The Revenue of Great Britain.—The Treasury return issued last night is the last weekly account of the financial year. The budget estimate of revenue was £277,034,000, and the actual receipts to Saturday last, with another week to run before the close of the year, were £285,322,240. The sources of revenue were as follows:—

Customs	119,975,000
Excise	22,530,000
Stamps	8,810,000
Taxes	2,688,000
Income tax	9,000,000
Post office	4,080,000
Telegraph service	600,000
Crown lands	385,000
Miscellaneous	2,075,240

The total receipts in the corresponding period last year were £274,193,805. With this balance in the Exchequer at the beginning of the year, the total amount is raised to £77,882,877 against which there has been expenditure of £38,138,011, the estimate having been £38,138,011. The items are:—Interest of debt, £28,833,437; other charges on consolidated bills, £2,000,338; supply service voted by Parliament, £39,940,975; telegraph service, £2,924,374; advances under various accounts, £1,285,300; interest on the public debt, £150,000; Exchequer bonds and bills, £c, paid off, £600,000; Exchequer bonds paid out of surplus income applied to reduce debt (exclusive of £1,700,000 applied to repay Bank advance for deficiency), £2,483,740; total, £70,924,615. The balances on the 25th instant were—In Bank of England, £3,862,472; and in the Bank of Ireland, £1,345,463.

The Chicago Tribune, the leading free trade organ of the West, occasionally makes some telling hits at the prejudices and misrepresentations of the great American nation. In its issue of a day or two since, it gave a list of all the members of the Royal Family of England, and expressed the commendable sentiment of thankfulness that the maintenance of such a burden was not upon American shoulders. It adds, with some indignation, the following items of American taxation, for the consideration of its patriotic readers:—

Tax collected on salt	$ 5,250,000
Received by the Government	1,323,000
Paid over to salt companies	$ 3,927,000
Tax collected on pig iron	$30,000,000
Received by the Government	1,800,000
Paid to pig iron companies	$18,400,000

The expense of the maintenance of the Royal Family in its branches amounts annually to more than $1,700,000, while the sum paid to the salt companies is twice that amount, and to the pig iron corporations as much as said to support the Government of Russia, Holland, Belgium, Italy, Austria, Bavaria, Prussia, and Greece.

An English paper of recent date says:—In order to test soon in the day of night and without previous warning the fleet could be brought into an active and energetic condition. Next day his wife called at the bank in tears to get money enough to leave town, and was given $100.

A despatch from St. Paul, Minn., states that the track is being laid on the Northern Pacific Railroad at the rate of one mile per day and over three thousand men are employed in the construction of the work. Cars are now being run on the line, and the number of men employed is increasing.

Water is six feet deep in Pioche, Colo., and whiskey four.

A few iron nails placed in a vase with flowers will keep the water sweet and the flowers fresh. It is said that the sulphur in the water of Pioche is the cause of the disease.

An Iowa farmer delirious with fever, jumped down a thirty-foot well, climbed out and died.

Miss Rye, who sailed for England on the 15th April, intends bringing to Canada another 100 girls. The last lot she brought are nearly all either for a term of years or by adoption to respectable families in the different parts of this country. Earl de Grey and Sir S. Northcote, members of the High Commission at Washington, are to accompany Miss Rye to visit her "Home" before they return to England.—Ottawa Citizen.

They say that a thousand Coolies are to be brought from Asia to work in the Portland, Me., stone and granite quarries. It is estimated that the value of the stone and granite quarries in the State of Maine is $1,000,000 per annum. The stone and granite quarries in the State of Maine are the most productive of any State in the Union. Prince Arthur has just presented to the Museum of the Royal Artillery at Woolwich a converted Springfield rifle and bayonet, and a United States cavalry sword, taken from a Penian prisoner captured in a skirmish in Canada on the 16th May 1870.

A few nights ago a Kerosene lamp in the house of a colored family near Bladenburg, Md., exploded, setting fire to a bed in which were two children, one of whom was burned to death, and the other severely injured that its life is despaired of. The father of the children ran in and threw the bed out of the window. He fell on his wife, and her clothes taking fire, she too was badly burned. The injured child cannot survive. One ear is burned off and the bones are laid bare on one side of the face.

What, says the Bombay Herald, will be the result of the election to the office of a Hindoo Temple in the midst of Christian London? We give them fair warning that such a thing is threatened. There was a meeting of influential natives held in the State of Jeonaghar (in Kattawar), a few days ago, at which it was resolved to raise a subscription for the purpose of conveying the Hindoo temple to India, and to erect in England for the purpose of finishing their education. And a respectable vernacular paper in Bombay asserts that the temple of Hurbaksh Mahadev is to be erected in London out of the fund, about a lack of rupees being set apart for that purpose.

The Prince of Lyons, one of the Emperors of the French, has just arrived in New York. His visit is for the purpose of marrying Miss May Parsons, daughter of George Parsons, of Columbus, Ohio.

Pere Hyacinthe has returned to Paris. He does not intend to leave the Roman Catholic Church, but will return to the monastery, and is not permitted to preach.

