Dr. EDMUND L. HOVEY INFORMS his friends and the public that he has com-menced the practice of his profession in this County. Dr. Hovey has made Medicine the study of his life

Professional Cards.

and has had some experience in its practice in this County. During the past few years he has had the advantage of receiving instruction from represent men in the various branches of the Art, and in several of its many systems. He has also been in a position to study Surgery and healing, during the continua. of the late Civil War in the United States, in some

the largest hospitals. RESIDENCE, next below the Baptist Church. Woodstock, July 18, 1866 [30]

STEPHEN SMITH, M. D. VOL. XX.-NO. 1. Physician, Surgeon, and Accoucheur RESIDENCE-Three doors north of the Episo Church, Main Street. OFFICE-In the Medical Hall, King Street, nextdoe o the Post Office. Woodstock, April 29 1865.

Dr. C. P Connell, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Office-In Brick Building, near the Hay Scales. -Residence at Hon. Charles Connell's.

C. F. H. Campbell, M. D., (Formerly of the Army,) For all she was only seventeen, and so Deacon Surgeon, Physician and Accoucheur, HAS settled in Woodsteck for the practice of 1 profession. Gray was telling her, as he sat by the blaze, and asked. [tf-18 RESIDENCE-At the "Cable House."

Dr. REYNOLDS. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, CENTRAL OFFICE : UPPER CORNER, - - WOODSTOCK RESIDENCE-Mr. Archibald Plummer's, Jack [22-tf.] sontown Road

WILLIAM M. CONNELL. ATTOBNEY at LAW, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCE NOTARY PUBLIC,

INSURANCE AGENT, &c.

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

heerily out-

quite right.

out her."

obstinate you are."

keep my secret !'

SAMUEL WATTS, Editor.

Select Tale.

SENT BY EXPRESS.

mother just buried.

bread and butter?"

New York who-"

just to suit him, wasn't he ?"

Marian Harlan was alone in the world-her

She was a beautiful brown- haired girl, with soft shy eyes of a velvet array, and rosy lips compressed to a firmness far beyond her years.

"But what are you going to do to arn

"I don't know-Mamma had an uncle

'Yes, yes-I've heard tell about him-

Margaret was silent. Deacon Gray waited a few minutes, hoping that she would admit him into her secret meditations ; but she did not, and the Deacon went home to tell his wife that " that Harlan girl was the queeres

In the meantime Marian was packing the weird, flickering light of the dying wood creature he had ever come across."

he was mad cause your mother did not marry

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1868.

vou bear.

cottage, may

the parent knee

come home in glee;

holy-day;

and clear,

bright career.

cadence falls.

calls to duty here,

CARRIER'S

Harrington, the rich merchant, and she is en Horace Greeley on "Going into Debt." In a recent lecture Mr. Horace Greeley ANNUAL tirely alone. Mother, she looks like poor said :-- " Half the young men in the country Blanche, and I knew you would not refuse her a corner here until she could find something to with many old enough to know better, would "go into business." that is into debt-to-mor "GARLETON SENTINEL. row, if they could. Most poor men are so Mrs. Evans went to the door and calle ignorant as to envy the merchant or manufacturer whose life is an incessant struggle with Oh, merry, merry Christmas what choice delights "Come up stairs, my dear ; you are as wel as the flowers in May. Frank, you did pecuniary difficulties, who is driven to constant "shinning," and who, from month to month, barely evades that insolvency which sooner or

The days and weeks passed on and still Mir later overtakes most men in business ; so that nie Harlan remained an inmate of Mrs. Evans' it has been computed that but one in twenty humble dwelling. "It seems as though she has taken our dead Blanche's place," said the them achieve a pecuniary success. For my own Long, cosy little widow, "and she is so useful about part-and I speak from sad experience-I would the house. I don't know how I managed with- rather be a convict in a State prison, a slave in a rice-swamp, than to pass through life under A day when round the homestead hearth and at "Now, Minnie, you are not in earnest about the harrow of debt. Let no man misjudge him- The household hearts from tar of self unfortunate or truly poor, so long as he leaving us to morrow ?" has the full use of his limbs and faculties, and "I must, dear Mrs. Evans. Only think-I is substantially free from debt. Hunger, cold, To festive hearts and buoyant hopes in pleasure ave been here two months to-morrow rags, hard work, contempt, suspicion, unjust he situation as a governess is advantageous." reproach, are disagreeable ; but debt is infinite "Very well; I shall tell Frank how very ly worse than all ; and if it had pleased God to spare either or all of my sons to be the support " Dearest Mrs. Evans, please don't ! please and solace of declining years, the lesson which I should have most earnestly sought to impress And bids your Newsboy "hurry up" his tribute

As guided by the power of Britain's hand, Its fame shall wide extend to every land. ADDRESS. Its ships and commerce, its industrial force, Its wealth of Empire gleaned from every sour Beneath one flag its star of Empire rides From the Atlantic to Pacific tides So may it be! Oh, may its sons be true, To know their duty and that duty do, Woodstock, Jan. 1, 1868. To keep the patriots fire within their breast Aglow; to work for and to hope the best; Aiding by heart and arm that she may be Greater than poets dream or prophecy.

