DOCTOR SMITH

Has Removed his Drug Shop QUINN'S NEW BUILDING, MAIN STREET,

SAMUEL WATTS, Editor.

Business Gards.

WOODSTOCK HOTEL

Re-Opened.

BEING thoroughly repaired, refitted, and furnished, is now opened for the accommodation of permanent and transient Boarders. This House being condected on strictly TEMPERANCE PRINCIPLES,

SPARK STREET,

OTTAWA.

PARK HOTEL,

KING SQUARE ST. JOHN.

This House is new, is pleasantly situated, fur-ished in a superior manner, and will be kept as

WILLIAM R. NEWCOMB.

STAGE HOUSE-TOBIQUE

Thos. G. Bourne,

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANT,

FLOUR, BUTTER, FISH

FISH OILS, &c.

20 North Wharf, St. John, N. B.

PIANO-FORTE WAREROOMS

Sheffield House.

SPECIAL NOTICE

We now offer a large Stock of Pianofortes from the

A. LAURILLIARD,

Hallett. Davis & Co..

IMPORTER OF MARBLE.

AND MANUFACTURER OF

GRAVE STONES, &C.,

CUTED IN ALL ITS BRANCHES. Place of business,-

MAIN STREET,

WOODSTOCK, N. B. Orders filled at the shortest notice and cheapest

Comfortable Extras Furnished at the shortest

J. A. GOUIN, Proprietor.

II. FAIRWEATHER,

Proprietor.

Woodstock, May 13, 1870 .- 20

March 18, 1868-13.

tice for any pein

on application. St. John, Des 6, 1862-6m-50 and other Celebrated makers.

the assortment now opened.

manufactories of

VOL. XXII.—NO. 29.

Two doors South of B. Lynch's New Store, WHERE his stock of DRUGS, PATENT MEDI CINES, HORSE MEDICINES, STATIONERY, BOOKS, and FANCY GOODS, will be found equal in quality and as low in price as any in the market.
Woodstock, Feb 5, 1869

Dr. C. P Connell, WOODSTOCK, N. B. Office-In Brick Building, near the Hay Scales. -Residence at Hon. Charles Connell's.

STEPHEN SMITH, M. D. Physician, Surgeon, and Accoucheur. Has removed his residence, to his new Building, two doors north of the Episcopal Church, Main Street. OFFICE-In Quinn's New Building, Main Street. Woodstock, April 29 1865.

N. R. COLTER, M. D., (L. R. C. P. L., ENGLAND,) Office and Residence, - - GIBSON HOUSE DR. COLTER has held public appointments in Medicine and Surgery at St. Thomas' Hospital. London. Consultation as above.

Woodstock, Feb. 7, 1868—3m-pd-7

Dr. REYNOLDS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, CENTRAL OFFICE:

SPPER CORNER. - - WOODSTOCK. RESIDENCE-Mr. Archibald Plummer's, Jack

WILLIAM M. CONNELL ATTORNEY at LAW, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCEL NOTARY PUBLIC, INSURANCE AGENT, &c. WOODSTOCK, .N I

STEPHEN B. APPLEBY. Attorney at Law.

OFFICE -In Allen's Brick Building, (up stairs). WOODSTOCK, N. B

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Solicitor, Conveyancer, &c. ANDOVER, Victoria County., - N, B.

(Month of Tobique River.) RESIDENCE - At Newcomb's Hotel

James Edgar, BARRISTER.

CONVEYANCER, &c.

SHERMAN & ROBINSON. (Successors to Rowe & Sherman,) LUMBER

L. W. SHERMAN, B. Fredericton, H. F. ROBIN: ON,

HUGH DAVIS. JR., lock, Birch and Ash Lumber. Bills of Scantling Sawed to Order

CLAPBOARDS SAWED BY THE THOUSAND, AND FOR SALE. Mills and Lumber Yard AT THE RAILROAD STATION Woodstock, N. B., 1870-1y-7.

CABLE HOUSE.

Main Street, Woodstock, N. B. TOHAT well known FIRST-CLASS HOTEL, the "Cable House," has been lessed by the subscri ber, who will still keep up the reputation gained by the former proprietors. He hopes, by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of the patronage

Woodstock, Oct 4. 1869-1 DONALDSON HOUSE. Late Caldwell or International Hotel.

MHIS HOUSE is New, pleasantly situated. near the Steamboat Wharf, furnished in Good Style and will be kept as a First-Class Hotel.

ROBERT DONALDSON, - - Proprietor. Woodstock. N. B., April 1870-15 RAM SMITH

MANUFACTURER OF Buggies, Waggons and Sleighs. ALL MANNER OF

REPAIRING: Painting, Trimming and Blacksmith Work Promptly attended to.

