THE TWO-HEADED GIRL .- For some the past what purported to be a two-headed girl has been on exhibition in Montreal. Doubts, how. ever, existed as to whether the Montrealers were not being honored in the matter by some cunning device after the manner of Barnum. But the following from the Montreal Gazette indi-cates that no deception is being practiced in the

" On Wednesday afternoon several prominent medical gentlemen made a thorough examina-tion of the wonderful two-headed girl. The report of these gentlemen is that the pamphlets containing medical certificates contain the truth.

This therefore is an assurance that there is no sell whatever in the affair, but that the twoheaded girl is one of the wonders of the age .-