D'erruling, for the time, though brief, God send her statesmen wise in justice's caus To make benignant, not oppressive, laws; distracting care ; A green spot in life's desert where To modify where laws now seem to bear her altars fair Too hardly on the poor, that they may share Of Justice equal. And though dark the pass And Peace and Friendship, hand in hand We are going through, the duty on Molasses Will be reduced, I hope, and Corn and Flour, blest communion there. long within or stately hall. Will be exempt or made a great deal lower. Our people love, as did Poor Maximillian !--worthy better fate. Than by Napoleon sent, to undergo. Striving to reconstruct a shattered State, And give a better fame to Mexico.

A day when joyous peals shall give a music strong Ah! luckless day. Withdrawn the Imperi He, left defenceless, soon became the prey Of the relentless Juarez. All was lost-

His heart and hope and life extinct that day But happy Christmas! on my And faintly through the thickening mist your And sad Carlotta, she her slaughtered lord, lessening joy note falls;

In mental night laments ;- the while lands While from the church bells comes the voice that Condemn the murder by the ruthless horde.

And there they lay. But soon a roar

The lion shook his mane; his eyes

To arms-and soon across the sea,

Presumptuous Theodore will know

Will learn that, wheresoever found.

From outrage, insolence and shame.

The Dane and the English, Irish, Scotchman and

And the Canucks had iron, to tell of the field

Shedding abroad to every land, serene,

Old England still maintains, supreme

Amid the nations. Free and far,

But rancor stalks amid the land,

Invoking all those passions fell.

And discord wild uplifts her wand,

Would desecrate the happy land ;

And, with the incendiaries brand,

And, by the red assassin's hand,

Which turn earth's fairest spots to hell. The Fenians, a relentless band,

With stealthy tread and whispered speech

They words and acts of treason teach,

Of Empire her's the ascendant star.

Her Empire of the seas. The Queen

Its meaning and its mystery.

On civilized or savage ground,

A son of Britain still may claim

Exemption in Brittania's name

The magic word of liberty :

Prussian :

each other.

Looking timid,

Her ships went forth, and soon I trow

Bearing the guerdon of the free.

Was heard from England's distant shore

Glares fierce, and swift a summons flies

And curse their savage hearts and savage

Sentinel

General Metus. THE LAST NEW YORK ROBBERY .- At al esterday morning, Louis J. Kin as clerk in the Bank of the New York, was returning from the Clear House with a black leather bag, containing $ 600,000 worth of checks, and $500 in bank not and when near the intersection of William a Wall streets, his attention was attracted by handsome Portland sleigh and bay mare wh faced the street instead of being drawn up side the walk. As the young man came abr JAMES WATTS, Publisher & Proprietor. the sleigh, an unknown person struck him on t side of the head, seized the bag, and, jumpi into the sleigh, was at once driven off at h WHOLE NO. 988. speed by one of the two men who occupied it. Kingsley, still holding fast to the bag with o hand, and clinging to the sleigh, was dragg nearly a block past the bank building in which Items Foreign & Loca he is employed, his assailant all the time s him on the head, face and hands to get him At length he relinquished his hold, and the p ty, after driving through several of the dow town streets, dash up Pearl street and vanishe Neither the boy nor any of those who with The the assault can positively identify either the petrator of the outrage or his abettors, so ran y was it done. One of the fellows, in his fligh Nine French Canadians were burned to death lost his hat, and this may possibly lead to the detection of the owner and his accomplices.--Young Kingsley suffered several painful cont sions on the face and hand, but is not serious Thirty thousand workmen are employed injured. He had taken to the Clearing Ho France in the manufacture of artificial flowers. A Louisville court has decided that a man may and a considerable sum in bank notes. Of t checks received by him in return, $3,200.0 were certified, and the remainder non-ce England makes 50,000 tons of cheese annual-Had the robbers committed the assault when y, and imports 30,000 tons more from America. messenger returned from the bank in the af The engineer who occasioned the Vermon they might have secured a very lar moon, they might have secured a very larg mount of money in bank notes, as the bank The sale of newspapers devoted to criminal ferences are then paid in cash. The r news or embellished with fanciful sketches is nitted, every known detail was having been com at once telegraphed to the police central office rohibited on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. A sheep-shearing machine is on exhibition New York. The sheep furnishes the motiv power and shears himself in one minute. and thence communicated to all the motive and to the police of the country; but up fo late hour last night no arrests had been ma The "Champion Rat" was killed in Dele-ware, Ont, last week. It measured 23 inches in in the stand weighed 4 lbs. The various banks whose checks was stopped. It were also notified and payment was stopped. It is hardly probable, however, that these artistic is hardly probable, however, that these artistic highwaymen will present any for payment. Canadian railways carried, last year, two million and a half passengers. Only seventy-SENATOR RAMSAY'S RESOLUTIONS .- The fol

A temperance hospital is to be established in London. The sick are to be treated without lowing resolutions have been fyled in the Senate of the United States by Senator Ramsay of Min-nesota, and ordered to be printed :--

C. L. RICHARDS Wholesale Grocer and Commission Merchant, 1. NORTH WHARF, ST. JOHN, N. B.

On account of the destruction of former residence by Fire,

DOCTOR SMITH

Woodstock, Sept 20, 1867.