Jacksonville, April 15, 1870 .- 16. Home Division, No 206, S. of T. Meets every Saturday Evening, IN BEVERIDGE'S HALL Tobique, Victoria County.

GIBSON HOUSE, OPEN FORTRAVELLERS. QUEEN STREET, WOODSTOCK. ALEX. GIBSON, Proprietor.

LONG'S HOTEL FREDERICTON, N. B. THOS. W. SMITH, Proprietor.

First Class Accommodation for TRANSIENT & PERMANENT BOARDERS

AT REASONABLE PRICES. Good Stabling, and a Careful Hostler always in atten-Fredericton, July 2, 1868-27.

UNITED STATES HOTEL. PORTLAND, Me., E. CRAM & CO.. Proprietors.

C. F. ESTEY, PROPRIETOR. 39 KING STREET, ST. JOHN, N.B

Good Stabling on the premiser.

SAMUEL J. BAKER,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, SOLICITOR-

OFFICE.—Brown's Brick Building, opposite the Cable House. Woodstock, N. B. January 27, 1870-5

Commission Merchants,

GENERAL FORWARDING AG'TS

ed in this place by the subscriber, as an Pine, Spruce, Butternut, Bass, Hem

MONUMENTS, TOMB TABLES Centre, Pier Tables & Mantles, FREE STONE AND GRANITE CUTTING EXEpossible rates. Patronage respectfully solicited and satisfaction guaranteed. Woodstock, Aug. 20, 1868. 34. SHERATON, SON, & SKINNER, 82 & 84 PRINCE WILLIAM STREET.

Open for Travellers at all hours day and night.

COLIN CAMPBELL Flock, Flock Beds, Matresses, Bolsters, and Pillows, Hives, TMPORTERS of Iron Bedsteads, Chair Beds, Iron Ast and most economical that can be made, being comfor- and eradicates PAIN and HUMOR. table, elastic and durable. Just received per Alhambra—seven cases of Iron Bedsteads, Cots and Cribs in great variety of new and beautiful patterns. Wholesale buyers liberally dealt with.

Price lists forwarded on application. st john dec 1.

Female Department.

The Principal has made arrangements for the Es-tablishment of a Female Department in the School.— In it will be employed a competent female assistant, whose attention will be particularly directed to the primary, and to Music, Drawing, and the other ranches usually taught in a Young Ladies' Seminary. The Principal will have control and superintendant of this department, and the members of it will have the full advantage of participating in the study of any and every branch taught in the School, including the Latin, Greek and French Languages; and an opportunity will thus be given to those desiring to qualify themselves for teachers in Parish and other Having removed to a large and airy building, the Principal is now prepared to offer convenient oppor-tunities for b arding to a few additional young men per St. John of the who may be desirous of preparing themselves to attend the University or Training School, or of fitting themselves for mercantile or other pursuits.

Any surther information desired can be obtained from the undersigned, JAMES McCOY, Principal. Woodstock, August 18, 1869-tf-34 Fire Insurance Companies

Capital and Cash Assets. - $17,000.000 Deposited at Ottawa, - - - -

ROBERT MARSHALL. General Agent for New Brunswick. IMPERIAL," of London, 'HOME," of New Haven, ÆTNA," of Hartford, Woodstock, July, 1869. Kerosene Oil!

fineries in Ontario, and will be prepared to supply parties in the Trade with thoroughly Deodorized WHITE OIL.

IN STOCK AND TO ARRIVE, 100 BARRELS EXTRA WHITE OIL warranted equal in quality and odor to any imported. A. W. MASTERS & CO., 5, North Wherf, St. John, N B

Carleton Sentinel,

Our Queen and Constitution.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1870.

Poetry.

The bronzed and stalwart pioneers.

Are civilizers, and the peers

Of men who lift the laureled brow

The solitudes where forests bow

Before their wand; and future years

The listening leaves of forest old,

Shall see their star unclouded grow.

The echo of their labor cheers.

The music of their labor thrills

COMMISSION MERCHANT OUR CIVILIZERS FORWARDING AGENT, BY GEORGE W. BUNGAY.

MAIN STREET, WOODSTOCK. CONSIGNMENTS SOLICITED. Page Brothers,

W. SKILLEN,

he subscriber hopes to receive a liberal share of pat-41 King Street. ronage. There is attached to this House a Good Stable and attentive hostler. Charges moderate. FUST RECEIVED .- A lot of Fairchild's Gold Pens and Magie Pencils, in Rubber, Ivory and Gold MARSHALL, - - Proprietor. ALSO-A few nice Masenic and Odd Fellows Breast RUSSELL HOUSE,

A FIRST CLASS HAIR DRESSING, SHAVING AND PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, SHAMPOOING SALOON! NOW OPEN.

