6] RESIDENCE, -COLONEL TUPPER'S. DOCTOR SMITH

Has Removed his Drug Shop to IN returning thanks to the inhabitants of Wood QUINN'S NEW RUILDING,

MAIN STREET. Two doors South of B. Lynch's New Store, VICTORIA HOUSE, where will be found a full WHERE his stock of DRUGS, PATENT MEDICINES, HORSE MEDICINES, STATIONERY, BOOKS, and FANCY GOODS, will be found equal in quality and as low in price as any in the market. Woodstock, Feb 5, 1869

Dr. C. P Connell, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Office and Residence, next to Honorable Charles Connell's.

STEPHEN SMITH, M. D. Physician, Surgeon, and Accoucheur Has removed his residence, to his new Building, two doors north of the Episcopal Church, Main Street.

HAVING REMOVED from my old stand, in front of American House, I take this oppor-OFFICE-In Quinn's New Building, Main Street. | tunity to thank my customers, one and all, for their Woodstock, April 29 1865. N. R. COLTER, M. D., confident I shall be able to accommodate at short

(L. R. C. P. L., ENGLAND,) Office at H. R. Baird's Drug Store. Resi- and Straps, and everything usually found in a firstdence, near the Methodist Chapel, DR. COLTER has held public appointments in Medicine and Surgery at St. Thomas' Hospital, London. Consultation as above.

Woodstock, Feb. 7, 1868-3m-pd-7 Dr. REYNOLDS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, CENTRAL OFFICE

UPPER CORNER, WOODSTOCK. RESIDENCE-Mr. Archibald Plummer's, Jack ontown Road. James Edgar, BARRISTER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, SOLICITOR, CONVEYANCER, &c.

OFFICE,—Brown's Brick Building, opposite ty of Victoria. Cable House, Woodstock, N. B. January 27, 1870-5 WILLIAM M. CONNELL

Attorney at Law, Solicitor Conveyancer, New Albion House, NOTARY PUBLIC, INSURANCE AGENT, &c.

STEPHEN B. APPLEBY Attorney at Law. Office -In Allen's Brick Building, (up stairs). for the strict attention paid to its numerous guests, the "New Albion" takes its position as WOODSTOCK, N. B

SAMUEL J. BAKER,

ATTORNEY - AT - LAW Solicitor, Conveyancer, &c. ANDOVER, Victoria County, N.

(Mouth of Tobique River.) RESIDENCE-At Newcomb's Hotel.

Donaldson Late Caldwell or International Hotel.

MHIS HOUSE is New, pleasantly situated, near the Steamboat Wharf, furnished in Good Street in Montreal, commanding a Magnificent Style and will be kept as a

First-Class Hotel. ROBERT DONALDSON. - Proprietor. Woodstock, N. B., April 1870-15

WOODSTOCK HOTEL, RE-OPENED. DEING thoroughly repaired, refitted, and fur- Notwithstanding the very large outlay in

D nished, is now opened for the accommoda- building and furnishing the house, the old price tion of permanent and transient Boarders. This House being conducted on strictly TEMPER-ANCE PRINCIPLES, the subscriber hopes to receive a liberal share of patronage. There is attached to this House a Good Stable and attentive hostler. Charges moderate. J. MARSHALL, - Proprietor. Woodstock, May 13, 1870.-20

WILLIAM R. NEWCOMB. STAGE HOUSE - TOBIQUE. Comfortable Extras Furnished at the shortest notice for any point .

Russell House; PARK STREET,

NEAR THE PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS. OTTAWA. J. A. GOUIN, Proprietor.

AMERICAN HOUSE

C. F. ESTEY, PROPRIETOR 39 KING STREET, ST.JOHN, N.B. Good Stabling on the premises. [20]

UNITED STATES HOTEL, PORTLAND, Me., E. CRAM & CO., Proprietors.

TRUNK FACTORY! 49 GERMAIN STREET

ST. JOHN, N. B. THE subscriber has now on hand a superior lot Domestic Trunks & Valises! In all the varied styles and finish, viz:-Leather.

Cloth, Composition, Zinc, Canvass, &c., made of best material, by experienced workmen. For sale at lowest market rates, Orders from the country attended to with W. H. KNOWLES.

HOUSE, BARKER

Queen Street, Fredericton. THE attention of travellers is called to thisold A and favorite first-class Hotel. No pains spared to make visitors at home and comfortable.

Fredericton, Dec. 9, 1870.- ly-50

THE QUEEN'S HOTEL,

TORONTO, ONT., OFFERS every inducement to persons visitin
Toronte to make it their stopping place.

Hon. A. M'L. Seely.