W. P. DONNELL,

-IMPORTER OF-French, Brandies. Pure Wines. Hollands Geneva, English Ale and Irish Porter. Tobacco, Segars, &c. Main-st., Woodstock, N. B. 43-1y

Mr E. BAKER, Jr., CABRIAGE & SLEIGH MAKE SOUTH SIDE OF THE BRIDGE. CHOP next door to Doak's Blacksmith Shop. S pairing done with neatness and promptness. E. BAKER. Good Hardwood Lumber taken in exchange for Woodstock, Dec 10, 1867-tf-50 ESTABLISHED IN 1834.

JOHN HENDERSON & CO., Hatters and Furriers,

(CRYSTAL BLOCK,)

$83, NOTRE DAME STREE

MONTREAL.

E. H. BOTTERELL J. H. BOTTERELL, Hudson Bay Furs, Snowshoes, Moccasins, Indian Curiosities, Wholesale and Retail.

JOSEPH HORNCASTLE, SURVEYOR OF LUMBER GENERAL COMMISSION AGENT. For sale of Lumber and all descriptions of Country INDIANTOWN, ST. JOHN, N. B. Jan. 1868-6m-52

UNITED STATES HOTEL PORTLAND, Me., N. J. DAVIS, Proprietor.

GIBSON HOUSE, OPEN FOR TRAVELLER

handle of her faded carpet bag. ALEX. GIBSON, Proprietor. "-And we regret to inform you that he PHULLIPS HOUSE. sailed for Europe at 12 o'clock this day." HE su beriber, having taken a house at East Flo. enceville, is prepared to accom-modate the tra. elling public. A sudden blur eame over her eyes-she have her trembled like a leaf. In all her calculations, she made no allowance for any exigency such Has anything happened ?" JOSE. DH A. C. PHILLIPS. JOSE. DH A. C. PHILLIPS. as this .. "Can we do anything further for you ?" he Harlan was married to me this morning." PARK HOTEL, Walter Harrington started. "Nothing-no one can do anything now." "Take me to her," he said, hoarsely ; " At atal paisas Frank Evans had been turning away, but can't be parted from my only relative for such something in the piteous tones of her voice ap-H. FAIRWEATHER, mere whim." pealed to every instinct within him. to days tod Proprietor. "I wonder if he calls the marriage service "Shall I send you to any other of your which the House is new, is pleasantl situated, fur which diff a Superior manner, and will be kept as a first Class Hotel. [24] and wedding rings mere whims," thought honest Frank ; but he obeyed in silence. " Thave no friends." "Minnie." said the old man in faltering ac-THE STATE AN R. NEWCOMB. "Perhaps I can have your things sent t cents, " you'll come to me and be the daughter STAGE HOUSE -- TOBIQUE | some hotel ?" of my old age? I am rich, Minnie, and you Minnie opened the little leathern purse the Mational Parks are all I have in the world." and showed him two ten cent pieces with a Dearest uncle, he was kind to me when I was Alleine any pointant smile that was almost a tear. most desolate and alone. I cannot leave my edia mod TIBA Minum's "That is all the money that I have in husband, Uncle Walter-I love him." Boomen a sling IN GRAYE TRUNK DEPOT. So young, so beautiful, and so desolate So young, so heauthur, and so descented social additional and So geoing, so heauthur, and so descented Frank Evans had been in New York all his life, but he never met an exact parallel case to is as lonely as a tomb." this. He bit the end of his pen in dire perbritind Me. Oct 1 bes AMERICAN HOUSE. "But what in the world are you going to

"I will go to New York," she said to herself, setting her pearly teeth together. "My mother's uncle shall hear her pleaded through my own lips. Oh, I wish my heart would not throb so wildly ! I am no " Minnie." HAS REMOVED to the house lately occupied by Mrs. Blake, on the corner of the street in rear of the Free Christian Baptist Meeting House, imme-diately north of that building. respass on your kindness." battle, with her own single hands."

