Madeline, deadly pale, and father, no doubt, had played an active part. surgeon, and contemplated the figure before dressed in her long night-robes, rushed into the stare, then raised his arm and placed his cold, distracted mind, exclaimeddeathlike hand on Kightly's forehead Walter! Walter! my heaven, are you here?" ed, murdered, when, after long watching he at had been given rescinding the order, the em-"Where is Madeline ?" inquired the patient, in a low and hollow whisper, that seemed to issue from the chest without volition. prehending the whole in a moment. You must and, leaning forward, rushed with open arms to- fore he reached the spot where all his earthly go back to bed, sir, instantly." "Well, well, but tell me first where is Made of the pale, gaunt figure that approached, threw deep whisper.

"Who do I mean?" rejoined the stranger, with sudden energy, the reaction each instant becoming more powerful; "as if the world because the surgeon had subjugated the disease; but before and with the young and lovely form of Made and with the Kightly, endeavoring to glean from the patient opposes my will. Give way! Ha! ha! bewitching eyes of love. some account of himself, while soothing him ha! found at last, found !" Brownlow, what brought you to Brighton?" hand on the portal; when the surgeon, setzing

"Brownlow! Ha! ha! ha! very good. As a portion of the bed-clothes, came quickly beif you did not know my name was Raby; hind, and throwing it over his head and chest, Jenkins, don't pretend such nonsense. I say ties, as the lieutenant vainly struggled in the again? for I could have sworn, when I shot Clark and Watkins, I fractured your skull with his hands, quickly !" the butt of my pistol. Ha! ha! like a mole I worked in the dark, and was too sharp the raging lover; and, after much difficulty Yes, I felt the bone crush succeeded in removing the lady from his grasp under the blow. Here, here, come closer .-

his thin arm towards Kightly's head as if to assure him of the fact "It is all healed now, I assure you," added power of art being used to pull down the the other, pressing the lieutenant down in bed. bounding blood of the obstreperous Raby, who As you seem to know my name, perhaps you girthed and fettered to the strong bed, la

Let me feel, let me feel!" and he stretched out and feet of the enraged and furious lunatic.

"So you will keep up the farce? How ridi- and shouting through his parched lips wildly culous! What you are ?"

"Yes; for I think you mistake me." noise and fury to the tranquil scene above "Ha! ha! ha! Why, you are the keeper where stretched on her bed, white as the cold who made that hideous hole in the earth, where breathing form of the beautiful Madeline. ha! but I was too much for you at last, and ertion and fright from their confining bands, triple plight the undivided heart and love of killed-killed-killed vou all !" tranquil face, resting their dishevelled curls in

"But where was this outrage committed?" "How should I know? But I outwitted many a glossy fold upon her husband heart and vou-I, Lieut. Raby. s the name awoke a variety of circumstances that cuts the web of life. Calamity mows in his mind "Lieut Raby was drowned down its yearly thousands; but excess of plea- he can do for himself; and that, if he is ever while crossing the channel three or four years sure kills by units only, and in epochs far re- to rise in the scale of social comfort, it must be age. You are confounding names, "I tell you moved again the person you mean was drowned."

"They told you so, perhaps; but it was a lie! you know it was. Who knew the truth mystery.

ny wedding day? And she is here, in this but as they left the church, Raby was attacked then beckoning the surgeon to approach nearer, dungeon of a private madhouse Jenkins, wash off the blood from your temple detailed account of Raby's perishing by the -it makes me sick; and Madeline! Made- capsizing of a yacht. His family accepted the

"Silence!" said Kightly, with assumed an- threats at last, married Lord Frederick,

"Leave your whip alone, Jenkins, and I killed as he rode back from the church beside will. And so after you gave me that blow on her carriage. the head, he resumed, in rambling and unconnected sentences, "that knocked out my brains by the strange and sudden reappearance of want of harmony, the enterprise stool still.rated with the night fog, and gemmed with that clammy dew that is the exhalation of exhausted nature.

