TOBACCO-BY FANNY FERN. - I hate tobacco. I am a clean creature, and it smells bad. Smells bad is a mild word; but I use it, being a woman. I deny your right to smell bad in my psesence, or the presence of our clean sisterhood. I deny your right to poison the air of our parlors, or our bed-rooms, with your A BOUT 300 acres on the Maduxnakick, near Mar. breath, or your tobacco saturated clothing, even About 130 acres adjoining the above and the Canathough you may be our husbands. The servant returned when the man and his wife were at dinner. He had, of course, been told in giving answers to certain kinds of questions,

"What was he doing," asked the wife, who, with the usual penetration of her sex, thought she had discovered a mouse in the meal "He was puting on his bonnet," was the re ply. And the scene closed upon an extin-

LET No MAN ASK FOR LEISURE. - The most fallacious ideas prevail respecting leisure. People are always saying to themselves, "I would do this, and I would do that, if I had leisure." of doing any good is less than in the condition of leisure. The man fully employed may be able to gratify his good dispositions by improving himself or his neighbors, or serving the lie in some useful way; but the man who has all his time to dispose of as he pleases, has but a poor chance, indeed, of doing so.

In cases where there is a constant waste of the lungs, In cases where there is a constant waste of the lungs, as in tuberculous diseases, the Sarsaparillian Resolvent arrests this waste, and repairs the diseased parts with sound material made from pure, rich blood.

It secures a good appetite, makes sound and healthy flesh and fibre, gives strength to the weak, and repairs the waste with healthy material. Let not the Consumptive neglect this warning, nor reject the hope held out. Exclusive direct remedies, that act only on the lungs, will never cure; they may smooth and soften the path to the grave, but never will they restore the patient to health. It is foolish for people to reject a remedy that cures so many diseases. It it not the remedy that makes the cures—it is the BLOOD, and Pure Blood will cure the Consumption just as certain as it will remove Pimples, Blotches, and Burns, Scalds, Sprains, Strains, Bruises, Bites, in fact whenever some accident or illness takes place-use the Ready Relief at once-it will always do good .- Price 25

Valuable Family Medicine. PENDLETON'S TALL

Vegetable Panacea. This valuable preparation has already been exten-ively circulated, and wherever it has been used it has met with entire approbation, and been enstalled as the Family Medicine. None should be without it, for so sure and speedy a relief as it affords in all cases of riolent pains, cramps, colic, coughs and colds, cannot elsewhere be found. Especially as a cure for Rheumatism it has proved, when faithfully applied, infallible. Being purely vegetable, no deleterious effects need be feared. Try it, for a single bottle will do more to establish its character than a hundred testmonials; but if any doubt its value, certificates from many prominent citizens of St. John and other towns may be seen in the manufacture's possession who will gladly exhibit them. Retail price 25 cents per bottle. For sale by E. W. Pendleton, General Agent and Manufacturer for the Provinces, Portland, St John N. B., by Druggists generally, and at village stores.