Lower Broadway at seven o'clock, p. m. What a Babel of erushing wheels, hurrying humanity and conglomerate noise it ose our little sunbeam ?" Minnie Harlin sat in the corner of an express office, under the figure of gas lights, surround-cold and passive in Frank's grasp. ed by boxes and wondering whether the people "You'll stay, Minnie ?" ever went crazed in this perpetual din and tumult. Her dress was plain-gray poplin, with a shabby, old fashion little straw bonnet, tied with black ribbons, and a blue veil, while her one article of baggage, the carpet bag, lay the theft !"

on her lap. She had sat there almost two hours, and was very, very tired. pale and white. " Oh, Frank, you never can " Poor little thing," thought the darkhaired, youngest clerk nearest her, who inhabited a sort of wire cage under a circle of gas lights. "Mr. Evans." " The article ! The dark-haired elerk emerged from his cage with his pen behind his ear, in obedience to the beckoning figure of his superior.

"I have poticed that young woman sitting here for some time-how came she here ?" " Expressed on, sir, from Milmington

As thought Minnie Harlan were a box or "Who for ?". " Consigned to Walter Harrington, Esq "And why has he not been sent for ?" " Evans !"

"I sent Mr. Harrington's address to notify "Yes, sir.' him some time ago. I expect an answer every "Very odd." said the grey-haired gentle.

"Yes, sir, rather." Some three-quarters of an hour afterwards, months since ?" Frank Evans came to the girl's side with an indescribable pity in his hazel eyes.

"Miss Harlan, we have sent to Mr. Harrin posed with eager quickness : gton's residence-Minnie looked with a feverish red upon he cheeks, and her hunds clasped tightely on QUEEN STREET, WOODSTOCK.

"What secret is it that is to be so few scanty things into a little carpet bag, by |y kept ?" asked Mr. Frank Evans, coolly walk- upon them is, Never run into debt ! I repeat, ing into the midst of the discussion, with his dark hair tossed about by the wind, and his hazel brown eyes sparkling archly.

" Secret !" repeated Mrs. Eyans, energeti-Minnie is determined to leave us to-morrow." that involves risks, and must often give notes "I must, Frank; I have no right further to and other obligations, and I do not consider him And clustering round its tomb in strange array

"No right, eh ! Minnie do you know that the means of paying at some little sacrifice, all he owes ; I speak of real debt, that which inhe house has been a different one since you tion and dependence on the other, and I say, From all such, let every youth humbly pray ame into it? Do you suppose we want to Minnie smiled sadly, but her hand felt very God to preserve him evermore !" A Scotchman on Miracles.

"No." She shook her head determinedly. "Well, you may say what you please," said But more there are in sable garb who come "Then you must be made to stay," said Smith. " I for my part, cannot believe that God Frank. "I've missed something of great value would first impose laws on nature, and then go lately, and I hereby arrest you on suspicion of to violate his own laws. What would be use of making them if they are to be so readily Of disappointment on their pathway crowds,

"Missed something !" Minnie rose, turned set aside ?"

"I dinna ken sir," said uncle, very reverently, "what God may do, or what he winn "But I do suspect you. In fact I am quite do : but I don't regard a miracle to be ute the article is in your possession."

"My heart, Miss Minnie ! Now look here, o' God, that I ken o,' save the wicked actions Thy onward progress. Let me sing I love you, Minnie Harlan, and will be a good o' wicked men."

husband to you. Stay, and be my little wife." So Minnie Harlan, instead of going out as make a miracle to be ?" roverness, according to the programme, married the dark haired clerk in Ellison's Express an interference wi' the established course o' things, as infallibly shows us the presence and How enterprise with vital force They were quietly married early in the morn- the action o' a supernatural power. What Has laid the rail. The Iron Horse ing, and then Frank went calmly about his busi- o'clock is it wi' you, sir, if you please ?" ness in the wire cage under the circlet of gas-time," replied Smith.

rore quietly obeyed the behest of the grey- rit (a little forward.) But I may have a The future of "Dominion" state.

"Do you remember the young woman who by the railway; and so, ye see, I'm turning To thee, its best respects, this New Year's day was despatched from Millington, Iowa, two the hands o't around. Noo wad ye say that Nor mingle verse of unpretentious song

"Yes, sir, I remember." A tall, silver-haired gentleman here inter- couldna have done for itself, but as you see, I Which breaks Atlantic's waves and hears its Harrington. I have just returned from Paris telligence for a suitable end, and I have sus-Where all the arts of peace go hand in hand; where the news of her arrival reached me. I pended nae law, violated nae law. Well then, From the long boundary of the Eagles' power want her; she is the only living relative left instead o' the watch say the universe; instead To the rude rocks of barren Labrador, my young friends, avoid pecuniary obligations It was but is not ! swift, how swift alas The mile-stone life marks of our being pass. as you would pestilence and famine. If you Ended before the journey seems begun, have but 50 cents, and can get no more for a So fast the days, the months, successive run. week, buy a peck of corn, parch it, and live on It was but is not with all things that were, cally wiping her dim spectacle glasses; "Why, it, rather than owe any man a dollar! Of And solemn requiem falls upon the soul, course, I know that some men must do business The midnight cadence of the bells deep toil. The year how short. Yet was its narrow span Pregnant with vast results to earth and man :

> really in debt who can lay his hands directly on Some with glad music come; with dance and flowers. Come, to attest to the ecstatic hours. volves risk or sacrifice on the one side, obliga-Enjoyed since sixty-seven had its birth, > > Suit to the living-theirs the present day-Invoke its genius, and, with hope elate. Shout to the "advent hour" of '68.