The elements then assailed the unfinished and drove me mad! and after I had murdered that husband she had so long mourned as pour labor, the very existence of their ship-building structure, which, in the course of a few years, ronto a few days ago, destined for St. John's, depends upon a rigorous, Japanese exclusion of Halifax, and Boston, (Mass.) markets. They land, and found my wife had married the villand, and found my wife had married the unfinished.

The elements then assailed the unfinished and drove me mad! and strength had been dead, she exclaimed as Doctor Kightly structure, which, in the course of a few years, the very existence of their ship-building that had been dead of the unfinished.

The elements the unfinished and drove me mad! a lain who---who---but, like a hound, I have ed Lord Daymer, at whose door the group was taacked her steps!" then suddenly recollecting deed my husband, dear, dear Walter, whom I have another house. Raisings then were great A lady and gentleman, on passing over the jects, is, and can easily be, got over by persons collected, and addressing Mr. Kightly, the parish surgeon, as he knelt to examine the parish surgeon, as he knelt to examine the parish surgeon, as he knelt to examine the she not come? Where is she? Madeline, has he returned to me at last? Or is it but a the timbers:—all the women and children were

"Take off your hands, let me rise. Hark!

wife is calling me! or by heaven I-" ed the surgeon to himself. "Method in his thank God! My dear beloved Walter!" and madness. I must endeavor to gain more. - the lovely woman clasped her hands with You shall, he continued, addressing the strug- devout piety and thankful gratitude. "Oh, gling lieutenant, "when you have told me the my dear dusband!" she resumed but her words "Why, Madeline Villiers. Everybody tears, that, in a full and ardent flood, coursed

"Madeline Villiers!" ejaculated the other, out its gratitude to God in the intensity of her Lord Daymer, who was-"

"Exactly! Fred Daymer, the villian-I equanimity to speak uninterruptedly, and ask will contract a rust and an unfitness for everytold you so-they made her do it; I know the hasty questions her busy mind conceived, thing, and a man must either fill up his time Presently a slight rustling was heard behind they did-forced her! but I will revenge it she told succinctly, and in a few words possible, with good, or at least innocent business, or the decline in price, and offered very lew. The most careful attention given to orders from the country. hands, or agitation of the clothes, the patient at the door when some one struck me again on Kightly, the singular connection between vice.

Items Foreign & Local. marvel in her own position, for she had hitherto the surgeon's view a history of most In another instant the room door was thrown trocious crime and fraud, in which the lady' What horrid punishment had the wretch him for a moment with a vague and wondering apartment, and, with a bewildered stare and husband in all probability, suffered from

> "Let go! It is my wife! I'd burst the last obtained the opportunity to wreck the ployees were too "loyal" to take upon themgates of death to reach her! Madeline!" and vengeance they so richly merited Again, what misery and privation had the with a resistless bound the infuriated patient tore from the restraining grasp of the surgeon, victim endured, helpless and in poverty, be ward the advancing Madeline, who, at the sight hopes were centered And at last, when guided by love's power- Christian missionaries. up her arms, and uttering a piercing shriek, ful instinct, cold. wet, foot-weary, and exhaust fell lifeless in the convulsive embrace of the ed, he made the heaven of his wishes, the long-stretched chord gave way, the mind recled "Lady Madeline Daymer here, and in such and the enduring boly sank, broken and dis-"Who is it a position. What is the meaning of this, Mr. jointed, on the threshold of his soul's success held two Madelines-ha, ha, ha!" and he lieutenant, lifting the insensible form of Made- looks of tenderest love, and whisper words of laughed derisively. "Why, I want my wife; line in his arms, authoritatively waved back the hope and consolation, it is not to be wondered she is in this house; I know it-I will see crowd, crying, as he dashed past them into the if half the cure was wrought before the "Well, I will assist you; but you must first "Stand back; all of you back, on your lives. reason's throne restored by Kightly's means, give me all the information you can," observed I will murder the first who approaches me cr and the soft ministry of a fair hand and two Days merged in weeks, and months stole with a vague promise. " Now, tell me, Mr. And making a bound forward, he laid his swiftly by, each hour conferring more valid strength to the quickly convalescent guest; and when rejoicing spring put forth her verdant arms with vigorous promise for the coming summer. Walter Raby, like the buoyant year, health and strength; and but for a dash "Take the lady from his arms, and secure melancholy that yet hung about his brow. mental shadow of his long privation, Instantly several men threw themselves or through the last three years of cruel misery.

