GEORGE PEABODY. - The Newburyport Herald speaking of George Peabody, says:—
It is rather uncommon in this day for persons to render invoices of their taxable propertv. The assessors advertise for them, but since is understood that they will not doom anybody, no notice is taken thereof; and probably not a half dozen a year are rendered in Newburyport. Formerly it was not so; and on looking back to 1814, we find the following HAS COMMENCED SELLING OFF Stoves Repaired at the New Foundry. from George Peabody, the celebrated London banker, whose wealth and generosity are known

A distinguished Queen's Council, in addressing the Court of Queen's Bench in reference to this work, ebserved—"This is an extremely valuable book, written by an eminent and experienced medical man, upon one of the most important and interesting subjects of life, which every one, married or single, ought to be acquainted with." It points out how all the attributes of Manhood can be preserved to an advanced period of life, how they are lost, and how they can be recovered.

Dr. LA'MERT, Dostor of Medicine of the University of Etlangen, Licentiate of the Royal Society of Apothecaries of Lendon, Honorary Member of lie London Hospital Medical Society, &c., is the only regularly qualified practitioner, who, for 25 years, has devoted his entire attention to the cure of these disorders, which imperil the very fountain of life, health and viger, but which owing to the great discoveries of modern science are rendered subserviant to a rabional, simple and easy mode of treatment.

an analysis of RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

"The Faculty of the College state in their report that after a careful and minute examination they have the honor to state that "the pills are not only free from every substance injurious to health, but are composed wholly of substances and elements promotive of digestion, and certain at the same time to stances and elements promotive of digestion, and certain at the same time to Wharfing and Shipping all kinds of Lambs act favorably upon the nervous system, &c. They state, further, that the injur-ious rumors set affoat by the Prussian apothecaries originated "in a mean spirit Consignments solicited. of trade jealousy, excited by the great celebrity attained by the Pills within a very brief period." Signed on behalf of the College, DR. PHIL. THEOBALD WERNER.

Director of the Polytechnic Bureau. Indigestion. In cases where natural evaguations are difficult to secure, and a quick discharge is essential, take six of Radway's Pills and pulverize them,—take the pill powder in water or preserves,—in half an hour they will operate. We have known the most distressing pains of Gastritis, Bilious Cholic, Inflammation, Congestion, &c., stopped, and the retained irritating humors expelled from the bowels in thirty minutes by this treatment. It is, however, better in chronic cases to take the pills as they are, and let them gradually dissolve in the stomach. These Pills possess in the highest degree cathartic, aperient, tonic, and dispharetic properties. They do not weaken or debilitate the system or any of its organs, and will leave the bowels regular and healthy. They purify and clocks, Watches, Jewellery, Silver and Plated Ware, equalize the circulation of the blood. No congestion or inflammation will occur while the system ness. Watches, Clocks and Jewellery neetly and is under their influence. Price 25 cents per box, or 5 boxes for one dollar.
