But still persists in living on-

I never loved a tree or flower;

But if I had, I beg to say,

And yet he will go living on-

A theme but rich in fear :

A spectre not within the door,

An exile lingering here.

A household shadow evermore,

A desert void of peace;

Of scornful lips, whose mocking sneers,

Where sleeps that promise now?

Naught lingers to redeem those hours,

The flowers that bloomed in sunny bowers
