Miscellaneous.

The sun, as it now appears, is covered with large and numerous spots, some of which is about as long as one-twenty-eight of the solar diameter, although astronomers give no hint of its area. This spot is black at the centre, and has serrated edges, whilst its penumbra is wavy at the edge, and stretches in a curve to the right, preserving the general shape of the umbra. There are several indistinct spots to the left, and the whole system of them is rapidly undergoing change. Another group, about an eighth of the sun's diameter, followed the one just spoken of, coming from the eastern limb in the northern hemisphere. The penumbra of this contained separate umbræ, which were all intensely black.

INCONSISTENCY OF HUMAN NATURE.—There is scarcely anything that a man may not do, however inconsistent it may be with his general character, without offending against the laws even of common probability. David betrays Uriah, and yet remains the most pious of men; Hector runs away at mere sight of Achilles, and yet remains the bravest; Nero cannot find in his heart to sign an ordinary death-warrant, and yet remains the most cruel; Nepoleon marries his first empress for love, and yet remains the most heartless.—Blackwood's Magazin

A young gentleman having called in his physician said, "Now, sir, I wish no more trifling my desire is, that you at once strike, at the root of my disease!" "It shall be done," replied the doctor; and lifting his cane, he smashed the decanter which stood on the table.

Children do not form the habit of making excuses If you have done wrong be willing to own it. Do not try to hide it, or throw the blame on another. A person who is quick at making excuses, is not likely to be good for anything else, or to be loved and honored. Be honest, and frank, and truthful.

☞ A woman in the Davenport (Iowa) jail for vagrancy, in being set to work breaking stone, looked at the turnkey and said smilingly, and with an awful oath, "This is what you call woman's rights, ain't it? Well, I'll show you that I can break more stone than any man in the jail!" And she did.

CAUTION!

WHEREAS Phebe Ann Orde, my wife, did on the 11th of October, leave my bed and board on pretence of visiting some friends, instead of which she took passage on the steamer Empress, in company with a young man by the name of James Fosse, for St John, from thence to Woodstock, N. B., travelling as man and wife, and when last heard from were living as such. The said Phebe Ann Orde took with her a little daughter, leaving two small children behind.—Therefore all persons are forbidden to harbor or credit on my account said persons, as I will not pay any such bills.

Co-Partnership Notice

SANTA CLAUS and SAMPSON have this day entered into Co-partnership in order more fully to meet the wants of Parents as well as their children during the coming Holiday Season.

The new Firm propose an arrangement that is entirely new and novel in this part of the Province, but extensively practised elsewhere, and proved to be a great saving of trouble to Parents, viz: Parties residing in the City can leave their Children's Socks in our establishment on Thursday or Friday, the 23rd or 24th inst., and OLD SANTA will carefully fill them with the choicest Confections, Nuts, Fruits, Toys, &c., much cheaper than the articles can be purchased for separately, and deliver them at your residences on Christmas eve, free of charge. At the old stand.

EUREKA COLLARS!

DEALERS in turn-down Collars should be careful to buy none but the

EUREKA PAPER COLLAR.

They are far ahead of all other Collars in the matter of fit, finish and durability.

They surpass ALL American Collars in cheapness, and they also surpass even English Collars when quality of material is considered

They are far ahead of the trashy half paper half-cotton English Collars, which soil as if saturated with oil wherever touched with sweat or water.

They are superior in color to any cotton-paper Collar made anywhere
