

Wool and Rolls.

The subscriber takes this opportunity to inform his customers that the water has lowered sufficient to allow his two Carding Machines to operate, and the Spinners say the Cards make the best Rolls they ever spun. Persons who have Wool to Card will find it to their advantage to try my Cards before going elsewhere.

Something Worth Knowing.

BY calling at the WOODSTOCK MILLS, situated on the South side of the Maduxnakik River, and near the Railroad Depot, in Woodstock, Farmers can hear of, and see something to their advantage. The subscriber takes this opportunity of thanking the public for their liberal patronage during the past year, and he hopes by strict attention to his business during this year, to double the number of his customers.

He has two

Double Carding Machines

in the best order for making good rolls and he feels confident that when the wool is in reasonably good condition, he can satisfy his customers with good rolls. All the women who spin rolls know that new cards, well ground, and kept in good order, will make good rolls and smooth yarn.

Try my Machines

before going to any other, and I know you will be satisfied. The prices of carding as formerly. White wool three cents per lb. Mixed wool four cents per lb. Oiling two cents per lb.

Persons who wish to furnish grease for their own wool can do so, one pound to seven is the amount required.

The subscriber will keep constantly on hand, oil that will not stain the wool.

GRAIN WILL BE GROUND

in the best manner, and

at former prices. He will be responsible for all grain, Wool and Cloth left in his charge, when booked in the owner's name, except losses by fire and water, for such losses he will not be responsible.

Persons forwarding Wool, Cloth or Grain, to this establishment from a distance, by Steamer or Rail will have their orders promptly attended to. Please show this notice to your neighbors so as they will know where they are certain of having good work done for a reasonable amount of money. Terms cash on delivery.
