with the gloss and freshness of youth. This hair is thickfalling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by it use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of feuling the hair with a pasty sedimen', it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Dear Sir:—Last Thursday week one of my children was severely scalded by falling into a pot of boiling pickle, so that the skin came off. It was attended immediately by the best Physician we could get. The fourth day the pulse stopped on the burnt side, and every symptom of separation had taken place. At 10 o'clock, Sunday, we dressed it with your Indian Herb Ointment, and in a few hours the pulse returned to its natural position and continued to improve. This is the 8th day since we commenced to use your Ointthis invaluable Ointment on hand for immediate use.