THE subscriber would return thanks to his friends and the public for the patronage hitherto bestowd. since commencing business in Woodstrck; he would ikewise ask a continuance of such favors, as he is now prepared with enlarged experience and greatly in-greased facilities, to attend to the various branches of his business, as Hair Cutting, Shaving, Shampooing, and Hair Dyeing. Ladles' Hair cut in the latest style. Particular care given to Cutting Children's Hair.

Razors carefully set.
Shop on Corner Main and King Streets.
GEORGE STAPLES

See Here! See Here!! THE SUBSCRIBER having had a long experience in the business, has opened a TIN SHOP, e he will be pleased to see and supply customers ving on hand at all times, all kinds of work in TIN AND SHEET IRON. He cannot fail to give satisfaction Cotton Rags, Wool, Pewte and Copper, taken for SHOP next door to P. McCaffery's, Esq's., Office, and opposite "Sentinel" Office. C. B. CHURCHILL Woodsteck Oct. 15 1868-tf-42.

REMOVAL!

Is prepared to receive Consignments of all kinds of COUNTRY PRODUCE, realizing the highest market rates, and making immediate Cash returns. est market rates, and making immediate Cash returns.
Farmers and others having Produce to dispose of, will find this by far the cheapest and best way of effecting sales. The st. Andrews and St. Stephen Packets land close to the store, keeping up a connection through the winter, and saving much expense for cartage. Correspondence invited, and every in-MHB subscriber has removed his Large Stock mation as to price, state of markets, etc., furnished Harness, Upper and Sole Leather, Harness Mountings, Oils &c. Give us a call and see for yourselves. Term; Cash Parties indebted by Note or Book account of one year and upwards, will do well to call and arrange, or fear forbearance will cease to be virtue.

WILLIAM LINDSAY. HE PIANOFORTE WAREROOMS, of the Sheffield Market Square, Woodstock, July 21, 1869—36 JEWELRY STORE

REMOVAL!

Persons in want of a good Piano, at a reasonable price are respectfully requested to call and examine Woodstock Marble Works | ay. They have now on hand a carefully selected took of HE business heretofore carried on by the firm of HARVEY & ALMOND, will in future be conduct-

And a good variety of all such articles as are usually ed or single, about any of their affairs. Pretty All goods warranted to be as represented. Please call and examine our Goods before sending your orders abroad; you will find us attentive and obliging.
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry repaired as usual.
Remember the sign of the BIG WATCH. Woodstock, August 25, 1869-16-35

The best remedy in use for the following com Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Spinal Complain Felon or Whitlow, Abscess, Broken Breasts. Salt Rheum, Sprains, Frest Bites, Influenza, Cots and Cribs, Respectfully invite the attention Colds, Earache, &c. &c. It is equally efficacious on Horses and Cattle.

PREPARED BY T. GRAHAM & SON.,

PRICE 25 cents. Sold by Druggistsgenerally. FIRST PRIZE For Donestie Manuacture of Carleton Co. Grammar School. TRUNKS, VALICES. CARPET BAGS, ETC. ETC., ged me, when I got excited and rather flus-

W. H. Knowles. 49 Germain street WHOLESALE and Retail dealers in Ladies' and Gents Trunks, Saratoga, Eugenie, California and Sole leather Trunks, Common Dress and Children's Trunks. Together with Ladies' Bonnet Trunks, valices of all kinds, pelicer Bags, Carpet Bags, letter carriers, hat Zinc Trunks, and all kings of Trunks, Valices Carpet bags, Canvass Covering, &c. made to order, and

Repairs neatly done. Union Trunk Depot, St. John, N. B. Fire and Life Insuance Agency NORTH BRITISH & MERCANTILE INSURANCE CO

of Edinburgh and London, ESTABLISHED, 1809. CAPITAL, #2,000,000 stg Invested Funds, 1864, £2,304,512, 7s., 10. AND OF THE Standard Life Assurance Co.

