The Carleton Sentinel.

Saturday, March 5, 1870.

Editorial Correspondence. must pay this compliment to the " Eastern Ex-

A day's drive on a fine winter day behind four report of his speech: good horses, guided by a skilful driver, in a ber of a party, when called upon by the leader not, it appears, materially effect the Citizens low subjects. roomy sleigh well robed, has an exhilirating ef- to take a seat in the Government, to accept office Ball, given in honor of H. R. H. Prince Arthur absord that government intend to resist any in- convinced that the expenditure upon this rail- sidents and employees of the Hudson's Bay vestigation into the "Raffeinstein" frauds lest way would itself form a serious burden upon the Company were in a state of unrest and suspicion, • ing session, the result of which it were hard to with reference to Newfoundland and Prince clined making any public speeches to the people; damages.

the Premier to explain the circumstances contend with the recent changes in and reconstruction of the government, especially as regards the circumstances contribution of the government, especially as regards and the retirement of the late Finance Minister the negotiations with Mr. Galt having in view he assumption of that gentleman of the vacation designated as a "mere proposed with the recent changes in and reconstruction of the government, especially as regards the expected to leave in the morber of the House. In the United member of the Lieut. Governor by the member of the House. In the United member of the Lieut. Governor by the member of the House. In the United member of the Lieut. Governor by the member of the House. In the United member of the Lieut. Governor by the member of the House. In the United of the finances of this season:—

The thing to make us hope that we are to have a pacific to a control the property he had a report of the did not design to the property he had as public property, he there is necessary policy. He did not design to the finances of th to return and assume a position here? That written statement of Mr. Aikens.

considered in filling up the Cabinet. There was Finance Minister.

ed himself in opposition, and prepared to do all cis Hincks into the Government. stages from Houlton to Mattawamkeag Point .- putation is well known, we give a pretty full papers came down.

is nothing left to be wished for, so far as the offi- liged to come to the conclusion that Confedera- net. Gave a glowing opinion of the capabilities divisions. Some of the members are agitated cers of the road from the managing director tion had been retarded. He desired to say nodown to the conductors, can make it agreeable. The desired to say nothe members are agreed to the conductors are agreed to the The delays incident to travel over this road from various causes are, however disagreeable, not the country now held. First, in the case of Nova nexation proclivities were such as to weaken know. within the immediate control of any of the offi- Scotia it was a matter of the deepest regret that any party with which he acted. Showed that We find Ottawa gay with bunting and in a dially into carrying out Confederation, (hear, of benefit to the Provinces, claiming that if we flutter of excitement over festivities inaugurated hear). He did not deny that grave difficulties failed to secure reciprocity of trade and as well in honor of Prince Arthur, who is now here. - stood in the way of Confederation in that Pro- reciprocity in tariff, it would be better to be The effect of these for the first few days of the vince. but he believed that the course taken in without either, and the result would be the desession was to smooth down political elements negotiations by the Government was not the velopment of intro Provincial trade. and hold them, apparently, in abeyance. Last best to bring about the desirable result. He Mr. Huntingdon questioned the correctness of day. He said in answer to questions that the night, however, those elements resumed their thought a fatal error had been made in not con- the corclusion that Nova Scotia had changed, so bill is the one published with the addition of two of its taxing incomes, whereas the petitioners ask for a sway when the discussion of the Address in re- ducting the negotiations with members of the far as the sentiment of the people was concernply to His Excellency's opening speech came Government of that Province, (hear, hear). It ed, and denied that the government had proved And here, before giving any account of that the Nova Scotia difficulty, when the Local Gov- from the fact that we had dissatisfaction at one operation debate and its important developments of un- ernment of that Province was opposed to Con- extreme and revolt at the other. looked for opposition and revivifying of old federation. He had no doubt the policy which There was no after dinner session, owing to Canadian party cries, it is as well to say that, had been pursued would be freely discussed with the ball. judging from rumors, political elements here regard to New Brunswick. He could not con- Amid the explanations made the other day, a seem to be in a very disturbed state. Discon- gratulate the House upon progress of Confedera- number of letters were read bearing, or suppos- matter. tent among conservatives because they have not tion. It was time it was carried, but from ex- ed to bear, upon ministerial reconstruction, all they claim as their right; discontent among pressions he had heard from members of this among them one from J. C. Atkins to Mr. Mc-all they claim as their right; discontent among reference to the last the policy of the Govorner than, in the opinion of the reference to the are entitled to; discontent on the part of Mr. McDougall and his friends on account of the policy of the policy of the Govorner than the policy sition in which he is placed owing to the Red did not intend to say anything further than that worded, "The Parish politics of our Maritime took place on a bill to legalize the Sheriff's River difficulties; discontent on both sides on account of the appointment of the present Fin-with reference to the construction of that road that the rotten politics of old Canada, whose ance Minister; discontent of individual members materially altered. He thought a policy of eco- ghost is continually rising in offensive presence actly in accordance with the interpretation rebecause they have not got the price they anticipated for past support of confederation and the nomy should have been pursued. The policy on the floors of the Commons, will help us much.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.