Messrs. Jardine & It is situated upon the very margin of the Bay, Hon. Thos. R. Jones. Messrs. Daniel & Boyd and convenient to the business centres of the city. Messrs. I.& F. Burpee& Co. W. O. Smith, Esq Omnibusses carry its patrons free to and from | St. John, June 8 .- 3mos-24. the several Steamboats and Railways trains. $2.50 (Gold) per day.

THOS, McGAW, THOS. DICK, Proprietor. Manager.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. THE new and completely and elegantly furnished VICTORIA HOTEL, just erected in Saint John. N. B. Special prices made for families

A LARGE quantity of SALT, Coarse & Fine; Codfish, Herring, bbls, & hlf. bbls; Files of all descriptions, Grind Stones;

Carlina Sentinel.

SAMUEL & JAMES WATTS,]

F. G. RAY.

Our Queen and Constitution.

VOL. XXIV.-NO. 16.

CARDY

A stock and surrounding country, for their pat-ronage while doing business in Woodstock, the dersigned would inform his friends and the pubilding. Water Street, St. Stephen, known as lic generally, that he has removed to Waddell's assortment of Staple Dry Goods, Read ;-Made Cloth-

NOTICE.

Frodericton, Oct. 1, 1870

Harness Shop!

ON MAIN STREET.

past patronage, and solicit a continuance of the Co-Partnersnip Notice.

STARRETT & BURTT

2,000 Acres of Land for Sale.

McGILL STREET,

Montreal, Canada.

THE "NEW ALBION HOTEL," the largest

Hotel in Montreal, has just been opened un-

Whilst the "Old Albion" has been long noted luxury during the hot summer season. And, tels, the Bedrooms are all well ventilated and Being situated on the widest and healthies view of the River St. Lawrence and the Victoria

Bridge on the left, and a full view of the Victoria

Square with its numerous "Jet. d' Eau" and Mount Royal on the right, it cannot fail to com mend itself to the travelling public. From its situation on McGill Street, the great thoroughfare and commercial centre of the City, it cannot fail to be, as the "Old Albion" has al-

A FIRST CLASS

SHAVING AND

SHAMPOOING SALOON,

NOW OPEN.

Montreal May 1st, 1869.-16

ren's Hair.

Razors carefully set.

Shop on Corner Main and King Streets.

IMPORTER OF MARBLE,

AND MANUFACTURER OF

MONUMENTS, TOMB TABLES

GRAVE STONES, &C.,

Centre, Pier Tables and Mantles

CUTED IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

Place of business,-

Main street,

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

W. H. OLIVE.

AND TICKET AGENT.

TICKETS SOLD

For all Points in Canada, via Vermont

Coy's. Landing, Reed's Point.

SAINT JOHN, N. B.

FOR SALE!

Nails, Wrought and Cut, Horse Nails;

White Lead, Paint Oils, Boiled & Raw:

And a great variety of Goods constantly re-

J. JORDAN.

Also Flour & Meal, Sugars;

Cotton Warps, White & Blue;

Glass & Putty, Carpenter's Tools;

Locks & Hinges, Cross Cut Saws.

Woodstock, July 29, 1870-tf-31

Molasses & Teas;

REFERENCES BY PERMISSION.

Woodstock, Aug. 20, 1868. 34.

Railroad.

Central Railroad.

B. W. HARVEY.

ROBERT S. STARRETT. SAMUEL O. BURTT.

Apply to S. J. BAKER, Attorney-at-Law,

Tobique, N.

Please observe he Address.

on his own account.

class Harness Shop.

Please give me a call.

Woodstock Nov. 10 1881 .- 45

on the late firm of Emery & Starrett.

Woodstock, Aug. 25, 1871.-34

Tobique, Dec 10, 1870-tf-51

der the most favorable auspices.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SATURDAY, APRIL 20, 1872

ISSUES DRAFTS on St. John, Boston, and New York. Makes TELEGRAPHIC TRANSFERS in St Particular attention given to buying and selling United States Currency. Woodstock, March 9, 1o72.-10

G. W. VANWART,

EXCHANGE BROKER,

WOODSTOCK, N. B.,

Surveying.

STEPHEN E. STEVENS, W. SHERMAN will continue the busi-ness of the late firm of SHERMAN & ROB-INDIANTOWN, ST. JOHN, INSON, at the old stand, in his own name and Office in Hamm's Building.

THE subscriber in returning thanks to his numerous patrons for past tavors, begs to remind them and the public that he is still prepared with greatly increased accomodations, to prosecute his business as Surveyor of Lumber. Doors Below Baker & McCormac's Shoe Shop, Parties entrusting Lumber to his care may be assured that his best and personal attention will be given to further their interests. Lumber will be received, and advances made thereon, at Spring Hill, when desired.