OF ED:NBURGH. ESTABLISHED, 1825. Accumulated and Inve. ted Funds over £3.500.000. These Companies are of the most reliable class in terms, consistent with sa ety to the insured. As such,

Spring Arrangement.

at 5 o'clock, p. m. | Will have, won t anything again."

warded with despatch and promptly delivered. Principal Offices: 57 Kilby Street, corner Water, Boston Eastern Express Company,..... Portland Legal Referee-S. B. Appleby.
G. W. VANWART & Co., Agents. Woodstock, May 27, 1870 be coming up the street at the time, and he said that he never saw anything to equal it in his from the works of the lamented novelist have whole life. I heard others say that he did the reference to death or parting :-fastest running ever heard of in that part of the "Dead, your Majesty. Dead, my lords country, and that he never stopped or looked and gentlemen. Dead, Right Reverends and behind him until he was two miles out of town. Wrong Reverends, of every order. Dead, men He sent me a note a few days afterward, say-ing that the engagement must be broken off, as in your hearts. And dying thus around us Who swing the axe and guide the plow,

And wakes the weird and sombre hills-Where the unhindered streamlets rolled, Where turn the wheels of humming mills, In valleys filled with green and gold. Where forges blaze and commerce fills Our homes with blessings manifold. Inventors skilled with wondrous art, Reform the race and help to swell That triumph of the head and heart; They love their task of toil so well. The nature kindles thoughts that start.

And in her softest whispers tell

The secrets which are kept apart From the dull tortoise in the shell. They added to our searching eyes, The telescope with which we trace The wonders of the spangled skies; They gave unto a grateful race The messenger of flame which flies Swift as a thought through realms of space And the paved path of steel which lies Where steads of steam in harness race.

They hewed down the vast wilderness, And made it blossom white and red They gave to us the plow to bless Our larders with abundant bread; They gave to us the printing press,

That minds which hungered might be ted

They made the hours of labor less— And now the hand obeys the head

These are the times the prophets sought-With eager eyes and prayers and tears, For now the thews are ruled by thought, And brutal men must bow to sears. In church and school a nation taught Of justice : in the future years-Shall think of miracles they wrought, Whose brains and hands were pioneers

Select Tale.

WHY AUNT SALLY MARRIED.

"Now, Aunt Sally, do please tell us why you never married. You know you said once that when you were a girl you were engaged to a minister, and promised you would tell us all about it sometime. Now aunt please do." "Well if ever I did see such girls in my night, you must know all about everything. that dinner seemed as if it would choke me. friends and customers that they have removed to the new and elegant shop, fitted up expressly for their business, next door to the new store of Hon. Wm. Lindare! When I was young, girls were different; they minded their business, and didn't go sailing around with a whole string of beaux, getting their heads filled with all kinds of nonsense. I never dared to ask my aunts, marrimess I'd have got in if I had. When they offered to tell me anything of their own accord, standing so long, had grown warm, so I re-I kept my mouth shut and listened. Everything is different now a-days; young folks have no respect for their elders. But as I see that I am to have no peace till I do tell you why.

When he came into the parlor where I was sitting alone, he came up to me and-but pshaw! girls, I don't like to tell the rest."

"O, Aunt Sally, for mercy's sake don't top: tell us what he did?" "Well, as I said, he came up to me, and put both his arms around me, and rather hug. trated; it was a long time ago, and I don't know but what I might have nugged him back whittle. Then I felt-but now just clear out. every one of you, I shan't tell you any more.

"Goodness, gracious, no Aunt Sally. Tell us how you felt. Didn't you feel good? what did he do next?" "O, such torments as you are! I was like any other girl, and pretty soon I pretended to be mad about it, and pushed him away, though I wasn't mad a bit. You must know that the Judge. I wasn't mad a bit. You must know that the house where I lived was on one of the back streets of the town. There were glass doors in the parlor, which opened right over the street, and no balcony or anything of the kind in front of the back of the town of the back of the town. There were glass doors in the parlor, which opened right over the street. The town of the back of the town of the back of the town. There were glass doors in the parlor, which opened right over the street. The town of the wood-chopper than 1000 houses were completely destroyed, as he passed on to his work.

That boy's note for a thousand dollars due ing. He had been holding his pocket-book in the sacrificed. Upwards of one thousand dead bod-thies looking rather dilapidated one morning, the latest reports chronicle the fact that more in the world is estimated at £1,000,000,000,000.

Wilson street, Glasgow, was once well known and property to the value of $40,000,000 was as a rendezvous for carters. One of the most violent and destructive on record. The latest reports chronicle the fact that more in the world is estimated at £1,000,000,000,000.

Wilson street, Glasgow, was once well known as a rendezvous for carters. One of these world is estimated at £1,000,000,000,000.

That boy's note for a thousand dollars due ing. He had been holding his pocket-book in the book in the world is estimated at £1,000,000,000.

you think, girls, the poor fellow lost his balance and fell through one of the doors into the street.

Yes, it's so. As he fell I gave a scream and caught him—but I declare I won't tell any more. I'm going to leave the room." "No, no, Aunt Sally. How did you eatch im? Did it hurt him much?"

A Romance in Real Life—Whittier's pretty poem of the judge and the maiden in the "What's your name?"

