BY DEXTER SMITH

No more to gather its thorns with its flowers, No more to linger where sunbeams must fade. Where on all beauty, death's fingers are laid Weary with mingling life's bitter and sweet, Weary with parting and never to meet, Some one has gone to the bright, golden score Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door! Ring the bell softly—there's crape on the door

Some one is resting from sorrow and sin, Happy where earth's conflicts enter not in; Jovous as birds, when the morning is bright, When the sweet sunbeams have brought us their Weary with sowing and never to reap, Weary with labor, and welcoming sleep. Some one's departed to Heaven's bright shore
