A CURIOUS CUSTOM.—In North Holland, every house has an artificial door which is elevated about three feet above the level of the ground. This door is used but upon two occasions. When any one of the family marries, the bride and bridegroom enter the house door; and when either of the parties die, many Magistrates and other influential gentlemen the corpse is carried out by the same of the place, is omitted for want of space.

A man who was not very careful in personal appearances, tells this story of himself: I went to the drug store early one morning for a dose of morphine for a sick friend. The night clerk objected to Small & Fisher giving it to me without the prescription, evidently fearing I meant to destroy myself. "Pshhaw," said I, "do I look like a man who would kill himself?" Gazing at me steadily for half a moment, he replied: "I don't know. Seems to me, if I looked like you, I should be greatly tempted to kill myself.

A CURE FOR WHOOPING COUGH. ST. HYACINTHE, C.E., Aug. 21, 1856. Mesers. BETH W. FOWER & SON.

Gentlemen:—Several months since a little daughter of mine, ten years of age, was taken with Whooping Cough in a very aggravated form, and nothing we could do for her seemed in any way to relieve her suffering. We at length decided to try a bottle of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In three hours after she had commenced using it, she was greatly relieved, and in less than three days was entirely cured, and is now well. I have since recommended the Balsam to many of my neighbors, who have used it, and in no case have I known it fail of effecting a speedy cure.

You are at liberty to make any use of the above you think proper. If it shall induce anybody to use your Balsam I shall be glad, for I have great confidence in it. With this aim in view. to increase the facilities for executing all orders with success and satisfaction, alterations and improvements—at a considerable outlay—have been completed, the result of which is that our DRESS & MANTLE FITTING DE-PARTMENT, is now one of the most Commodious and Convenient in the City of St. John.