Well, if I must, I must. He fell head field has its mate in real life. Some short in the "What's your name?" him? Did it hurt him much?"

"But, Aunt Sally, what become of him? But, alas! another heart is left in anguish. A " No, the moment he touched the ground he courted her five years, wears the "willow." . Houlton got up and left the place in a terrible hurry. see how that man run. Father happened to ing a corn.

me. but some kind of a storm I expected .- Book 2, chapter 19. me than on that day; but there stood the churn | chapter 71: felt confoundedly cut, and every mouthful of tide."-[Copperfield, chapter 30 fore dinner was over I had again resolved, and shoving back my chair. I marched to the charn, and went at it in the old way. Splash, drip, rattle, splash, drip, rattle-1 kept it up. As if in spite, the butter neve was so long in coming. I supposed the cream doubled my efforts. Obstinate matter. afternoon wore away while I was churning. paused at last, from real exhaustion, when she plied :spoke for the first time : " Come, Tom, my with an axe upon his shoulder, who hastily lie opinion." thrusting his hand into his pantaloons pocket, work, and then it would not take up my time he would not give anything "Yet he said. people desire the attainment of those objects.—

this evening when I went to study " this won't do, I am in a bad fix." My hopes News.

"Well, if I must, I must. He fell head field has its mate in real life. Some short time first and as he was going I caught him by the since a young woman with love-causing eyes Great Britain, and do business on the most reasonable legs of his trousers. I held on for a minute handsome features, and a comely form, came and tried to pull him back, but his suspenders with her mother from Gloucestershire, on a Rates moderate, and losses promptly paid. Dwelling Houses Insured on specially favorable terms.

JOHN T. ALLAN, Agent.

Woodstock, July 1860.

Woodstock, July 1860.

Woodstock, July 1860.

What's young man fell clear out of his pantaloons into the street, among a plication from those desireus of insuring their property out of his pantaloons into the street, among a parcel of ladies who were passing.''

What's young man fell clear out of his pantaloons into the street, among a parcel of ladies who were passing.''

Woodstock, July 1860.

Woodstock, July 1860. the public generally, and shall be glad to receive ap-"O, aunty, aunty, lordy, lordy, said to his brother-" Let us go up to the village, and I will ask the first young girl I meet away. "There, that's right; squeal and giggle as to marry me, as I want a wife, and live as commuch as you want to. Girls that cannot hear fortable as my neighbors." Just as the last Clark & Davis' Express, of such a little thing like that without tearing words fell from his lips, in came the lovely name? WILL, until further notice, leave Richmond and Woodstock Stations every Monday at 3 a. m.

Leaves Boston every Thursday morning at 8 o'cleck.

Leaves Railroad Wharf, Portland, every Monday will have, won't he? Catch me telling you

An agreement was drawn up and signed, and

CHARLES DICKENS -The following extracts

JAMES WATTS, Publisher & Proprietor

General Aclus.

TREATY BY THE U. S. SENATE.

GAD'S HILL PLACE HIGHAM.

BY ROCHESTER, KENT.

wargen. The wind was so violent and the flames

WEDNESDAY, June 8th, 1879.

CHARLES DICKENS.

He sent me a note a few days afterward, saying that the engagement must be broken off, as he could never look me in the face again after what had happened. He went out West, and I believe he is preaching out in Illinois But he never married. He was very modest, and I suppose he was so badly frightened that he never dared to trust himself near a woman again.

The sent me a note a few days afterward, saying that Heavenly Compassion in your hearts. And dying thus around us covery day."—[Bleak House, chapter 67.

"The golden ripple on the wall came back again, and nothing else stirred in the reom.—

The old, old fashioned. The fashion that came in with our first garments, and will last unchanged until our last race has run its which was to secure the annexation to the Unit-them that a more intelligent or industrious necessary. never dared to trust himself near a woman again.

That, girls, is the reason I never married. I felt very bad about it for a long time, for he was a real good man, and I've often thought to myself how we should always have been happy if his suspenders hadn't given way.

Same in with our first garments, and will last unchanged until our last race has run its course, and the wide firmament is rolled up like a scroll. The old, old fashion—Death. O. thank God, all who see it, for that older fashion yet of immortality? And look upon us, angels of young children, with regards not the suspenders hadn't given way.

Same in with our first garments, and will last unchanged until our last race has run its edstates of that part of the Island of Hayti them that a more intelligent or industrious peoclar of the little Province of New Brunswick. And majority of votes cast in the Senate when the fashion yet of immortality? And look upon us, angels of young children, with regards not the voting on the question.