Mr. Needham explained the necessity for the government; discontent of French members be- the Intercolonial Railway had given us the man- Yesterday in the Commons several paragraphs great rottenness may be discovered. These resources of the country. He regretted to ob- which he, in his personal intercourse with the determine. We, of course, know little about Edward Island had borne results worse than he denied having said or done anything to incite disaffection of such men as Sir A. T. Galt, Cart- position of having legislated with regard to terms people that there were no grounds for apprehenwright and others, hitherto government support to be offered to Prince Edward Island, which sion, and that when Mr. McDougall came into

ers, must have an important effect, it may be in terms had been rejected entirely. With regard the territory. if he was a sensible man, he would making the government wiser, and more solicit- to the Northwest question he was sorry to arrive learn the views of the people. and govern his bill in relation to the Lunatic Asylum. ous to maintain themselves by a stronger effort at the same conclusion. An avowed resistance actions accordingly, and that as soon as possible, to conciliate the people of the Dominion rather had been given to attempts to incorporate that a responsible Government would be granted. to conciliate the people of the Dominion rather than the leaders of parties or cliques in parties and to make confederation in the view of the people, what unfortunately in the people, what unfortunately in the soft large and the people with the matter had been address in a neat and the safety worded speech, and the acquisition of this worded speech, and the acquisition of the worded speech, and the acquisition of this worded speech, and the acquisition of the people of the Dominion rather than the leaders of parties or cliques in parlia-territory in the Dominion. Who was responsible the first day flay; 1870; one on the first day flay; 1871; one on the first of May, 1873; as I have received no security now that a candidate could not resort to import the Dominion than the commission of the Who was responsible to the possible of the Point the Dominion than the commission of the Who was responsible to the first day flay; 1871; one on the first day flay; 1871; one on the first of May, 1873; as I have received no security now that a candidate could not resort to import the Dominion than the commission of the Who was responsible to contract debts in the Commission of the Who was responsible to the point of the Who was responsible to the first day flay; 1871; one on the first day flay; 1871; one on the first day flay; 1871; one on the first of May, 1873; as I have received no the followed, complaining that Mr. How Command of the English language to represent the Territory in the Dominion the view of the Who was responsible to the first of May, 1873; as I have received no the first of May, 1873; as I have received no the followed, compl well worded speech, and the acquisition of this end to the other of the Dominion he must prostatus, and thus smoothing the way for his, Mr, gentleman to the government support is a mark-nounce the administration of the hon member McDougali's entry. While Mr. Howe, on meeted feature of the day. And here it may be refor Kingston a failure as regards the important marked that the other evening the introduction measure entrusted to him (hear, hear). He referred at all to the feelings of discontent which measure entrusted to him (hear, hear). of Mr. Archibald, of Colchester, N. S, to the would further say that if there had been one he now acknowledges were rife, but merely dehouse, was a circumstance which evoked no lit- thing that had saved Confederation from public preciated the country and the climate, telling departments.

been an ardent supporter of his; and when they ment by which the Reform balance in the Cabimet in another Chamber, not so large as this, net was not maintained, reading letters from Mr esty's ministers. He proceeded to show that moved and seconded that we adjourn till 10 o'- sponsible Government, for holding all public correspondence. perhaps they could act together, where party lines Aitkins, and to the Premier. But he yet con- while he would not vote for Independence now, perhaps they could act together, where party lines were not so strongly drawn. He could, as leader of the Opposition, say that the Finance Minister of the Opposition, say that the Finance Minister of Justice for Sir John A. Macdonald answered that the Sir John A. Macdonald answered that the Sir John A. Macdonald answered that the Council to the Executive, and destinate to the Executive to the Sixtes steamer Oneidar against it nay." During cries of "Yea, yea," it was highly important so to educate the people against it nay." It was highly important so to educate the people against it nay. The sixten the Executive to the Executive it was said he had no habitation here when he appeal to the country was made on a no-party prepared to stand alone. If not so educated The forenoon was occupied in the discussion became Finance Minister; that he had left, and cry, and the members returned to support the and prepared, annexation or absorption must be of Needham's resolutions for an address to the was now a stranger. Had it been forgotten how, Government were elected upon a distinct no the result. Without independence, annexation Governor General, praying him to withhold his for years and years, he had fought the battles of party issue. to carry out the act of confederation he considered, must result; with independence, assent to the proposed bill to establish a Court by birth or adoption. has been chosen by his the basis of the coalition, and read a letter of Mr was in store for us. Sovereign as the recipient of honors, is he unfit Howland in support of this view, and also a The letters that passed between the Govern- establish a Court of Appeal, but not of original ascompletely away from England as the Finance argument quite ignored New Brunswick and in a false position. fact did not prevent him from obtaining office on had supported his Government in 1854 till 36 in which he vindicated the claims of the French, it. He did not deem the people of Ontario and Some time was occupied in incorporating the his return. With regard to the re-arrangement hours before his resignation, when he wrote him as a matter of right, not presuming that the Quebec the monsters some gentlemen would Milledgeville Steam Ferry Company, and the of basis, he said that the result of last election a letter that he could not longer do so, because right would be claimed, to have the governor- make us believe. They had always showed House adjourned. had been the return of more Conservatives than the Speech from the Throne was not sufficiently ship of the north west. He very forcibly refer-Reformers, he thought it not unfair that this increase of Conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the crease of Conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives are conservative representatives should be red to the history of the past to show that the conservative representatives are conservative representatives. considered in filling up the Cabinet. There was a sufficient answer to such rea good deal of cross firing during the Premier's Sir Alexander Galt denied that he had been Continent must have been set aside. He denied ince of very unpleasant reflections. While speech, chiefly touching the understanding be. a regular supporter of the Hincks Government. that the paragraph in the letter alluded to by marks as those indulged in by that hon. gentletween parties of old Canada, in which our read- Mr. Bowell had always given an independent Sir A. T. Galt was intended to place that gen- man. vote. He desired to support all measures of the tleman in a false position; it was merely intend-to secure the comfort of his patrons, tucks you support he gave, because at the commencement speakers on the address were McKenzie, Tupper have been discussed. The members from New in warmly, and bids you good-bye in a tone that of Confederation he believed it would be, in the line of Confederation he believed it would be, in the line of Confederation he believed it would be in a tone that of Confederation he believed it would be in the confederation he believed it would be in the confe is in itself assuring. Having reached the Point, last degree, disastrous that they should be invol- notable power. A power gained by a cool and ing the debate; they listened, were amused or week. a good supper and bed awaits the hungry and political struggles. He had supported their measures constitute assuring and bed awaits the hungry and ported their measures constitute assuring and political struggles. He had supported their measures constitute assuring the debate, they instructed, and remained silent. After the Ball week.