Constantly on hand: Harnesses of kinds, Harness Mountings, Whips, Bells, Horse Blankets, Curry Combs, Cards, Interfering Rolls

EXPRESS NOTICE. same. Having an enlarged Shop and Stock I feel The Eastern Express Company WILL FORWARD DAILY,

> IN charge of their Special Messenger, via N. B. & C. and E. & N. A. Railway, Money, Valuables, Packages and Freight R. CLUFF, Harness Maker. To and from Woodstock, Fredericton, St. Johu Calais, Bangor, Portland, Boston, and intermediate places. No Packages or Freight received at the Office after 8 o'clock, a. m.
> G. W. VANWART,

> > Woodstock, Feb. 2, 1672 .- 5 TO THE FARMERS OF

WE have this day entered into Partnership for the purpose of carrying on HARNESS MAKING, in Shop directly over McLeod's Tailor CARLETON COUNTY Store, and we hope by strict attention to business to merit as large a share of trade as was bestowed

I intend paying CASH for all kinds of COUN-TRY PRODUCE, this Winter, and have on hand and intend keeping, the very best quality of all kinds of FISH, in connection with a good stock of GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c. I am buy ng HAY, and pay the highest price for it. A CRES of Land, and several Mill Privileges, in the Coun-Please give me a call. Yours Respectfully. F. A. STEVENSON.

Woodstock, October 6, 1871 .- +0 New Styles of ROOM PAPER VERY CHEAP, AT HUGH HAY'S.

READY MADE CLOTHING! CHEAP AT

HUGH HAY'S. Woodstock, April 15, I870.

a first class Hotel, and is really, first class in every respect, except the charges, which better THE COTTON YARN, suit the ideas and requirements of the majority Manufactured at the of travellers, than many of the so called, "first class Houses;" which deserve the title more New Brunswick Cotton Mills through the amount of their charges than aught TAS the name of the mills and our name on printed label on the end of the bundle. Already the crowded state of the "New Albion" promises well for its future career; every-White, Red and Orange Yarn is put up in Blue thing associated with its construction has been carried out with artistic taste and systematic Paper.

COTTON WARP.

Blue Yarn is put up in Buff Paper.

All Yarn made by us is warranted of The large Hall, commodious office, spacious quality, full weight, and correctly numbered.
WM. PARKS & SON. Reading room, convenient Dining, Coffee, Wash Room, etc , etc., on the ground floor; and the N. B. Cotton Mills, St. John, N. B. September 1, 1871.-1y-35

Reception Room and Suits of Splendidly Furnished and Thoroughly Ventilated Ladies' Parlors, on the second floor, will form no small GENUINE what is an exception to the general Rule in Ho-WARREN'S BILIOUS BITTERS, Atwood's Jaundice Bitters. lighted, there is not being a dark room in the At SMITH'S DRUG SHOP, Mcdical Hall, Main Street.

ways been a strong favorite with the Merchants THE Subscribers, in addition to their New delight.

New Stable, on Connell treet. And are now prepared, with large additions of meet the request of their customers.

Horses Boarded on Reasonable Terms. HAIR DRESSING They have the Woodstock depot for the Freder icton, Grand Falls and Houlton Stages. Extras furnished when Required. A Coach from these stables will attend the Steamers and Cars, for the convenience of passengers Persons wishing a cab for the Steamer or Cars leaving in the morning, should leave their orders at the office, at eithir place, the evening THE subscriber would return thanks to his friends and the public for the patronage hitherto bestowed, since commencing business in Woodstock; he would ikewise ask a continuance previous. GLIDDEN & GILLMAN. of such favors, as he is now prepared with enlarg-Woodstock, June 3, 1868-23. ed experience and greatly increased facilities to attend to the various branches of ais business NEW BRUNSWICK as Hair Cutting, Shaving, Shampooing, and Hair Dying. Ladies' Hair cut in the latest Paper Manufacturing Company

John, N. B.

tyle. Particular care given to Cutting Child-PRINTING PAPER. GEORGE STAPLES

WE are now manufacturing PRINTING PAPER, and the greatest care has been is a White Barber taken to procure the most approved machinery and experienced mechanics from the old country. We can recommend the same as being a good WOODSTOCK MARBLE WORKS article. We are prepared to execute orders for the above in all weights and sizes. THE business heretofore carried on by the firm of HARVEY & ALMOND, will in future and Straw Papers. Orders for the above are most respectfully solic be conducted in this place by the subscriber, as Warehouse and Office, - Paradice Row, St

Post Office Box 267.
M. W. FRANCIS, pription of Paper Stock, viz:-Cotton and Hemp boy, pushing up the grand stairway. Canvass, Hemp and Manilla Ropes, Shakings, FREE STONE AND GRANITE CUTTING EXE-Nets, Rags, Waste Paper, etc. st john aug 25

Fire Insurance Companies. Orders filled at the shortest notice and cheapest possible rates. Patronage respectfully solicited and satisfaction guaranteed. ROBERT MARSHALL, General Agent for New Brunswick.