The rejection of this Treaty by so decided.

as restless as Moah's dove's. I felt as if I had were filled with figures of men, women, and done a wrong—I didn't exactly feel how—but many children, with light upon their faces, then there was an indescribable sensation of guilt whispered that it was Eden—and so died.'— done a wrong—I didn't exactly feel how—but there was an indescribable sensation of guilt whispered that it was Elen—and so died."— there was an indescribable sensation of guilt whispered that it was Elen—and so died."— Sickleby, chapter 58.

NEVER

NEVER

NEVER

NEVER

The self of the service of the last written by Mr. Dickens—it may have been his very last—for it is dated the day of the fatal seizure, and under the circumstances, it will be read with a good deal of interest. Some-body had called Mr. Dickens's attention to a passage in the tenth chapter of "Edwin Drood" as likely to wound the feelings of religious people, must when the jury are out, having in their made his destiny—life or death. I couldn't willight upon their faces, then letter is published which was certainly one of the last written by Mr. Dickens—it may have been his very last—for it is dated the day of the fatal seizure, and under the circumstances, it will be read with a good deal of interest. Some-body had called Mr. Dickens's attention to a passage in the tenth chapter of "Edwin Drood" as likely to wound the feelings of religious people, which is secretable will not prove very interest-for it is dated the day of the fatal seizure, and under the circumstances. It will be read with a good deal of interest. Some-body had called Mr. Dickens's attention to a passage in the tenth chapter of "Edwin Drood" as likely to wound the feelings of religious people, which is secretable will not prove very interest. Some-body had called Mr. Dickens's attention to a passage in the tenth chapter of "Edwin Drood" as likely to wound the feelings of religious people, which is secretable will not prove very interest. Some-body had called Mr. Dickens's attention to a passage in the tenth chapter of "Edwin Drood" as likely to wound the feelings of religious people, where no one pretends to know, me have death the day of the fatal seizure, and under the circumstances, it will be read with a good deal of interest. Some-body had called Mr. Dickens of the last writt

Will you believe it? she never greeted me with __" and lay at rest. The solomn stillness a sweeter smile, never had a better dinner for was no marvel new."-[Old Curiosity Shop, born days. It's tease, tease, from morning till just where I left it; not a word was said. I "It being high water, he went out with concern for his laggard companion. He thought surely some evil must have befallen him.

Long after dark his fellow traveller arrived.

When asked the cause of his delay, he replied:

The because I rewicte that history for my child. In the defence of the harbor of Hallax, which is necessary for the Imperial purposes, and not to act as police or to support the civil power."

A letter from the Seargeant-at-Arms exposes fully the infamous nature of the shameful chargelied:

Faithfully yours.

"I was obliged to stop at every other house

In am to have no peace till I do tell you why, just listen, and don't let me hear a word out "That's right, Aunt Sally; go ahead, do and we'll keep perfectly still."

"That's right, Aunt Sally; go ahead, do and we'll keep perfectly still."

"Well, you see, when I was about seven the ten years old. I was living in Utiea, in the state of New York. Though I say it myself, I was quite a good-looking girl, then, and had goon good and and we'll keep perfectly still."

"Well, you see, when I was about seven the ten years old. I was living in Utiea, in the state of New York. Though I say it myself, I was quite a good-looking girl, then, and had goon good head of me and I took at general beaux. The one that took my fancy most was a young minister, a very promising young man, and remarkably pious and steady. He thought a good deal of me and I took at fancy to him, and things ran cn till we were engaged. One evening he came to me—I regarded. The control of the state of the course taken by the was a young minister, a very promising young man, and remarkably pious and steady. He thought a good deal of me and I took at fancy to him, and things ran cn till we were engaged. One evening he came to me—I regarded. One evening he came to me—I regarded. One evening he came to me—I regarded. The color of the summannorly dogs that bravel to the characters are formed and sustained by ourselves, by our own actions and purposes, and regarded to their regarded to their regarded to the enter time of the course taken by the General Election to the total weather the procured a set of the course taken by the General Election to the ten the church the procured and sustained by the seal of the course taken by the General Election to the total part of the course taken by the General Election to the ten the church the procured at the three that the weather that the weather the church the procured at the the church the church the proc

drew out a small roll, and handing it to Judge
H—, said;
"There's seventy-five dollars, which I want you to put in the savings bank," and hastily turned on his heels and started away.

The Judge, slightly disconcerted at the curious proceedings, scarcely knew what to say, till at length recovering his wits, he cried after

"Now Squirm, Old Nature"—A stingy ander the inspiration of old battle cries.

"Now Squirm, Old Nature"—A stingy ander the inspiration of old battle cries.