With pallid cheek and lips to music dumb, With bursting hearts, the cypress branch they In Paris they've had a mighty big show, To which all the world, wives and babies did And write their record of the year " despair."

Tell o'er the story how the darkening clouds To witness arranged there, vast conglomeration The products and people of every nation : How gall and wormwood mingled with the hours The Turk, Swiss, and Greek, the Pole and the And sorrow withered all life's hope bright flowers. Russian.

But let that pass, 'tis mine to-day to invite The Historic muse to aid me while I write do; but I don't regard a miracle to be a vio-lation o' the laws o' nature. There's nae vio-Its motly tale of peace or war or glory. lation o' the laws o' nature, or rather the laws And first New Brunswick ! thee my verse Should not forget, but glad reherse Heard through the land the cherry ring "And what then," asked Smith, "do you Of Industry, and how uprear

Her triumphs. Proud her vessels bear The products of her torests, fields "I regard it," said uncle, to be merely such And mines, which varied treasure vields. To every sea. How factories gleam

In city full ; by rural stream. Joins with shrill strain our jubilee O'er triumphs gained. Prosperity

"It's half past twelve, exactly,-Greenwich Hangs on her banner-let us hope-And with a more expansive scope "Well, sir," said uncle, pulling a huge old Her sons with vigorous hope aflame, Will guide the Province on to fame, time piece from his pocket. "It's one o'clock And foremost her escutcheon bear "Frank, with his pen behind his ear as of wi'me, I generally keep my watch a bittie for- That she may largely, fully share The fruits that we all hope await > a special reason the noo for setting my watch The New Dominion ! shall my muse not pay With loftier pæns destined to prolong,

Thy present is propitious. From the shore have done violence to none o' its laws. My A rugged frontage, well defined to guard

Thy bounds extend. Within these boun

An artesian well, at the County Farm, near Fierce Theodore the dusky Chief. (I must make reference in brief) Of Abysinnia, thought, good wean, A drunken man in Pittsburg, Missouri, He'd like to marry England's Queen, And told her Minister, unto her, through the streets a few days ago, firing a pist To write the honor he would do her right and left into the houses. The Minister not much, in that light Brock, in Holland, is the cleanest city Seeing the matter, would not write. So with compatriots of his'n Was, by this Prince, thrown into prison-world. No horses or carriages are allowed to In a single ship row on the way to Liverpool

The Russian journals openly and even arderly embrace the cause of Italy.

The "hot" skate is the last invention.

More than eleven million people visite heat comes from a chemical arrangement in a recent prairie fire in Dacotah.

not open his wife's private letters.

railway catastrophe has become insane.

Paris Exhibition.

from San Francisco, is wheat of the value $107,638. In weight it is 2260 tons. The Rev. T. L. Cuyler's church (Presby terian). of Brooklyn. N. Y., has a membershi of eleven hundred and ten communicants. It the largest of Presbyterian churches.

Twenty-six post office carriers in Washington delivered one hundred and seventeen thousand letters, and thirty thousand papers, during the shall be entitled to all the privileges of Ameri-month of November.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says stock company is being formed in that city to go into the rather novel business of manufacturing ladies' rubber bussoms, under a new patent. A hundred sheep followed one overboard while crossing the river at Grand Haven, Mich., latefollow bad examples.

The farm of the Massachusetts Agricultural pay $6,000,000 to the Hadson Bay Company in College has produced this year 225 tons of hay, full discharge of all claims to territory or juris-700 bushels of oats, 900 of corn, 400 of potatoes, diction in North America, whether founded on and 500 bushels of turnips.

And, there, Persian girls, just fresh from th mated that during his stay in this country his as if sight of manhood would entire profits will reach $200,000. The Yankee was there with his curious notions

Lexington, Kentucky, contains a ladies' club, were smoking, knitting, billiards, crochet, cards, And columns of coal from blue-nose Nova Sco sewing machines and liquors are permitted, but man is excluded. Which greatly productive the native ore yields The counties of Missouri bordering on

And men will grow wiser, and better, no doubt Kansas line have lost over three hundred thousand dollars worth of property, by robbers, within Seeing what all the rest of the world is about : From becoming aware of the progress it's making six months. How science and art swift advancement are tak England has one murderer for 675,000 many, 100,000; Austria, 77,000; Spain, 4,000 zens and government of Montana Territory, so far as can be made applicable. And, thus seeing and learning, take heart from To strive in the race each to excell his brother, A family has passed through Oswego for Montreal, the father and mother darwn in a In all that contributes to goodness and worth, To the honor of man and the greatness of earth wagon by four sons. They left Detroit eight weeks ago.