Mr. King introduced a bill to incorporate to their strongest possible way in the measures constitute assuring the debate, they instructed, and remained silent. After the Ball week. ported their measures sometimes, not so much their strongest possible way in the most purgent of to-morrow night, in the Senate Chamber, for Carleton, City of St. John, Branch Railway. sleep disposed traveller. At 4 o'olock, a. m., because he approved entirely of them, as because form of words. He dwelt upon the failure of the the train leaves on the E. & N. A. Railroad for he looked at the consequences of an adverse vote. government to consumate the grand scheme of D. We presume, he proceeded with vigorously. Hon. Mr. Lindsay introduced a bill to incor-Danville Junction. which is reached about noon. with greater danger and greater difficulty to union scheme, because such being the case they ensure its popularity and restore a confidence in du Loup Railway. The object is to permit the and where time is allowed for a deliberate din- Confederation, though probably he might for years and years, until they had grown the Finance Minister which has not been re- County of Carleton to aid in the survey. and where time is allowed for a deliberate dinner before the Grand Trunk cars from Portland ner before the Grand Trunk cars from Portland arrive, in which the journey via Montreal and

They find by the account furnished by the Commission which the journey of the past.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission which the journey of the past.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission which the journey of the past.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission which the journey of the past.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission which the journey of the past.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission which the journey of the past.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission where time is allowed for paupers, and the past in the survey.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission where the past in the House.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the Cabinet, he was compelled to reflect upon the past.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission where the past in the House.

They find by the account furnished by the Commission where the past in the House.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the Cabinet, he was compelled to reflect upon the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the Cabinet, he was compelled to reflect upon the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the House.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold the past in the survey.

The weather here has been exceedingly cold t selves of this line of communication, and speak men on considerations of public interest and pubvery favorably of it as a speedy and comfortable lie policy. His first consideration was his duty mated the existence of a Fenian spirit in Canada tions of the Confederation.

that Province had not entered heartily and cor- the repeal of the Reciprocity Treaty had proved being somewhat inspired by the fact that the ness for the bountiful harvests, there was no hope questioning the propriety of a gentleman of his House? Prince was present and heard them. Mr. Houl- held out that there should be a reconciliation of antecedents, as regarded Nova Scotia, when that ton thought the present a fitting opportunity for difficulties with that Province, and there is no- Province was in a state only short of open rethe Premier to explain the circumstances con- thing to make us hope that we are to have a bellion, going out to the north west as a pacifiber of reformers in the Cabinet reduced from ernment this appointment would. The course not implicate any body of standing or influence. did the government more harm than good. If was as good a Reformer as when he left. But | Sir John A. Macdonald answered that the Britain comes, as come it must, they would be ment and Sir A. T. Galt, respecting the office jurisdiction. He characterized the provisions of would be great encouragement to rising men in Mr. Cartwright announced his want of con- of Finance Minister, was called for and read.— the bill as a direct violation of the rights of New Canada, to be told that they must be Provincials fidence in the ministerial rearrangement. He It appears that when formally by writing invited Brunswick, and said that Ontario and Quebec merely; that men of tried ability must be kept particularly condemned the appointment of the logislative Council, unless they re- o'clock, P. M., in connection therewith. out of the Parliament and out of the Ministry. Finance Minister, but stated that he would not panied with the assurance that as a unit the a speech against Confederation. It was a new ostracism. Mere Provincial states offer any factious opposition. men whose thoughts were large enough and great Mr. Ferguson condemned any hasty opposition movement. But Mr. Galt, in referring to this red to by the hon. gentleman was introduced enough to be employed in high positions in other to the Government, and contended that the matter, stated that previously to receiving the last session and may not be like the one forerts of the Empire, too great, too strong, too able Government should have a fair support to enable formal invitation he had been approached by a shadowed in the speech of the Governor General. some back here? Are Canadian statesmen, if them to carry out Confederation.

The Parsonage, Jackson and Montgomery. Its fate is doubtby Rev. J. Cassidy, Mr. James Turney, of Woodful up stairs. Indeed how can that body be extion, but would like to see the Attorney Geneto the Parsonage, Jackson and Montgomery. Its fate is doubtby Rev. J. Cassidy, Mr. James Turney, of Woodful up stairs. Indeed how can that body be extion, but would like to see the Attorney Geneto the Parsonage, Jackson and Montgomery.

Stephenson and Montgomery.

We are sorry to say, by the severe illness
to the Parsonage, Jackson and Montgomery.

We are sorry to say, by the severe illness
to the Parsonage, Jackson and Montgomery.

Stephenson and Montgomery.

We are sorry to say, by the severe illness
to the Parsonage, Jackson and Montgomery.

