Feel soft as downy pillows are, While on His breast I lean my head And breathe my life out freely there. Mother, sadly thou art weeping, O'er thy lov'd and lonely one;

She in Jesus calmly sleeping, Has you blissful mansion won. Loving Father, sorrow darting, Widely pierced thy fond heart through; It would have been a better parting, Had not Heaven been full in view

Sisters, mourning one bereft you, Now your hearts are desolate; She has only sooner left you For a holier, happier place.

Brothers, you shall miss the music Of the voice you lov'd so well, As its tones of gentle soothing, On your ears like magic fell. Midst the throng that sings redemption In the blissful courts above. Ye who mourn her, there shall meet her,
