The Principal has made arrangements for the establishment of a Female Department in the School. It will be conducted by a competent female assistant, whose attention will be particularly directed to the primary, and to Music, Drawing, and the other branches usually taught in a Young Ladies' Seminary. The Principal will have control and superintendence of this department, and the members of it will have the full advantage of participating in the study of any and every branch taught in the School, including the Latin, Greek, and French Languages; and an opportunity will thus be given to those desiring to qualify themselves for teachers in Parish and other schools.