But Madeline saw not this; for joyousl happy in her restored lover's arms, she onl that earth or life beld dear, and, in the sweet deotion of a woman's heart, she pictured him he then looked when first his manly form woke her breast to love and worship. Six months subsequent to the dreary night that made him a pitied guest in Lord Daymer's mansion, Walter, now Captain Raby, attended by his friendly host and all his relatives, led to the altar of Hanover Church the hanny Madeline, the blushing wife and youthful mony so inauspiciously begun, and ending in a Her dark chesnut hair, loosened by her ex-

Self Help.

It cannot be too often repeated that, in a fre "Impossible!" added the surgeon, quickly. Happiness but seldom kills; it is not felicity try, and a matured constitution, no Government can effect for a poor man one-tenth part of what mainly through his own self-reliaance, frugality, The household was as cager as our readers and forethought There is no helping a man doubtless are to have an explanation of all this that will not help himself. If any person ed to a balloon. wishes to succeed, he must set his own shoulder A hundre I thousand dollar diamond Madeline had loved, and, with her father's to the wheel, and not waste his time in the vain "The truth of what?" inquired Kightly. | consent, giving her heart to lieutenant Raby, and delusive hope that others will do for hum "Yes; and did I not murder the whole of who had saved that father's life. But in an what he ought to do for himself. No Governyou, and pile your bodies up in the grave dug evil day she caught the eye of the dissipated ment can make men religious, sober, self-denywithout them high wages and political privileges house. I know it, I feel it, and I will see by minions of Lord Frederick, seized, bound, are altogether valueless. We are deeply perher! I tell you I will!" cried Raby, fiercely; and carried to France, to be buried alive in the suaded that there is a power of self improvement and social elevation amongst the masses he added, in a confidential whisper, "I say The papers of the day soon after gave a which is almost incalculable; it is, indeed, to a wisely used or judiciously applied .- The story, and Madeline, yielded to her father's People's Magazine.

Many years ago a small Connecticut parish undertook to build a meeting house. They went so far as to get up the frame and cover it with boards. Then, for want of money and want of harmony, the enterprise stool still.—

What more natural than that sentimental young ladies, when they get married, should cease to be pensive and get ex-pensive.

One fifth of the population of that part of the Reciprocity Treaty, is both opportune and important. Our neighbors must be prepared to give as well as take, in framing this treaty, and we are sure the majority of them are hardly prepared for the admission that, with however, to see him thrown from his horse and When she recovered from the swoon caused with boards. Then, for want of money and mocking dream? Oh, no! no! no! it was no to see them do it. At the conclusion of the happiness?" Before he could receive a reply, Board's petition: "That the vessels built or happiness?" "Madeline who?" enquired the surgeon, epressing his patient's violence.

"Take off your hands, let me rise.

"Take off your hands, let me rise.

"At the constant of the bridge and happiness?" Before he could receive a reply, happiness?" Before he could receive a reply, owned by the Dominion of Canada shall have he jumped upon the parapet of the bridge and he jumped into the river. Two hours afterwards his body was discovered.

"Take off your hands, let me rise.

"Take off your hands, let me rise."

"Take off your hands, let me rise.

"Take off your hands let me rise." "Tranquillize yourself, madame; your This office, at the time referred to, was assigned she is calling! Let me rise, Jenkins! my hopes are not deceptive, as far as that gentle- to President Fdwards's witty son Pierrepon who happened to be present. He began as Except the Lord doth build the house. The workmen toil in vain;

which was sung with a will. But the excite throng was taken somewhat back when the were chocked by an uncontrolling burst of roguish precentor roared as follows: Except the Lord doth shingle it T'wil! tumble down again.

