Mr. Editor,-The York County Ledge of British Templars, met yesterday, the 29th inst., at lake George. The large attendance of members and the interest manifested, shows that Templarism is gaining ground rapidly in this County. The meeting was—very properly I think—declared the most interesting one that has ever taken place in the County. The Meeting House at Lake George was scarcely large enough to contain the members and visitors-making use of eries and all-and have comfortable room to carry on the business of the Lodge. The day was fine.