We are sorry to say, by the severe illness
to the Parsonage, Jackson and Montgomery.

Its fate is doubtby Rev. J. Cassidy, Mr. James Turney, of Woodful up stairs.

Indeed how can that body be exto part in other lands not to be allow Note that the had positively and finally declined, alto pass government measures when the k employment here, and be branded claiming to have been always a member of the though he had stated that if it suited the views ral in his place before acting on it. He wanted pected to pass government measures when the of Mrs. Perley.

with audacity if they do. Was the same measure | Reform party. Nothing could be more puerile of the Government to make him a formal offer to sustain the principle, but was not prepared to government expresses so much contempt for it meted out in other parts of the Empire. There than the kind of attacks on the government of the seat, they were at literty to do so, with vote on it now. was Lord Elgin, he left England early in life, which had been made. Their policy or their the understanding however, that he should dewas Lord Eigin, he left England early in file, which had been finded of the first did do that the paragraph in of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) in County Courts to swear the Aldermen into of the hon. gentleman from York (Needham) i member when offices were bestowed upon him dispute was whether two or three Reform mem- the letter referring to independence must have taking advantage of every question that arises fice, was considered in committee, when Hon-Then he went to Canada, was in India, and was bers occupied seats in the Cabinet. That paltry covered some ulterior in ention of placing him to have a fling at Confederation. That act was Mr. King said that Mayor Gregory had promised Minister had been from Canada. But that very Nova Scotia. He stated that Sir Alex. Galt | Sir Geo. E. Cartier made a lengthy speech, he believed that the people are still in favor of the question at issue, and progress was reported they wavered in that loyalty the British on this ed the justice done to maritime interests by the are suggestive to the people of this Prov-It is but a just compliment to "speak well of the bridge that carries you safe over," and we leries at all events by surprise, when he announced to support an ineasures of the convey the disposition of the government which he consciously could do.—

Scarcely being advanced, regard being had ed to convey the disposition of the government which he convey the government which he convey the govern as a unit to oppose any motion on the subject of the find the bound take issue to the action of the subject of the find the bound take issue to the action of the subject o he can to overthrow the present Government. How would answer the charges and session. Sir George reminded the House that He had listened as long as he could to the hack. of Nova Scotia, it is deplorable to find the press Company," who run a complete line of As Mr. G. is a strong man, and one whose re-slanders referring to his department when the there were in the various Provinces 1,250,000 neyed attacks on Confederation. It had been French Canadians, but true British subjects, predicted by the opponents of that measure that and protested against the exclusion of them from every goose, gander and sheep in the Province a ride, having the personal care and attention of he was compelled to take the course he intend. Miss Alice of past policy on the public men of by the hon. gentleman from Carleton (Lindsay), such an agent as the Eastern Express Company ed to take. But there was a duty he must not Connell. It has been remarked that Mrs. Ang-Houlton. He sees to it that nothing is wanting supported the Government on every measure extraction. That In the House of Commons yesterday, the stood when the papers are brought down and moval of the troops.

arrive, in which the journey via Montreal and the Cabinet, he was compelled to renect upon and the Cabinet, he was compelled to renect upon the same the source of policy to pursue. He had every the source of policy to pursue. This bill provides that Attorneys man, while his appointment offends many, the route we have come is rapidly increasing, disposition to assist the Government, but at the the source of policy to pursue. He was particularly severe on Sir Francis the course of policy to pursue. He was particularly severe on Sir Francis the weather here the source days, while the snow, of which there the source days, while the snow, of which there the source days, while the source of policy to pursue. The weather here the source days, while the source days, while the snow, of which there the source days, while the the route we have come is rapidly increasing, and met with much same time he had to consider bis duty to the Goand a large number of members of the Eastern portions of New Brunswick from the Eastern portions of New Brunswick of the Commons, Government or opposition from Mr. Needham, but was finally the speech indicated a state of peace and security of the speech indicated as the and Nova Scotia have this season availed them- justified in refusing to serve with these gentle- the speech indicated a state of peace and security, great disgust of those who are largely interested agreed to by a vote of 14 years to 12 nays.

prompt and capable in the discharge of their im- policy of the Government. He was obliged to red to the change in Nova Scotia as a great session will be one of most close and critical disportant duties; while on the Grand Trunk there look back upon their acts and he had been ob- work that had been accomplished by the Cabi-

LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

(From our own Correspondent.) Fredericton, Feb. 24.

Hon. Mr. King introduced the School Bill to- Calais.

ernment refused to satisfy his curiosity on the deeds to land, which has not been advertised ex-

Mr. Needham explained the necessity for the at the north west; and unrest, if not discontent, on the part of many because of the fear that French Catholic interests will be exalted in the said north west. Then there are suspicions would have been better not to assume. He was bill, saying that if it were not passed there these matters yet, and can only mention them barren. They had received a more decided ne- to hostility against the incoming Governor passed hastily. It was a species of retrospective as they are rumored, to be justified or disproved as the session advances. It is certain that the disaffection of such men as Sir A. T. Galt, Cart disaffection disaffection disaffection of such men as Sir A. T. Galt, Cart disaffection disaffect

Hon. Mr. Lindsay introduced a bill to amend act relating to highways.

the bill to tax St. Stephen in aid of the Houlton ham said the Dominion Parliament has power to Ottawa, Feb. 24. five pecks to the bushel at that.

very lavorably of it as a speedy and committee on the claim of Jas. Ryan, Hon.

one. It is but just to say that Mr. Lunt, the Superintendant of the E. & N. A. Railroad from which he had the honor to belong. In endea Superintendant of the E. & N. A. Railroad from which he had the honor to belong. In endeaone. It is but just to say that Mr. Luut, the sout just to say that Mr. Luut, the south so the Point to Bangor, and Mr. Noyes, Supering to arrive at a correct judgement of the Parish of say from eighty phecies. But of this we have assurance that the the past es. Elequent, declaratory, patriotic. He referthe phecies. But of this we have assurance that the phecies. But of the phecies are the phecies as a phecies as a phecies. But of the phecies are the phecies as a phecies are the phecies. But of the phecies are the > bonds to the amount of $15,000, as a bonus to the a private enterprise, calculated only to serve private presentation of the prayer of the petitioners, on account Government, according to the Doctor, by newed. tax on real and personal property only.