down her cheeks as if her tender soul poured EMPLOYMENT. - Some employments may better than others; but there is no employmen When Madeline had recovered sufficient so bad as the having none at all. The mine he news that the latter power will reduce Gazette de France. On the other hand, La Patrie does not believe this to be correct. Nothing is said about the reduction of the French army, which is now 750,000 strong, not including the National Guard Mobile, 550,000 strong. As long as this force is maintained, the peace of Europe will be threatened. Perhaps Le Patrie is directed to cast doubt upon the item of Prussian news referred to, lest the French people should demand a corresponding reduct-Spain, we also learn, offers to send 30,000 men to Rome, if France will aid it in the event of war. This is crafty. It is offering a little ssistance for greater, as 50,000 to 80,000 men would be wanted to secure the Spanish Crown

A submarine telescope has lately been tried on the river Euro, France, with great success.— ducements to the French to accept the offer are on the river Euro, France, with great success.—
It is stated that the smallest pearls and the barnackles attached to the hull of a large ship were plainly seen, and that fishes were seen passing back and forth without being disturbed. "Red Tapeism" finds a place in other nations besides the English. The Russian monarch took a notion the other day to overlook his accounts, and found charged one item he did not under-stand—"Tallow Ball for the Empress when sick." On enquiry it was found that about cupidity of the United States. Should the old Latin Power become involved in a war in Europe, Cuba, at least, might be invaded by the United States, for, though the Spanish iron-elad fleet is a good one, (as proved at the ment of Valparaiso,) and there are some good naval officers, as Admiral NUNEZ, the fleet i elves to omit sending the tallow-ball, so that it can fleet could have its own coast for its base If, therefore, the French government entered into a treaty to aid Spain in return for colonies, thereby coming into a conflict with the United States; and thus the war would rol land is shown by the fact that recently a poor carrier, overtaken by an accident, and like to die after many hours exposure, was refused admission to an inn, because Lord Mostyn was most them. This magnificant island. upon them. This magnificent island would be leyan Methodist Church -Irish Times Capt. Thaddeus Stevens, nephew of the late Member of Congress, is to have, by his uncle's will, one-fourth of his estate if he totally abstains from intoxicating drinks for five years, one-fourth the defiant expression of the King of Prussia at Kiel, on Tuesday, will not tend to abate the uneasy feeling now prevalent in Europe. It is whole remainder, if he remains another five NAPOLEON a pretext to keep up his army on a more if he abstains another five years, and the

Within the past two years, Mr. Disraeli's gov- down so openly, war, of course, cannot be far rament has appointed twenty-two judges, six distant,—Montreal Gazette. ernment has appointed twenty-two judges, six d bishops, thirteen peers; eleven baronets, thirtythree knights, twenty-two Privy Councillors, vine Lord Lieutenants, four Knights of the Garter, and a long list of Ministerial offices, besides Galactic Montreal Gazette.

The New York Albion thus remarks in reference to the adoption of the Northern route for the Intercolonial:

On a recent Sabbath $27,361 was collected i already in the field 723 candidates. Of this number 305 are recorded as Conservatives (including some who would vote for the disestablishment of the Irish Church), and the remaining 418 are Liberals. It is reported that a fresh attack against Rome is imminent. It is said that Cattabeni is at Sora with a considerable force of Garibaldians; that Canzio, Garibaldi's son-in-law, is recruting the Intercolonial Railway a success and not a and that Menotti meditates a descent upon a and that Menotti meditates a descent upon a point of the Pontifical coast. Garibaldi has resigned his seat in Parliament.

Dominion that are most deeply interested—like the provinces of New Brunswick and Contarion will bestir themselves in time to avert this Queen Victoria keeps two hundred horses

The South promises a third more rice than There are about 7,500,000 telegraph posts country like ours, with equal laws, free indus. Americans are trying to make Australia yield —was nothing more than might have been ex-

you, and pile your bodies up in the grave dug for me? Oh! what a delicious hour was that! Lord Frederick Daymer, and her father, sacrificing his own honor and her happiness, insisted weeks, hungry, cold and wet, to reach my wife — my Madeline—from whom you tore me on my wedding day? And she is here, in this was attacked my weeking day? And she is here, in this was attacked without these ports, of Partial surveys; but the send and more religious, sober, self-denying and industrious; and without these virtues, how can any condition be happy or prosperous? And she is here, in this was attacked but as they left the church, Raby was attacked without them high wages and political privileges.

