THE KINCK HORROR IN PARIS .- THE LAT-EST REVELATIONS .- There seems at least to be a prespect of the speedy conclusion of the Trauppmann case. Under the system of action practiced by the French police a prisoner is almost always certain to be pumped dry. I believe this system would compel an epitaph writer to speak the truth, or a woman to confess her exact age. At all events, the story now is that rauprmann has elected to abandon his persistent story of having been merely a tool in the JAMES WATTS, Publisher & Proprietor. affair, and to have made the following disclos-WHOLE NO.—1095
