Miscellaneous.

THE OCEAN BOTTOM.—Mr. Green, the famous diver, gives some new sketches of what he saw at the "Silver Bank," near Hayti:—The banks of coral on which my divings were made are about forty miles in length, and from ten to twenty in breadth. On this bank of coral is presented to the diver one of the most beautiful and sublime scenes the eye ever beheld. The water varies from ten to one hundred feet in depth, and so clear that the diver can see from two to three hundred feet when submerged, with but little obstruction to the sight.

The bottom of the ocean in many places, is as smooth as a marble floor; in others it is studded with coral columns, from ten to one hundred feet in height, and from one to eighty feet in diameter. The tops of those more lofty support a myriad of pyramidal pendants, each forming a myriad more, giving reality to the other places. The pendants form arch after arch, and, as the diver stands on the bottom of the ocean, and gazes through in the deep winding avenues, he finds that they fill him with as sacred an awe as if he were in some old cathedral which had long been buried beneath old ocean's wave. Here and there the coral extends even to the surface of the water, as if the loftier columns were towers belonging to those stately temples that are now in ruins.

There are countless varities of diminutive trees, and shrubs, and plants in every crevice of the corals where water had deposited the earth. They were all of a faint hue, owing to the pale light they received, although of every shade, and entirely different from plants that I am familiar with that vegetate upon dry land. One in particular attracted my attention; it resembled a sea-fan of immense size, of variegated colors, and the most brilliant hue. The fish which inhabit these "Silver Banks" I found different in kind as the scenery was varied.—They were of all forms, colors and sizes—from the symmetrical goby to the globe-like sun fish; from the dullest hue to the change-dolphin; from the spots of the leopard to the hues of the voracious shark. Some had heads like squirrels, others like cats and dogs, some of small size resembled the bull terrier. Some darted through the water like meteors, while others could be scarcely seen to move. The sun fish, star fish, white shark and blue or shovel-nose shark were often seen. There were also fish which resembled plants, and remained as fixed in their position as a shrub; the only power they possessed was to open and shut when in danger. Some of them resembled the rose when in full bloom, and were of all hues. There were the ribbon fish from four or five inches to three feet in length; their eyes are very large, and protrude like those of a frog. Another fish is spotted like a leopard, from three to ten feet in length. They build their houses like beavers in which they spawn, and the male or female watches the egg until it hatches. I saw many specimens of green turtle, some five feet long which would weigh from 400 to 600 pounds.

IMPORTANT.

THE Proprietors of the United Provincial Commercial College have much pleasure in announcing to the Business Community, and friends of Education and progress in general, that they have extended operations by opening in the City of Halifax under auspicious circumstances. This is of importance, for it gives our Students a much wider field for their enterprise, as our Diplomas will be appreciated not only in one City or Province, but in Provinces, and throughout the "Dominion of Canada."

Young man, are you nobly and honorably trying to better your condition? Remember, "Knowledge is Power;" men generally get that position of honor, emolument and dignity for which they prepare themselves. Can you point out any calling or profession, where in so short a time, for such a trifling sum, you may obtain such a ready passport of success? A boundless field of business enterprise lies before you, a vast continent of inexhaustible resources. The world is astir about you, progress is the motto of the age; let no man win your prize; step forward boldly, have self-reliance, with an honest intent and indomitable perseverance, and success is yours.

☞ Life Scholarships good for either College, $35; Books, &c., $10; Circulars with every information, free on application.