On the other hand, it is plain that New Bruns-wick is resolved an insisting upon ample justice being done to its claims in its settlement with the Dominion Government, and upon equal justice to its interests in future Dominion Fiscal Legislation. With regard to domestic affairs, New Brunswick has unmistalishly pronounced in favor of cheaper local government and legislation. the boy: "Stop! come back here. How did you come by this money?"

Tell Was out last night and I got my money. I've got a job chopping, which I began this morning. And I thought I'd leave the money as I went to and I thought I'd leave the money as I went to the nit many time.

The boy: "Stop! come back here. How did you come by this money?"

At the close of the appeal he would to the Union, and upon substantial improvement in this year upwards of 3000 persons, and they are give fifty dollars. Now, the boxes were passing the character of its Comman Michoel system. There may be difference of opinion among the and I thought I'd leave the money as I went to twenty, to ten, to five, to give anything." Yet he said.

All the gold in the world, in the form of coin. "What is your name, my bey ?" asked the of heaven may be in this question. This covers ousness will be my ruin. The boxes were gotone of the most violent and destructive on record. In a single solid block it would be not less than one of the most violent and destructive on record. twenty-six feet square. The value of the silver

THE ENTIRE FAMILY. - During the war a relations were seen searching in all directions contriband came into the Federal lines in North for those most dear to them. In one direction Carolina, and was marched up to the officer of the day to give an account of himself, where-

" My name's Sam." "No. Sah, not Sam Watt; I'se jist Sam." "What's your other name?"

"I hasn't got no other name, sah "What's your master's name?" "I'se got no massa now. Massa runned like that of a cannon. Yah! Yah! I'se a free nigger "Now, what's your father's and mother's " I'se got none, sah; neber had none. I'se jist Sam-ain't anybody else." "Haven't you any brothers and sisters?" " No. sah ; neber bad. No brudder no sisthey now live happily as man and wife. - ter, no fadder, no mudder-nothin' but Sam. When you see Sam you see all dere is of us.

young farmer in her native place, and who An Irishman, eating his first green corn, handed the cob to the waiter, and asked, fork is then to be heated and inserted into the The British House of Lords now number I tell you it was a sight to be remembered to Cutting a troublesome acequaintance—par- "Will ye's plaze put some more banes upon cavity; and when cold it will be found fixed in members, only thirty-one of whom are fo.mmunicated.

NEW YORK CORBESPONDENCE.

DEAR SENTINEL, Since I last wrote you, I have been over considerable of Uncle Sam's possessions of real estate, consequently absent from this seething city; but in my rambles, I was not relieved from the heat, as I was down in Delaware South Jersey among the peach gowers; the thermometer has stood for the last two weeks in the neighborhood of 90, and to ride about the sutry in such a sun was not much pleasure; sch crop promises large, the trees hang full of you. fruit, in fact, everything in the prowhen the mercury had rus. everything is the pro-duce line gives evidence of a great yield, al-though there may be some certain roots that may fail yet. I got back to this city of brick on a day when the mercury had rus. ed up to 93 in the shade, so you must not expect which in the shape of detail of what was seen, particularly to one who is not above or hardly up to the average, in writing up incidents; there is nothing to pretent the Delaware and South Jersey farmers from being rich, everything is in their favor, the soil is rich of itself, and the climate is all that can be REJECTION OF THE SAN DOMINGO desired, the winters are short, and very mild net lasting more than two months. The people

A Husband's Confession.—I never undertook but once to set at naught the authority of

We wife to be completely the Republican party

The rejection of this Treaty by so decisive a a vote is a somewhat remakable circumstance. It shows how completely the Republican party has shaken itself free from the influence of Gen.

The rejection of this Treaty by so decisive a a vote is a somewhat remakable circumstance. It shows how completely the Republican party has shaken itself free from the influence of Gen. A Husano's Covression.—I never undertook but ence to set at maght the authority of my wife. You know her way—cool, quiet, but determined as ever grew. Just after we her married, and all was nice and cosy, she got me to do it. you know, but then she—why it was done in this way. She finished breakfast belief to the common to do it. you know, but then she—why it was done in this way. She finished breakfast belief to the common with the men on morning, and, slipping away from the table, she filled the churn with cream, and the filled the churn with cream, and churred till the butter came. She didn't thank me, but looked so nice and sweet about it, but filled well paid. Well when the next churring day came along she done the same thing, and cert is the sheet of the county of the county in the count of the county to be tenderly removed to be the same thing, and cert is the sheet of the county of the county resorts to be tenderly removed to the same thing, and cert is the sheet of the county resorts
to be tenderly removed to the same thing, and cert is the sheet of the county resorts
to be tenderly removed to the county resorts to the county of the county removed to the county resorts to the county of the county removed to the

MR. CHARLES DICKENS'S LAST LETTER .- A invasion to chronicle; no insane busbands in letter is published which was certainly one of town, -no doubt we will have a full supply short-

Earl Granville has replied to the address of the Newfoundland Legislature on the withdraw. DEAR SIR :- It would be quite inconceivable al of the Imperial troops. He says that "he finds nothing in the argument or address to alter "It being high water, he went out with the tide."—[Copperfield, chapter 30.

