THE OLD-FASHIONED MOTHER.—The oldshioned mother !- one in all the world, the law of whose life was love; one who was the divinity of our infancy, and the sacred presence n the shrine of our first earthly idolatry; one whose heart is far below the frosts that gather so thickly on her brow; one to whom we never grow old but in the plumed troop, or the grave council, are children still; one who welcomed us going, and never forgets us—never. And DAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY Mornings, at 8 when in some closet, some drawer, some corner, she finds a garment, or a toy that once was eurs, how does she weep as she thinks we may be suffering or sad. Does the battle of life and Railroad Wharf, Portland, same days, for Eastdrive the wanderer to the old homestead. Her port and St. John, until further notice. hand is upon his shoulder; her dim and fading eyes are kindled with something of " the light of other days," as she gazes upon his worn and troubled face. "Be of stout heart my son! No harm can reach you here," But sometimes that armchair is set back against the wall, the chair is vacant, or another's, and they seek the dear old occupant in the graveyard. Grant you never have! Pray God, I never may! FAILURE. - The man who never failed is a myth. Such an one never lived, and is never likely to. All success is a series of efforts, in less failures. The mountain is apt to overshadow the hill, but the hill is in reality nevertheless. If the hill, but the hill is in reality nevertheless. If you fail now and then, don't be discouaged. Bear in mind it is only the part and experience of every successful man; and the most successful men often have the most failures.

We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them.

every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity. They operate by their powerful influence on the atternal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action — remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derange-ments as are the first origin of disease. Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—
For Hyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessmess, Languer and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomshould be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysontery or Diarrhopa, but one mild

For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists.
One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the diges-

SCOURING THE INSIDES.

Persons who take Pills for the purpose of getting "a good scouring out" are perhaps not aware that they are wearing away their intestines, irritating the Mucous Membrane, and laying the foundation for Piles, inward Ulcers, Sores, &c. Mandrake, that is claimed by some to be a substitute for Mercury, will produce this effect; it will scour the bowels like any other drastic, and will wear them out (see page 666, Wood & Baches, U. S. Pharmacopia). Mandrake, as a constituent of a purgative pill, for general or continued use is hurful, and its introduction into a pill secures no new principle. Mandrake is inferior to the same drastic principle, in the officinal aloctic pill of the dispensatory; so there is nothing new in the second although its principal advocate of the common and substances of the common and such standards and substances of the common and such states of the order of the nock astor, the Noes, Mouth, Throat, Eyes, Ears, Legs, &c.
