SENTINEL OFFICE, removed to Allan's Brick Building, up stairs.

We were surprised last week to find the Reporter expressing the hope that the Government would not bring down the school measure. Our hope is that there may be found in the Executive sufficient patriotism to induce them, whatever the consequences to themselves, to redeem the character lost when they withdrew the bill last year. They have learned pretty well what is required by the people, and if the people themselves in the future do not know what they want, an Executive of ordinary intelligence should be able to judge for them in matters of this kind. Surely we have had enough of this kind of shuffling and shuffling work with the school measure of our Province. Surely our people have longed long enough, long enough, for the want of a good school law. Look at our local politicians of to-day and we need look no further to conclude that unless there be a change we must continue to be ruled by the same set of men, and that the right kind of men to legislate for us. Wherever we turn our eyes, we find upon the same young persons, many of whom are of necessity growing up in ignorance of that rudimentary education which should form the basis of a high and beneficial intellectual superstructure. Bring in a measure and don't be afraid. Launch a bill as complete, as proficient, and as simple as you can make it, and trust to future legislation to improve upon it. From time to time complexities and otherwise objectionable features will be met by the bill of last session. But let us have something tangible to work with. On every hand we find our sister Provinces outstripping us. Nova Scotia delights in a system for which on its passage she executed the law. Her Legislature, Ontario still in the van, has made her system more perfect by making attendance at the common schools compulsory, recognizing the fact that the children of the state are its property, and should not suffer through the neglect, ignorance, or neglect of their parents.

We happened, a short time since, upon a speech of the President of the Province, in which he says: "The people oblige themselves to be vaccinated. They take the vaccine matter, and, for vaccination is a preventative from fatal pestilence. Now, primary instruction is, so to speak, a moral vaccine which preserves the people from that worst of pestilence—ignorance—from those crude notions which bring them to the level of the beasts, and which change him into the fit and final instrument for robbery, assassination, revolution, and, in fine, for all evil. Primary education is more; it is a kind of baptism in which a man is regenerated from the dark ignorance in which he is born, and into the light of knowledge, and into the enjoyment of those rights and privileges which are his heritage."

Pretty sound doctrine that. Let our Government do their duty in this matter; if they fail, let some one make a name for himself, by prompt action, knowing that whatever the present effect may be.

SUNDAY.—An Inquest was held in the house of R. B. Buley, in this Town, before John T. Allan, Coroner, Thursday morning last, on the body of a young man named Peter, who had been killed by a horse on the morning of the 18th inst. The body was found lying on his back, with his throat cut; a razor was lying on the ground. The evidence before the jury showed that the young man was laboring for the past few days under the influence of the venereal disease. The coroner's jury returned a verdict that the death was caused by his own hand, under mental disability.

As will be seen by our Fredericton correspondence, the Government has tendered its resignation. It has been accepted, and Mr. Hatfield called upon to select nine men, possessing the confidence of the House, and capable of advising His Excellency in all affairs of state. In an article, when satisfied that the resignation was accepted, and not prolonging the event at the expense of the country.

Just as we go to press we learn that the Government has been reconstructed, and new members are being selected. The following are the new members of the Council:

"Mr. King, Attorney General,
 "Mr. Hatfield, Prov. Secretary,
 "Mr. Stevenson, Surveyor Genl.,
 "Mr. Kelly, Chief Commissioner of Education,
 "Messrs. Cairns and Covert, without office. On Tuesday evening the House was prorogued, to be called together again, it is said, the 6th April next.

There was a large audience to hear Mr. T. Allan, agent of the G. Lodge, B. W. O., on Thursday evening. We have but space to say that the lecture was a good one—well delivered—well received.

We are requested to state that Elder Garraty, from St. John, is in Town, and will preach this (Friday) evening, on Lord's day, 26th inst., in Brown's Hall. Subject this evening, "Peter and the Keys of the Church." Commences at 7.30 o'clock.

There is nothing of yet of importance from the Dominion Parliament to lay before our readers. The Senior Editor is at Ottawa, and will keep our readers informed hereafter, of parliamentary proceedings.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have to apologise to our "Lawrence Correspondent" for the non-appearance of his two last letters; but so much of a special local character has crowded our columns, that it was impossible for us to find space for them. Next week one of our letters will appear.

Hon. Wm. Lindsay has for our thanks for a copy of the Governor's speech, and proposed reply thereto.

We are requested to say that Rev. Mr. Addy will preach a sermon especially intended for the young, in the Methodist Church, here, to-morrow (Sunday) evening.

BOOK NOTICES.—Through Messrs. J. & A. McMillan, St. John, we have the March issue of the Magazine. This is one of the most popular Magazines published in N. B. It is a well written, and well illustrated, and well adapted for the young. It contains a great deal of interesting and useful information, and is a well adapted for the young. It contains a great deal of interesting and useful information, and is a well adapted for the young.

God's Law's Book, for March, and what shall we say of it? Simply that whether in the engravings, fashion plates, work in the illustrations, or in the matter of the magazine for the ladies. No lady in justice to herself can afford to be without the Lady's Book. We can furnish it to subscribers to the SENTINEL for $2.25 per year.

FOR THE CARLETON SENTINEL.

MR. EDITOR.—In looking over the last week's issue of the SENTINEL, I noticed that the remarks of Roger McMillan and John N. Raymond, published in the SENTINEL, they are made to say, "but we have reason to believe that S. G. Burpee, a resident of the Province, has been making a great deal of money out of the sale of the Lady's Book. I would like to ask those gentlemen what is the foundation of their belief. I paid every cent that I received, and that they are not in it. I remain, yours truly,