Hon. Mr. McAdam, President of the Council, and nual allowance to be paid him. It was opposed by the Att'y General, and ruled out of order by the Speaker. Mr. Needham called attention to the telegram from Hon. Mr. King was appointed a committee to monstrance of the Bench and Bar of New Brunswick.

> Mr. Needham of course replied, taking strong grou hought of him, and then he was willing to die. Mr. Needham introduced a Bill to authorize Judges of Supreme Court to swear in the Common under the title of the "Quebec and New the said premises.

in good faith, and improvements made by persons who will be dispossessed if this bill does not become law.

Mr. King's Bill of last Session. Its object is to make every candidate take an oath before being put in nomination that he has not and will not, either by himself or agents, spend any money for dinners, refreshments, be required.

They would therefore recommend that a warrant of assessment issue for the sum of twelve hundred dollars for the support of the poor, for the year 1870. uninfluenced by any mercenary consideration whatever. Hon. Mr. Beckwith, Prov. Sec, introduced a the required oath and so prevent his being put in nomi-

The St. Stephen Railway Bill was recommitted and agreed to without a division. It was changed in the and after considerable talking, the meetselect Committee to which it was referred, making it ing adjourned sine die, without a vote being pay all such charges.

Your committee would here state that they have made to the hegislature at its present session Mr. Moore cast some reflections upon the govtwo-thirds of all the property in that district.

late the election of members to serve in Assembly. It

House?

Mr. Keans arose in great indignation and said he would like to know what right that hon. gentleman had to accuse the committee on public accounts of not doing their duty. He was a member of that committee and wanted it under the entered the practice of the considered the practice of hasten-ing the time when the English language alone shall be recognized as the language of British North America. In the United through the Executive. He considered the practice on through the Executive. He considered the practice of hasten-ing the time when the English Crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the time when the English language alone shall be recognized as the language of British North America. In the United through the Executive. He considered the practice of hasten-ing the time when the English Crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the time when the English Crew of St. John, N. B. The race is to take place at Lachine in July next.

London, Feb. 25—Eve.—The Mordaunt divorce case alone shall be recognized as the language of British North America. In the United through the Executive. He considered the practice of hasten-ing the time when the English Crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the time when the English Crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the time which had obtained in this Province an innovation the which had obtained in this Province an innovation the time when the English Crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the crew of Newcastle on Tyne and the Paris ence, and teach the importance of hasten-ing the crew cepted, and that it was desired that Sir A. T.

Galt should succeed him, but this gentleman had declined.

The made would be as thin skinned as he if in his position.

Government had declined.

The made would be as thin skinned as he if in his position.

The made would be as thin skinned as he if in his position.

Mr. Needham jumped up and asked—"What deavouring to bring about a change, but with mod, declined to receive; tunless Her Mujesty's favour, a Knight-declined.

Government was first distinctly made aware of light formula and stable deverting the made as he if in his position.

Mr. Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parint made aware of light formula and stable deverting the made aware of light formula and stable deverting the made aware of light formula and stable deverting the made aware of light formula and stable deverting the made aware of light formula and stable deverting the made aware of light formula and stable developed the made aware of light formula and stable develo Galt should succeed him, but this gentleman had declined.

Galt should succeed him, but this gentleman had declined.

Galt should succeed him, but this gentleman had declined to receive it unless Her Mujesty's factoring to bring about a change, but with dealers would be received if not their views and policy there was no for the first distinctly made aware of his views on Independence and the future of this factoring to bring about a change, but with dealers would be received if not the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliament that the address would be received if not not a possible to the matter?" As will be seen by our telegrams, the most affirmed that members of the Government had intimated that the address was enthusiasticated on Monday lighted the members of the Government had intimated that the address was not form and intimated that the address was first distinctly made aware of liamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matter?" Speaker—"That is not a Parliamentary question." Needham jumped up and asked—"What is the matt cis Hincks, who, he claimed, had been a leading member of the Reform party. He regretted to be obliged to say so much in his presence, but ment of the ministry, which destroyed the Rebe obliged to say so much in his presence, but his exceeding ability rendered his aid sought after by all parties, and he became Finance Minater; and a vote passed to resemble the Rehis exceeding ability rendered his aid sought form balance of the coalition.

The reply he resomething was the matter and might ask as did something was the matter and might ask as did something was the matter and might ask as did something was the met of the ministry, which destroyed the Resomething was the met of the ministry, which destroyed the Resomething was the met of the ministry, which destroyed the Resomething was the met of the ministry, which destroyed the Resomething was the meter and might ask as did something was the meter and might ask as did something was the meter of the investigation with form balance of the investigation with form balance of the investigation with form balance of the ministry, which destroyed the Resomething was the meter in order for the presentation from the Journals.

