one need desire to gave upon.

Of course, under the circumstances of weather, the forenoon attendance was not sufficiently large to encourage the Asso-ciation, so far as the financial results were concerned, but later in the day the attendance became large and probably remunerative. There were present visitors from different parts of Aroostook County and from and wear in Carletone

The Woodstock Cornet Band enlivened the meeting with music, and we may take the opportunity of giving our testimony to the great improvement this Band is constantly making.
