At Wilmot, C. Co., on the 6th ult., after a lingering illness of inflammation of the brain, Mary Elizabeth, third child of Edward and Cecilia Wheeler, aged 2 years, 10 months, and 8 days. A mound is in the graveyard, A short and narrow bed; No grass is growing on it, And no marble at its head. You may go and weep beside it, You may kneel and kiss the sod, But you'll find no balm for sorrow, In the cold and silent clod.

There is anguish in the household, It is desolate and lone, For a fondly cherished nursling, From the parent nest has flown.

A little form is missing,
A heart has ceased to beat;
And the chain of love lies shattered. At the desolator's feet. (Christian Visitor please copy).