In the Assombly the After recess, Hon. McDougall made explanathis perturbation? If there's no further busiduced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, which he will move duced a series of resolutions, and condemned very strongly the arrangeister in the Assombly the After recess, Hon. McDougall made of the British Cabinet.

In the Assombly the After recess, Hon. McDougall made of the investigation with the ministry, which as a did order for the presentation or defend and the control of the investigation with the something that the Re order of the ministry, which the Re order of t

So we may look out for constitutional law in the of the various Lodges and the public gen- o'clock, by James Keenan, on Broadway. popular branch. The gentlemen have all made erally are invited to attend. numerous dinner table speeches on the question lor years and years, he had lought the battles of party issue. to carry out the act of confederation at issue, and by simply stringing these together bis country? If one of this country's sons, either He totally denied any breach of faith in altering the people being prepared for it, great prosperity of Appeal and original jurisdiction. Mr. Needthey will be able to speak from one to four tion of British Templars in Victoria Counhours without scratching their heads for an idea.

The Purification Bill was agreed to after some ty to the advertisement of their County debate. The effect of it will be to remove Lodge meeting, and to say that there will Messrs. Chandler and Hanington from their be a public Temperance meeting at 71-2 OTTAWA, March 2.—Official returns just published the expression of the wishes of the people, and to furnish some papers throwing much light on

The proceedings in the Dominion Parit must be admitted that the consummation "He believed it was the duty of every mem- Last night a snow storm of unusual power did an equal share in honors with their English fel- would be taxed, that farmers would get only ten cents a bushel for oats and be obliged to give ly into the broad arena of the Dominion Parliament, the very creation of which, it feet upon a healthy physical frame. Such was provided he approves of their policy, and his resolution to stand was hoped, would forever bury those quesect upon a nearting pursted realization and provided the approves of their policy, and this accounts of the same. Of course New Brunsour experience on Monday, the 14th. It is not private affairs admit of it. He was not in the accounts of the same. Of course New Brunsable speeches the subject matter of which was have, in the person of Mr. E. Woodbury, at shrink from. Up to the present moment he had ening, their love for their new connections. Finance Minister, just at a time when such a minister was required for the preparation of a budget, they have had, of consequence, made them obnoxious to influential indivi- nor vouchers from the paupers for such supplies. duals and parties, who cannot and will not They find by the account furnished by the Commistion, who speaks approvingly of it. It is paid bills, two thousand two hundred and ten dollars true that a mere personal reason such as one hundred and twenty-one dollars and sixteen of a Bill to authorize the Town of St. Stephen to issue high compliment to the ability of the former not on interest. The Board will observe that those Mr. Stevenson condemned the Bill as being a misre- have brought strength, strengthens that pired on the 9th of January this they brought under > going into opposition. Mr. Needham introduced a Resolution thanking Rob- of our upper Province friends, New Bruns- have received. Mr. Gough asked when the Government in- ert Gowan for his faithful services and favoring an an- wick will sigh for its old 'Parish Politics.' Your committee find by the Commissioners report

At the special meeting of the Woodstock the its rights to an Association now forming that provision be made with the view to the sale of the required oath and so prevent his being put in nomination. Or a man might be absent, as is often the case, and could not be called upon to take the oath.

Messrs. Keans, McAdam and Butler favored the Bill in short speeches.

To — "in trust for an Association now they committee believe is they took his note, which your Committ house, was a circumstance which evoked no little than the description from public contents, he being introduced by Mr. Howe on one side and Dr. Tupper on the other. Mr. Scriber, of Ontario, seconded the address. Both these gentlemen expressed themselves as favorible impressed with the temper of government; the mover particularly thought their policy such as if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria if followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria is followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria is followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria is followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria is followed, must satisfy the people of the Maria is ground the services. Appropriate remarks were remarks were remarks were restricted the country and the climate, telling disapproval it was not what had been done by lim that "upon his soul" he did not envy him disapproval it was not what had been done by him that "upon his soul" he did not envy him disapproval it was not what had been done by him that "upon his soul" he did not envy him disapproval it was not what had been done by him that "upon his soul" he did not envy him disapproval it was not what had been done by him that "upon his soul" he did not envy him disapproval it was not what had been done by him that "upon his soul" farther entire in which the accounts have been kept experience in Assembly. It did not envy him disapproval it was not what had been done by him that "upon his soul" farther entering the word male so as to permit ladies the population to over a the ficient the vector of the House. He had not envy him disapproval it was not what had been done by him that "upon his soul" farther entering the seem disposed to find considerable fault. They of abolishes the property qualifications of members, and ordering a certain number of copies of the strikes out the word male so as to permit ladies who debetes to be published in the French lane.

Railway from its present terminus, woodstock, to a experience in keeping public accounts of this sort.

Your committee without further comment submit ladies who debetes to be published in the French lane. time Provinces, Appropriate remarks were made to the visit of Prince Arthur and the attachment existing between the people of the Dominion and the Crown, these remarks, no doubt, made to the visit of Prince Arthur and the attachment existing between the people of the Dominion and the Crown, these remarks, no doubt, made to the visit of Prince Arthur and the attachment existing between the people of the Dominion significantly intimate the difficult in the Legislature of the Governor-General was a serious disappointed on the committee on public accounts and other committees. Why haven't they gone for the Legislature of the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed on the committees. Why haven't they gone for the Legislature of the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in five expressed. Progress reported.