God bless Great Britain, and bless Britain A fair somnambulist in Quincy, Ill, walked some distance in her sleep and her night dress, and snugly ensconced herself beside her intend-Long may she live the mistress of our hearts ed husband. There was great consternation The light that woman's virtue still imparts. when daylight revealed the situation, but a clergy man made it all right.

A man named Mainprise, sixty years of age That ignorant men should cling to this delusion a shoemaker for many years at Carraby, in Yorkshire, has just had a legacy of £66,000 left him by a cousin. who was a merchant in London, £200,000 having to be divided among three

A list has been opened at Quebec to secure ment will be given to treason. If brutal offer a reading by Dickens. Subscriptions are numer- against the law are not sternly repressed, no ous. Price of tickets one dollar and two dollars. Dickens writes to the Mayor of Halifax that he gested that the effect of the execution of the hopes to read there about the last of April. criminals will be to increase Irish disaffection The Dubuque Times tells of the discovery We maintain, on the other hand, that when it is

Resolved .- That the Co Relations be instructed to enquire into the ex-St. Louis, has reached a depth of twenty-seven pediency of a treaty between the United States hundred feet—half a mile. the following provisions :---

1. That the duties of five per cent. ad valorem shall be imposed on all importations from Canada, being the exclusive production or manufacture of Canada, to the United States, or from the Inited States to Canada, which shall be substiuted for existing tariffs of the respective coun-

2. That the excise duties of the United States and Canada shall be assimilated by concurrent

3. That the navigation of the great lakes canal and channel of the St. Lawrence shall be forever free to the citizens of the United State and Canada.

4. That Canadian vessels in American ports can vessels in Canadian ports. 5. That the fisheries of the Atlantic coast shall be free to citizens of both countries 6. That a common system of laws regulating copyrights, patent rights, and postage, shall be extended over both countries.

7. That Canada, with the consent of Great Britain, shall cede to the United States districts ly, and a dozen were drowned. Moral-Don't of North America west of longitude 90 degrees. on conditions to wit : 1. The United States will the charter of the company, or any treaty, law Dickens, report says, has realized $20,000 or usage. 2. The United States will assume the trom his four readings in Boston, and it is esti-public debt of British Columbia, not exceeding

$2.000.000. 3. To aid in the construction he Northern Pacific Railway from the western extremity of Lake Superior to Puget Sound the United States, in addition to the grant of land heretofore made, will guarantee dividend of five per cent. upon the stock of said cupons provided the amount of stock guaranteed as the aforesaid shall not exceed $20,000 per mile, and Congress shall regulate the securities for advance on account thereof. 4. The North-west territory shall be divided and organized into Territorie in- of the United States, not less than three in numhabitants ; Holland one for 163,000 ; North Ger- ber, with all the rights and privileges of the citi-

ENGLAND'S POLICY AND FENIANISM .- The Imperial Review records its opinion, that " there an be little doubt that execution of the con victs would have an important effect on Fenianism. It is to be feared that the only result enjency has been that clemency was mistaken for weakness and tear. It certainly is to the existence of an impression that the Governmen is in terror of the secret organisation of the Fenians that recent outrages are to be traced are alleged for its commission, direct encourage security for order remains to society. It is su

I have violated the laws o' a watch? True, I And tell its fame, to people yet to be, have done what watchdom wi' a' its laws With patriot fervor warmed to prophesy

"Where is she? I am her uncle, Walter action is only the interference o' a superior in- A land where vigorous men keep watch and ward, sees and had weine FSTEY, PROPRIETOR. OS KING STREET, ST. JOHN, N.B. thering fred the fare which Ile good Stabling on the premises.

10 Be Bronhen, July TO, 1867. al M ain tourtencost o

MAIN STREET, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Woodstock, Aug 22, 1867-34

"I can get work." "Hardly." Frank Evans could scarcely help smiling at poor Minnie's simplicity. "Miss Harlan said Frank, quietly "my

"How late you are, Frank. Here, give me the tiger that prowls upon his path, but he can kind of degree, to the spirit of persecution.- Its lofty towers pierce the clear blue sky; your overcoat-it is all powdered with snow, scarcely escape the musquitoes that infest the If you cannot reason or persuade a man into Below its castelated turrets lie,

But Frank interrupted his bustling, eherry earth he treads.

