Miscellancous.

POOR MEN'S DINNERS .- The city of Glasgow. says the London Herald, is favoured with the famous "cooking depots" managed by Mr. Corbett. At meal times the men swarm into these depots by hundreds. First of all comes soup or broth, exceedingly good. The second course is a plate of meat or "collops," the latter a favorite Scotch dish. With this the dinner has either slices of bread or potatoes enough to satisfy him under ordinary circumstances for two days. If content with a "four-DRESS and MANTLE SILKS; Mantles, Velvets, penny' the meal would now be at an end, but tlemens and Cloths; Kid Gloves, in Ladies, Gentlemeny, the meal would now be at an end, but tlemens and Childrens; Dress Buttons and Trimmings. the" fivepenny 'includes" dessert' in the shape Laces and Muslin Ties, Collars and Setts; Lawn, Grass of a slice of plumpudding or rice pudding, with and Cambric Handkerchiefs; White Embroidered and milk and sugar. No intoxicating drinks are to Twilled Under Skirts; Sewed Trimmings, Infants' be had on the premises, but water is furnished Waists, &c.; Laces, Hair Netts and Smallwares; ad libitum, and ginger beer and lemonade can be purchased at a penny a bottle For break-fast, porridge can be had at a penny, and at good allowence of milk for a half penny. Some have "two goes," and so expend three-pence on their breakfast. Porridge, milk, coffee, and bread and butter, can all be indulged in for the total charge of three-pence halfpenny.

"Have you ground the tools all right, as I told you this morning when I went away? said a carpenter to a lad whom he had taken as an apprentice. "All but the handsaw, sir," the gaps out of that."
