DEAR SENTINEL, - Some time having elapsed since I scratched you a line, I hardly expect to be recognized as a correspondent .-But be that as it may, I will venture to send you a few lines in the rough, leaving it to you to put in readable shape. New York is few days of cool weather has set in; for people have commenced to come back from the country. This city has never been so deserted since the days of "ye old Knickerbockers," as it has been during the last three months. The "heated term" set in on the first of June, and it has been one continual scorch since; we had the regular amount of thunder and lightning; but thunder showers lost their virtue this summer, for after they
