Governor General, with the folllowing Hon, Gentlemen of the Senate: 10 00 Gentlemen of the House of Commons: The time has come when I am able to release you from your labours, and I have the greater pleasure in doing so in as much as the session, of 8 00 which the opening was delayed for the reasons you are cognizant of, has necessarily been pro-

Ayer's Hair Vigor

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable. healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed. or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Across yon river's shining waves,
I've watched the golden light,
That slumbers on the purple hills,
And on the mountain's height. Full well I know, beyond those hills, A fairer city lies— With towers, minarets and walls— Than ever met mine eyes. My thoughts would sometimes linger there, For, on that other side, Dwell many friends who long ago Had crossed the swelling tide. But now I feel an interest there

I never felt before, For all that made life beautiful Is on that heavenly shore. The jeweled links, that bound me here Have fallen one by one; And now the chain is worthless quite, The previous clasp is gone.

Fain would I climb the distant hills Which hide that city fair, For all my treasure, all my hope, And all my heart is there.

MONTREAL, CANADA. THE "NEW ALBION HOTEL," the largest Hotel I in Montreal, has just been opened under the most favorable auspices.
Whilst the "Old Albion" has been long noted fer the strict attention paid to its numerous guests, tho · New Albion' takes its position as a first class Hotel, and is really, first class in every respect, except the charges, which better suit the ideas and requirements of the majority of travellers, than many of the so called, "first class Houses;" which deserve the title more through the amount of their charges than aught

Already the crowded state of the "New Albion" promises well for its future career; every thing associated with its construction has been carried out with artistic taste and systematic correctness. The large Hall, commodious office, spacious Reading room, convenient Dining, Coffee, Wash Room, etc., form no small luxury during the hot summer season.

And, what is an exception to the general Rule in Hotels, the Bedrooms are all well ventilated and lighted, there not being a dark room in the House.