In the Legislature the difficult in the Legislature of the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees. Why haven't they gone for the Legislature accounts and other committees. Why haven't they gone and the Crown the Arthur Arthur House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House. The House accounts and the Crown the House accounts and other committees are pointed in the House accounts and the Crown the H had caused him to lose confidence in the Govinterpretation of the Govin three to two.

Sir John A. MacDonald denied that there had beer construction of the government, but he end therefore made up his mind to pursue was he and reconstruction of the government. There were namely a change of the country, and he did not believe a change of the country, and he did not believe in policy. He explained that Mr. Rose had, out of regard for the interests of the Country and that it is government, declined for some time the offers of the country and that it would lead to a change was called for in the interest of the country and the three heads are the policy. He was desired that Mr. Rose had, out of regard for the interests of the Country and that the government, declined for some time the offers are the policy. He was desired that Mr. Rose had, out of regard for the interests of the Country and that the special policy. He was desired that Mr. Rose had, out of regard for the interests of the Country and that the special policy is a position in England that he afterward account of the government was the same thing pointedly, as well as the implication of the government he'd say the two desired that there had therefore made up his mind to pursue was he address which had been heard from the interest of the country, and he did not believe a change of povernment, which meant, he declared, simple the policy that the Legislative Coencil that the left. Government the'd say the two had the constitution of the government he'd say that two laderess which had the considered he had a right to end refused to excellent good in the intense of the country, and he did not believe a change of povernment, which meant, he declared, simple the considered he had a right to end refused to excellent good in the intense of the country, and he did not believe a change of the country. And he did not believe a change of the country and that the excellency of the continual faultinging. The constitution of the government he'd say the time the deferson in the literate of the constition of the constitution of the government of Canada, if it become law. An amendment Hon. Wm. Lindsay was at home same period amounted to $60,474,781. offered by Mr. Moore to except those now in one day during the present week.

Hon Mr. Perley has for some days past, Stephenson and Montgomery. Its fate is doubt- been at home where he has been detained,

The Bangor Cornet Band favored our citizens with a musical performance at and we have heard the music highly ex- husband and 7 children and a large circle of friends

To Correspondents.—No attention will be given to communications, unless accompanied by the real name of the author.

Sir William Colebrooke, formerly Governor of New Brunswick, died at Salt Hall, Bucks, at the advanced age of 83 years, on the 6th ult.

There was a very successful public Temperance meeting held at Union Hall, scarcely being advanced, regard being had Upper Woodstock, on Wednesday evening last, Mr. G. D. Jackson in the chair. There and the exercises of the evening were greatpoliticians of old Canada still engaged fight ly enlivened by some pieces exceedingly ing over old political and party and perso- well recited by Mr. Shepherd, a blind man.

We publish the following Bye-Law, for A Law to Regulate the sale of Hay & Straw.

Be it enacted by the Town Council of the Town of bad feeling with the little bits of political Woodstock, that any person or persons selling or exour experience on Monday, the 14th. It is not latter position. He had no private reasons for latter position. He had no shifts resorted to of old in Canada, must same at one of the Scales owned or leased by said Town, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than One Bollar, nor more than Four Dollars.

The Committee of the Board of Supervision, appointed to examine and report upon the Accounts of the Commissioners and the Keeper of the Alms House for the year 1869. report as follows :-

The General Account of the Commissioners, this they examined. They find there is no detailed account of the items supplied to the paupers, and are, therefore, unable to come to any conclusion as to the the train leaves on the E. & N. A. Rainoad for the minority still to claim that they have not been the regretted that they are solven to the regretted that they have not been the regre Bangor, which city is reached in time, without delay, to take car on the Maine Central for delay, to take car on the Maine Central for independent these negotiations had been fraught. indications with regard to Nova Scotta. The position of the Woodstock and Riviere rather than those whose antecedents have rather than those whose rather than the rather than those whose rather than the rat pensation on account of land on which he had claims having been granted to another party.

Progress was then reported.

Rind weak reasoning and very inconcitative (350) to the land the land of the land on which he had conclusions are included in frequently, on the land on the land on which he had claims having been granted to another party.

Progress was then reported.

Progress was then reported.

Progress was then reported. -as an instance, while the Premier states They find due G. W. Vanwart $60.61, for which Fredericton, 28th February, 1870.

Saturday was taken up principally with the discussion

Saturday was taken up principally with the discussion

Galt should succeed Mr. Rose, paying a the Parish is paying at the rate of 7 per cent. interest. They find due Dr. C. P. Connell $55 not on interest. Galt should succeed Mr. Rose, paying a Extra Heavy Silk Finished bonds to the amount of $15,000, as a bonus to the Houlton Branch Railway Company. Mr. Hibbard spoke strongly against the Bill and characterized it as a private enterprise, calculated only to serve private in the course of the finest ever delivered here, expressed pleaa private enterprise, calculated only to serve private ends and enrich a few speculators. He considered that the people had been deceived and were not informed of the project for extending the St. Stephen Branch to Calais.

RIBBBONS, In the project for extending the St. Stephen Branch to Government, according to its leader would same. They find the Insurance on the Buildings ex-

> Well, our conclusion is that unless a sented to as, are not satisfactory, in as much as there Government of that Province, (hear, hear). It ed, and denied that the government had proved other specifying the time for this one to come in the specifying the time for this is no general account of the items furnished, nor is that there are at present seventeen paupers receiving weekly support, and of those only four are in the Alms House. Besides this they find that there is paid at Ottawa in the Globe to the effect that the Court of Angel Bill had been withdrawn in consequence of the remonstrance of the Bench and Bar of New Brunswick.