How to Treat Slander.—We ence heard a story told of two men who started together one bright morning for a whole day's journey. They soon became separated. The one reached his destination before the sun had sunk behind the Western hills, whre he made himself comfortable at the inn. His only trouble was concern for his laggard companion. He thought o me-but for your letter-that any reasonable > es made against Mr. Bliss Botsford. The brush es, soap, perfumery, gloves, neck ties, &c., on which the friends of the Government accuse him people look with no favor upon the policy of reviving dead issues or fighting over old questions under the inspiration of old battle cries.

On the other hand, it is plain that New Bruns. wick is resolved on insisting upon ample justice

BRITISH AND COLONIAL EMIGRATION. -On assisted to Canada by means of the British and Colonial Emigration Fund left London in the till at length recovering his wits, he cried after "I'll give ten dollars;" again he said, "I'll in favor of cheaper local government and legis. The committee of the boy: "Stop! come back here. How did give fifteen." At the close of the appeal he lation than it has yet had since its entrance in-Medway for their new homes. The committee

All the gold in the world, in the form of coin,

That boy's note for a thousand dollars due to fit house. As it was in the summer season these doors were open and the shutters drawn to I stepped back a little from him, and when he edged up close I pushed him away again. I pushed harder than I intended to, and don't you think, girls, the poor fellow lost his balance and fell through one of the doors into the street.

That boy's note for a thousand dollars due to good as gold. If his hand during the soliloquy, which was half accovered and there are still fifteen hundred missing persons unaccounted and been holding his pocket-book in his hand during the soliloquy, which was half accovered and there are still fifteen hundred missing persons unaccounted for. Seven fire companies, engines and men he was heard. In the agony of the final through one of the doors into the street.

Five years from to-day, with a few hundred dollars which he has earned by work, his chances for place in the business and political world will be far greater than those of the spendthrift boy and fell through one of the doors into the street.

That boy's note for a thousand dollars due to him his deafnass he did not know that he was heard. In the agony of the final through one of the found in the flames. The staff of the English and there are still fifteen hundred missing persons unaccounted and there are still fifteen hundred missing persons unaccounted to him his late extend the was heard. In the agony of the flame has heard the cook his pocket-book in his hand during the soliloquy, which was half the has his health, he will be worth double that the has his health, he will be worth double that the has his health, he will be worth double that the has his health, he will be worth double that the summer season the recovered and there are still fifteen hundred missing persons unaccounted to him his deafnass he did it in the took his pocket-book in his hand during the soliloquy, which was half the has his health, he will be not house. The had been recovered and there are still fifteen hundred d

Women are to be employed as book-keepers

by were many others who could scarcely be re improved in consequence of the general rain cognized as having ever been living men and which has fallen. The extent of the damage to the crops causspread with such rapidity that the people knew ed by drought in France cannot as yet be cornot where to fly for safety; all around them notherectly estimated. ing appeared but certain death in its most fright-Of the 150 skilled artisans who superintended ful form, and it is surprising that so few became the Turkish arsenal at Constantinople, the its victims. Strangest of all is the fact that the greater part are Scotsmen.

fire, thus disastrous, raged but a few hours, and spread with such rapidity that buildings were A certain amount of opposition is a great help swept away in an instant, and with an explosion to a man. Kites rise against the wind, and not with the wind; even a head wind is better than none. No man ever worked his passage anywhere in a dead calm. Let no man wax pale, CEMENT FOR FASTENING INSTRUMENTS IN therefore, because of opposition; opposition is HANDLES .-- A material for fastening knives and what we want and must have to be good for forks to their handles, when they have become anything. Hardship is the native soil of man-hood and self-reliance. He who cannot abide best cement for this purpose consists of 1 lb. of colophony (purchasable at the druggists'), and wayside to be overlooked or forgotten.

8 oz. of sulphur, which are to be melted together and either kept in bars or reduced to powder.—
One part of the powder is to be mixed with half a part of iron filings, fine sand, or brick dust, and the cavity of the handle is then to be filled

Wayside to be overlooked or forgotten.

The Montreal Herald states that there is a rumor for which it does not youch, that the arbitrators have decided that Lower Canada must assume $7,000,000 of the public debt of the old.

Province of United Canada with this mixture. The stem of the knife or Province of United Canada.