SENTINEL OFFICE, in Allan's Brick Building, up stairs.

WE give insertion to the communica tion of Mr. Lynch to-day, with pleasure: it speaks for itself and calls for but few observations from us; but we feel it to be as the subject has been thus prominently brought before the public, a public duty to submit the action of the Board of Trustees, in order that there may be no misapprehension.

We do not hesitate most cordially to endorse the sentiments of Mr. Lynch respecting the character and usefulness of in the sphere for which it, of course, was remind our correspondent that there are other sectarian schools and institutions ernment. scattered all over the Province, under the directions of various bodies of christians, this is no exceptional case.