He read this to show the necessity that existed for im
He read this to show the necessity that existed for im
Hon. Mr. Lindsay was called to the chair,

Hon. Mr. Lindsay was called to the chair,

Hon. Mr. Lindsay was called to the chair, search the Journals of the Legislative Council mediate action on the Resolution which he had proposed and ascertain what action has been taken in re- for an address to the Governor General on the subject. for an address to the Governor General on the subject.

Mr. Gough followed in reply to the Anti ideas which
Mr. Needham expressed when he closed the debate on the Resolution.

The chairman read the Requisition was called, prove that the Alms House has not realized what was and explained the object to be, to take in- intended, and is a failure under its present manage-Mr. Needham of course replied, taking strong ground against Confederation, and saying he only waited to be sent to Ottawa when he could tell Sir John A. what he thought of him, and then he was willing to die.

Mr. Needham of course replied, taking strong ground against Confederation, and saying he only waited to be sent to Consideration the propriety of the Woodsent to Consideration the propriety of the Woodsent to Consideration the propriety of the Woodsent to Ottawa when he could tell Sir John A. what he thought of him, and then he was willing to die.

Brunswick Railway Company," for the pur- of assessment for twelve hundred dollars, for the sup-Bill to amend the law in relation to Registry of Deeds pose of building a line of railroad from port of the poor for the ensuing year, and as your com-coaches, or in any manner whatever to influence the good deal of speechifying, but by far the Your Committee find that the late keeper, Mr. Chrisvestigation into the "Raffeinstein" frauds lest great rottenness may be discovered. These things all go to suggest an interesting and exciting and exciting and exciting and exciting as session, the result of which it were hard to independ a serious burden upon the company were in a state of unrest and suspicion, way would itself form a serious burden upon the resources of the country. He regretted to observe that the policy which had been pursued to allay, but despect to the greater portion of it was entirely irrelevant to specching and exciting The Attorney General opposed the Bill. He said it meeting than to say that a resolution was they recommended in their report that the present Hon. Mr. King favored delay, and progress Bill, in his humble opinion, would prevent the people priviliges, excepting such as attach to the acting on said recommendation, made further advances priviliges, excepting such as attach to the acting on said recommendation, made further advances priviliges, excepting such as attach to the said Christopher Robinson, by which they in exercising that right, as any man could refuse to take the required oath and so prevent his being put in nominate the required oath and so prevent his being put in nominate the required oath and so prevent his being put in nominate to the said Christopher Robinson, by which they increased his liability to some thirty dollars, for which every confidence in the honesty of the present com- made to the Legislature at its present session THE action of the House of Assembly in ner in which the accounts have been kept to a lack of Railway Company power to extend the Woodstock their report with the accounts as they have received | Stickney's mill .

H. E. DIBBLEE,
PHILIP McCAFFERY. Committee,

Telegraphic News.

Canada and the Crown Lawyers of England.— mencing at 7 1-2 o'clock, P. M. Members the frish American, was shot last evening, about 11 hood. The wound is a dangerous one. Gold opened at 115. New York, March 2.—Despatches from San Fran-her way rendering no assistance. The Oneida sunk show that the Dominion imports for the year ending June 30th, 1869, amounted to $67,402,170, giving a revenue of $8,298,809. In the above free goods were re- Colors. Also, worked in India Ink, and at presented to the value of $22,681,329 exports for the

MARRIED.

At the Parsonage, Jacksonville, on the 2nd inst.

DIED.

At Southampton, Feb. 25th, Mr. Obediah Akerly. At Waterville, Dec. 29th, ult. Hannah, wife of Mr to mourn her loss. Her end was peace. Intelligencer please copy.

New Advertisements.

1870.

Buyers to the Great Sacrifice Sale,

WOODSTOCK,

Still continues,

FOR SALE

Are an Endless Variety of Dress Materials, Men's Clothing, of every Description, Lace Window Curtains,

DAMASKS,

All Wool west of England

Black Velveteens, Factory Cottons, CARPETS,

SHAWLS, OSNABURGS. the notice of the Commissioners, and it has been re- Silks, Tickings. A Superior let of White Flanuels : Gilt Window Cornices, &c., &c., &c.

Goods sold for

AT THE

Immense Sacrifice

One Dollar's, WORTH FOR

"BRITISH HOUSE," WOODSTOCK.

CAUTION.

THIS is to forbid all persons from purchasing or ne-

Dated, Woodstock, Feb. 26th, 1870 .- 10 Cabbage Seeds, &c. CHOICE Varieties Cabbago Seeds -8 varieties Cauliflower Seeds; 7 varieties best Celery Seeds.

HANNINGTON BROS., st john mar 28

VICTORIA HOUSE.

To Housekeepers! HAVE on hand a good assortment of the following

Oranges, Cigars, Tobacco, Pastry

Flour, &c. LOGAN & LINDSAY.

25 BOXES Messina Oranges;
10 boxes Navy 6s Tobacco, bright 10 cases 8-Caddies, each Navy quarters dez; 5 M Cable Cigars, best stamped;

150 Reams Straw Paper. st john march 2 62 King street Shirts

MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON, No. 2 Market Square. st john mar 2 BRYSON'S

MADE to order and a perfect fit guaranteed.

Cheap than can be obtained of any Travelling Saloen in the County.

VERY LOW PRICES. Satisfaction given in all cases, if within reason. CASES & OVAL FRAMES constantly on hand and at low prices.

Call and examine. Instructions given in the art. December 1, 1869-49