But Frank Interrupted ins bushing, cut, y L CABLE LOUSE, and purpercrything inconnection therewith in complete order, would respectfully which a cau from this fraveling public and his friendr. No pains will be spired to make this Honse all that A large fivery stable in connection from which the pages for Grank Tails and Fredericton leave reg-ularly W.D. BALLOCH. But Frank Interrupted ins bushing, cut, y cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take off his outer wrappings. the space for Grank Tails and Fredericton from which w.D. BALLOCH. But Frank Interrupted ins bushing, cut, y cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take off his outer wrappings. the space for Grank Tails and Fredericton from which w.D. BALLOCH. But Frank Interrupted ins bushing, cut, y cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take off his outer wrappings. the space for Grank Tails and Fredericton from which w.D. BALLOCH. But Frank Interrupted ins bushing, cut, y cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take off his outer wrappings. the space for Grank Tails and Fredericton from which w.D. BALLOCH. Cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take off his outer wrappings. the space for Grank Tails and Fredericton from which w.D. BALLOCH. Cheeked mother as she stood on tip-toe to take the space for the space fo " Excuse me, madame, but I would like

"Yes mother, expressed on from Iowa to old was the reply.

o' moving the hands, say God acting worthily The vital germs of great prosperity. "Ah! but sir," said Frank, "you can't o' himsel', and we hae a' that I contend for in Prolific uplands thine; and fertile plains; a miracle ; that is the unquestionable presence

"Yes, sir, something has happened—Miss hinder him? He has done it oftener than once The affluent fruits of industry will rise, not get leave to do it again ?"

rest, as long as our physical condition remains Proud to receive, heroic to maintain, hardest thing in the world to do nothing." The To make within thy wilds, America, true object of rest is recuperation, and that is But where reposing they and their's might best brought about as to the body, by exercising Free as thy winds and as thy water's free; a different set of muscles; and as to the brain, Industrious, frugal, valiant, heart and hand, To guard the interests of this cherished land, by calling into requisition a different set of or- And 'neath the ægis of Britania's sway gans or powers, causing the mind to act upon Preserve her glory to the latest day. new objects.

"Then you must both of you come and be FORGETFULNESS.—A very great deal of harm Worthy the mightiest poets pen I deem my children," said the old man, doggedly. is done through forgetfulness. A little thought- The varied graces which in them excel, And you must come now, for the great house fulness and care with respect to others would Tall how in all the path of means that dwell; often save them from a great deal of suffering Of maid or matron, woman or of wife,

Frank Evans is no longer an express clerk, and aid them in their work. A man is dis- Our own dear women their relations bear, and pretty Minnie moves in velvet and dia- couraged in consequence of the difficulties he And proudly with the best of womankind monds; but they were in the old days, and meets with. An encouraging word may be all that is saying enough. Uncle Walter Harring- that is necessary to revive his energies, and to ton grows older and feebler every day, and his cause him to persevere. That word were easily two children are the sunshine of his declining spoken. There are those who are perfectly willing to speak it, but they do not think of Inter- and the part of the cided vice. These evils are apparently of very joy the full and free liberty of thinking for And proud in glowing numbers will be sung traveller can combine his force, and hunt down self to God. Abhor every approach, in any For use of the Dominion Parliament.

scarcely escape the musquitoes that intest the 11 you cannot reason or persuade a man into air he breathes, or the fleas that swarm the the truth, never attempt to force him into it. Shimmering in brightness to the wondering eye Through its stained glass a mellowed lustre falls If love will not compel him to come, leave him 'Mid the high columns of its senate halls,

PLAIN TRUTH -- Every man has in his own The wisdom of four Provinces is found, life follies enough; in his own mind troubles The veteran Howe, MacDonald the profound;

to know why you look at me so savagely! said a gentleman to a lady stranger. "Oh, beg pardon sir; I took you for my husband," were the reply -without minding other people's business.

Streams swarm with fish ; shores rich in golden grains; "Can't have her? What do you mean? of an almighty hand working the divine will. Woods, where now brouse the moose and cariboo, And if he sees fit to work miracles, what can Invite the woodman's toil, the axeman's blow. or twice already ; and who daur say that he'll And generous harvests wait on healthful toil And peace and plenty wave above the soil; While genius, learning, and religion stand

Dr. Hall assails the idea that men rest by To sanctify and bless the happy land, Thy sons, a hardy race and virtuous, be doing nothing. He says the only healthful Worthy their sires, and like their sires free as it is, is to be busy. Men of force and in-Their birth right liberties without a stain, That blest inheritance their father's gave, dustry will everywhere tell you, "It is the Those noble men who crossed the ocean's wave

Thy daughters ! would that all poetic fire Would dwell within my breast, my pen inspire more.

And I would sing the city of the day, The city of "our Cæsar's," Ottawa; Though, I confess I cannot see The wisdom of Her Majesty, In making this the site;

Unless, out of temptation's way, Our legislators might not stray

Where, met in solemn conclave to debate. The varied interests of the new born state.