The Bangor Whig in concluding an account of the progress of operations upon the Euro-Asian route, says:—The route is now open to-day with Old England. I know her surely faults; I know her stubborn conceit; I know how many things are mischievous among her common people; but I know that she is a nation that represents so much Christianity as Old England. If you do not like to hear it I like to say it: And the strongest power on the globe today is that kingdom.

Brother Smith, what does this mean? "Bringing a nigger to this church." "The pew is my own." "Your own! Is that any reason you should insult the whole congregation?" "But he is intelligent and well educated." "Who cares for that? He is a nigger?" "What is a friend of mine?" "What of that? Must you therefore insult the whole congregation?" "But he is a Christian, and belongs to the same denomination, and worships with his fellow negroes." "But he is worth five million dollars." "What?" "Five million dollars." "Worth five million dollars! Jerusalem! Worth five millions! Brother Smith, introduce me."

King Amalio is finding his Spanish throne not a bed of roses, and has therefore intimated in the Cortes that he will forward a motion for the detronement of the new sovereign.

Schnury, the great Cossack chief, is dead, aged 74 years. He was at one time a sore thorn in the side of Russia.

A Florence despatch, dated April 20th, announces that the discussion of the Papal guarantee continues in the Italian Senate. The Minister of Justice has announced in the Chamber of Deputies the approaching introduction of a bill for the separation of Church and State.

The perils of the sea are exemplified in the despatch estimating that during the present fishing season six vessels and sixty-three men, hailing from Gloucester, Mass., have been lost at sea while engaged in their arduous and dangerous calling. Four of these vessels, with all hands, are believed to have been lost during a heavy gale on the Newfoundland Bank in the early part of this month.

It is stated that the premature announcement of the Princess of Wales is due to an accident which she had on Christmas. She was at that time residing at Sandringham, and there was a grand torchlight festival on the ice, at which the Princess distinguished herself as one of the most successful skaters. In the act, however, of assisting a young lady who had stumbled, she herself received a severe fall.

A poultry story is told in the Hartford Courant of a young couple who wanted to have a large flock of chickens, but they could not afford to buy them; they were so poor that they could not afford to buy them. They were so poor that they could not afford to buy them.

A VERY SINGULAR PLANT.—Have plants instinct, intelligence? One is inclined to entertain the startling proposition when considering the curious mechanism of choice of feeding exhibited in their habits and capacity for voluntary motion by some of the more highly organized species of the vegetable kingdom.

There grows in the boggy lands on the southern lake shore, not far from our city, a little obscure plant which none but the botanist would ever note or discover, but which possesses most peculiar characteristics. It consists of a tuft of diminutive, orbicular leaves, from the centre of which shoots up in mid-summer a slender stem of inconspicuous flowers. But the leaves have the appearance of a fan, and are furnished with a clear, viscid fluid resembling dew. These increase in size and number with the fervor of the sun, while real dew deepens the heat of the rays. It is from this circumstance that the plant derives its name of sun-dew.

But the design of this novel secretion is yet more curious than the fact of its elaboration. It attracts by its sweetness insects, gnats, flies and midges, which do not sooner touch, and use it as a food. It is so adhesive that it clings to the body of the insect, and holds it fast. Then the delicate hairs move slowly but surely upon the victim, and fix their little points like pins into the body and suck its juices until it is dry. This accomplished, they are ready to depart, and return to their ordinary positions, and await the entanglement of fresh prey. Incredible as this seems, its truth has often been proved by the testimony of trust worthy observers.

Moreover, it has been found impossible to preserve these plants in any other position, and it is said that they are very sensitive to the atmosphere of the room in which they are placed. They are very sensitive to the atmosphere of the room in which they are placed.

The singular habit of capturing insects is also common to the Venus fly-trap, a plant which is found in the vicinity of Wilmington, North Carolina. In this plant the leaves are furnished with the summit with an appendage fringed with hairs, which is shaped something like a steel trap, and operates much like one. When the luckless fly that chances to brush against one of its long bristles, it is entangled in its folds, and generally catches the insect in its folds, and generally catches the insect in its folds.

Poetry.

GOING ALONE.
With curls in the merry air tossing,
With light in the sunny blue eyes;
With laughter so clearly outbursting,
A laugh of delight and surprise;
All friendly assistance declining,
And trusting no strength but his own—
The past fears and trials forgotten,
The baby is "going alone."

She sprang out of bed, thrust her feet into a pair of silk-lined slippers, and threw a shawl over her shoulders.
Mr. Chesterton bit his lip and checked her.
"No need, Fanny," he said a little bitterly, "I must leave the house in fifteen minutes, or miss the train. It's no use speaking to cook now."
"I am so sorry, Frank."

Mr. Chesterton did not answer. He was apparently absorbed in turning over the various articles in his bureau drawer, while Fanny sat shivering on the edge of the bed, cogitating how hard it was for her husband to start on a long journey that bitter morning without any breakfast.
"I can make a cup of coffee, myself," she exclaimed.
"But Mr. Chesterton again interposed. "Sit down, Fanny, please. I would rather you would sew this button on the neck of my shirt. I have packed the others—that are fit to wear. I have shirts enough, but not one in repair. I have trousers enough, but not one in repair. I have a waistcoat, but it is soiled and stained. I have a pair of socks, but they are soiled and stained.
