DUBLIN, August, 6.—In spite of the prohibition of the authorities friends of amnesty attempted to hold a meeting in the afternoon in Phonix Park. Smyth, member of Parliament, Sullivan, editor of the Nation, and John Sullivan Byrn, of the Irishman, entered the Park with a large crowd. Police Superintendent How, standing on the Wellington monument, ordered them to desist, when he was hurled to the bottom of the monument and barbarously maltreated. A fearful riot ensued. The Police charged upon the mob, and the fight lasted half an hour, when the police were reinforced and dispersed the rioters. Smyth, Sullivan and a man named Nolan were badly wounded, and over one hundred were injured. Wounded persons have been taken to the Hospital. The leaders in the attempt to-day will be prosecuted.

DUBLIN, August, 7:—One despatch from Dublin states that the Vice Regal Lodge in which the Royal party are stopping had the windows smashed and the building badly damaged, but the occupants received no injury. Several places visited by the Royal party were gutted on Sunday by the mob. Sullivan, the editor of the Nation, was seriously injured, and his death is probable. In London great apprehension was felt for the safety of the Royal party, as it was feared that the rioters might toverpower the authorities. It is understood that the most stringent measures will be adopted against the arrested rioters. To-day is a Bank holiday. Markets closed.