zette, that the Australian Colonies are soon to be confederated under a form of government like that of the Dominion of Canada. Berlin has added seventy thousand to its po-

Boiled oranges are considered very good as a is in hand; and before it is too late." castle of Lady Cust, in England. Naturalists His Excellency the Governor-General, in favor cease to be pensive and get ex-pensive.

them to talk about their neighbors. We are states for a new market, and by giving the also informed that they are living up to this rule necessary encouragement for such future devewith perfection, which is the first instance of lopment, improvement, and enterprise in this the kind on record."

able antiquity in the British Museum, is the and a large part of Europe. royal mummy of Pharoah Mykerrimus of Egypt, whose remains are still wonderfully perfect, air of authority, has been appointed one of the Railway Commissioners. It is rumored that the Instructions from Mr. Seward that all papers Hon. A. R. Wetmore will take the seat on the and documents hitherto issued with regard to ranks of the Government; how will they be filled up? Mr. Fisher is reported to object to being shelved on the bench, and to be looking be thinks fit. The spirit in which he will enter for something above and beyond a Judgeship.— upon this undertaking was abundantly shown by Fredericten Reporter.

The conversion of 50,000 Feejee cannibals. into a treaty to aid Spain in return for out of 300,000 anthropophagi, into eaters of brute flesh and vegetables, is a triumph for the have to assist in the defence of the later's auxiliary corps sent to Rome, it a better acquisition than Mexico, being nearer and more defensible. In an essay on "practical jokes" in Chamber's not been burning fifteen minutes before they on a war footing. All this attends to aggressi -at least a costly army cannot be long main-American hay from Nebraska has been selling tained. It must be used quickly or During the past year, in Great Britain, 24,692 soon. Let us hope rather for a reduction of the new members have been admitted to the Wes-war footing, and when the gauntlet is thrown

"In New Brunswick, the selection of a most circuitous and unsatisfactory route for the Interclonial Road—the introduction of which, The company in Cincinnati which ran with pact—will do much now to alienate the most is continually adding any adding and influential most infl the first steam fire engine ever used in the world is continually adding ornaments to its machine, which is now glittering with gold and silver.—

The smeke-stack alone is worth $300 as old metal.

The company in Cincinnati which rail with pact—will do much now to alienate the mich is populous and influential part of that 'Keystone Province.' Ontario has not yet shown her hand on the subject; but Ministers may yet find that this populous and largely-producing, as well as consuming province, will not readily In England there are 271 constituencies, and consent to an expenditure of 25,000,000 or water 28. These 299 constituencies are $30,000,000 for a road so great in length and entitled to return 493 members, and there are difficult of construction, as to be unable to com-threatening calamity to their new and rising nation. The recent success of the new Finance Minister, in placing a two million loan, three-fourths of which was based upon the Imperial guarantee, and one fourth on a special line on the consolidated revenue of the Dominion, pected; particularly with the present glut of money in the London market. But the It is said that Gen. Beauregard is to marry a legitimately concerns every taxpayer in the Dominion, as well as every well-wisher of it: once, and be made to give an account, too, of what their engineers have already spent in reported at Sharon.

A hereulean eater in Belgium challenged the is sadly wanting in actual knowledge. He spins It is rumored, as noted by the Montreal Gar not see in their present management buncombe' and British-Americain jol which ought to be considered while the money

The petition of the Quebec Board of Trade to are interesting themselves about these creatures. of securing to the Canadian ship-builder free ac-A country newspaper says:—"The ladies of this City have formed a 'Sociable Society,' with constitution and bye-laws that will not allow THE OLDEST INHABITANT .- The most valu- become the chief ship builder for North America

PROBABLE SETTLEMENT OF THE ALABAMA though nearly thirty centuries have rolled on CLAIMS.—The Liverpool Mercury has the fol-Changes are coming over the Local Government, and it is threatened with a great loss. lowing statement:—"We have great pleasure in bidding our readers look for a speedy termination of the "Alabama" difficulty. We are Hon. E. B. Chandler, we hear it stated with an informed tha Mr. Reverdy Johnson, the new bench. Thus two great gaps will be made in the the "Alabama question have been cancelled by