They work their mischief, still inspired By foreign foes to England ; fired With an undying bitter hate. But now the welfare of the State Demands that England should restrain Their acts, and law and peace maintain Aroused, full soon, I hope, she'll purge Her land of this polluting scourge-By firmness, wisely used, impart New faith unto the public heart ; Redressing wrongs, maintaining right, Still first in prudence as in might. God grant her ministers may guide The ship into more prosperous tide. What wrongs that Ireland long has grieved Oh, may these wrongs be quick relieved. That Erin's shamrock, pure and green, Amid the wreath that decks our Queen, May with new lustre flourish there With rose and thistle fresh and fair ; That Ireland, as she has been sung, may be, First Isle of the ocean, first gem of the sea !

Our neighbor who "keeps a shop over the way, With the sign " Brother Jonathan " over th

Is manfully striving his war debts to pay; Adding State unto State and still grasping for > Just now, from the Danes, he has purchased St Thomas. ToRussia for icebergs he some millions did pay,

And if we're not sharp it is thought he'll take from us, The district of country around Hudson's Bay.

But our statesmen have on our Cousin their even And won't let him gull us as he has before, Nor break in on our fine stretch of country that

Extending from Fundy to the Pacific shore. What of Woodstock and Carleton shall I in m

Say, but that they're manfully pushing along, To keep pace with their neighbors in doing and

In town or in country, in forest or clearing; Fighting back the thick woods, raising churches and schools. That here may be claimed that intelligence rule

So that while broader acres may yield them rich

Religion and order keep pace, still repressing The outcrop of vice. Of the railroad completee

By its means where you will-that I justly may

All praise to the men who stand proudly to day Deserving the thanks of all men who would see Our County advancing in swift prosperity.

And in no better service can I end my song.

seen that are "chock full " of valuable minerals. Mr. with stern resolution, those who are halting Kelly, their owner, refuses $150,000 for his wind- their allegiance will recoil from turther com city with treason. And we hold that all con

The last Fenian canard is to the effect that the Fenians intended to seize Queen Victoria when visiting the Consorts tomb, and to ship her for Abyssinia where she was to be married to King Theodore by force. What next. A MINE OF UNTOLD WEALTH .-- We are in

It is reported by a western paper that an agent of a farmers' club in England is negotiating for 10,000 acres of land in Illinois on which 300 liam is capable of producing silver ore to the va-European families will immediately settle, in- lue of $10,000 per day, and that the antimony cluding many celebrated grape-growers from the extracted from the ore is sufficiently valuable to cluding many celebrated grape-growers from the Rhine. Ten thousand more emigrants arrived at Castle Garden, New York, up to the 11th ult., than during the same period last year. The total number was 235,411. The effect on the demo-eratic majority in New York city is easy to be foreseen. owner of a mill in Charlo'te County, in connec

The late robbery in New York recalls a Wall tion with Mr. Prescott. They realized it is said street incident, illustrating the careless way in by the business and sale of the mill some $100, which the precious metals are handled, and the 000 each. So that Mr. Lawrence is quite rich good nature of a crowd. Not long ago a bag of enough without his silver mine. A Mr. Andergold borne on the shoulders of a youngster burst near the corner of Wall and William streets with him in mining operations. This report of when a ring was formed and no individual ex- exhaustless wealth so near at home seems too cept the youngster himself was permitted to good to be true, but a friend in the city, to whom touch the coin until every piece of it was pick- we are indebted for the information, thinks it is , ed up. A correspondent of the Syracuse Journal gives a sketch of Cheyenne, the new Pacific Railway city, which has just sprung into existence at the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains. He richest country in mineral wealth of its size in yes at the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains. He says: "The first settler in Cheyenne arrived on the 22nd of July last. At that time there was but one stick of timber in the region, and the place was desolate enough to discourage any man. But witness the change. On the 8th of September its city government was organized, and it has to-day a good hotel—while another and larger one is being built—town hall, a large store, warehouse, five livery and feed stables, a splendid restaurant, where the delicacies of the season are served, deer, speckled trout, buffalo, antelopes, etc. It has many respectable and pers antelopes, etc. It has many respectable and per-manent buildings, and what is worth a great deal, an enterprising population of nearly 5,000." According to the United States Postmaster General's Report, not less than a million letters war is among the probabilities of the immediate

The outcrop of vice. Of the railroad completed To Woodstock, I hoped in this verse to have treated. But it is so near done—about half mile or so Of the rails to be laid, and then you may go y at least two and a half million of mistakes were made in an operation which one would think light as a drum. A family of rats had installed the writer, themselves in it, and nothing but a mere shell

cuted Fenians.

were mailed last year without signatures, and future. misdirected, or so badly directed that the address the addressing of a letter. These letters con- remained. tained nearly $150,000 in money, bills of ex-

Give them praise then I say, praise them loudly change, deeds, checks, &c., to the value of $5,-and long, 000,000, and over 40,000 contained photographs, sent £300 to Larkin's family, one of the exejewelry, &c.

to God, the judge of all .- John Wesley.