Insurance, Custom House, Forwarding, Commission IMPERIAL," of London, Established 1803 ÆTNA," of Hartford, Established 1819. HARTFORD," of Hartford, Established 1810. Rates moderate, and losses promptly paid .-Dwelling Houses Insured on specially favorable For California and all Points West, via Lake Shore and Michigan Southern terms. JOHN T. ALLAN, Agent.

Woodstock, July, 1869,

For New York and all Points South, via Fire & Life Insuance Agency. Fall River, Stonington and Norwich Office--Head of International S. S. THE Subscriber is agent for Woodstock and

L the upper St, John of the NORTH BRITISH & MERCANTILE INURANCE Co of Edinburgh and London. ESTABLISHED 1809.

Hon. A. M'L. Seely. Messrs. Jardine & Co., CAPITAL, - - £2,000,000 stg Invested Funds, 1854, £2,304,512, 7s., 10.

AND OF THE Standard Life Assurance Co. OF EDINBURGH. ESTABLISHED, 1825.

These Companies are of the most reliable class ir Great Britain, and do business on the most reasonable terms, consistent with sa sety to the insured. As such, I can confidently recommend them to my friends and them to my friends and them to my friends and the public generally, and shall be glad to receive application from those desireus of insuring their property or lives.

The distriction of the most region of class ir Great Britain, and do business on the it and welcome JAMES GROVER

Woodstock, August, 16.

Poctry.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

BY BELLE BILLINGS. New Brunswick! I hail thee again-Land of my earlier days, And oft, in the ear of the stranger, I sing to thee, honor and praise; Sing of thy hills and thy valleys, And thy river that flows to the sea, And the heart, that oft carols thy praises, Rejoices in memories of thee!

My birthland, where are thy children. That wander as pilgrims on earth? They wander and yet they remember, New Brunswick-the land of their birt Remember and lovingly ponder The friendships of earlier years, Though their lives were a turmoil of hard-

And they looked to the future through tears New Brunswick—the land that I love! The memory of man ever turns To the past, to its death and decay. Though lost, we fondly remember. And will while our memories last

The scenes of my youth, I remember, On the green banks of levely St. John, Where we stood when the steamboats were And as children, looked eagerly on ! Since then I have wandered and studied And learned how swift pleasures decay. And though I am blessed in New England, Select Cale.

I honor New Brunswick to-day!

Little Pansie's Emeralds

BY EMMA GARRISON JONES.

One wintry afternoon in January, away up in the bleak attic of a wretened tenement house, a pale sad-eyed woman sat sewing. The garment upon which she was engaged was very rich and costly. being a handsome party dress. The twilight closed in rapidly, with a blinding fall of snow, and a bitter wailing blast, that made the windows rattle in their casements. Still the sad-faced woman

"Mother," piped a slender voice from bit o' sausage." The mother worked on steadily for a flashing lightning. few moments, pausing only to brush a tear from her white cheek, then she arose and shook out a glittering robe. "'Tis done at last," she said; "now mother's poor little girl can have her supper, only be patient a little longer, Flora. Ross, Ross, where are you, my boy?" A manly little fellow came out from clasped in both her chubby palms. the little bedroom beyond.

"The fine dress is done, Ross," said his mother, "and you must run home with it as fast as ever you can. Miss the necklace, but—but—sir, my little birds sang in the hedges, and the golden by means of telegraph wires running under but the great bulk of all such workers as Garcia will be out of patience. I know .-Tell her I couldn't finish it one moment sooner, and ask her to give you the money. We must have it to-night. And vou can stop in at Mr. Ray's as you come back and buy some coal, and we must have some bread, and tea, and a mite of butter, and you must get a sansage, Ross, for poor little Flora.

"I'll get 'em all, mother," he said; and be back in no time. You shall turning towards the cot.

The little girl nodded her curley head, and her great wistful eyes sparkled with

"And you shall have half of it, Ross," she piped, in her slender bird voice.

And are now prepared, with large additions of jacket, my boy?" continued his mother; honest one, I'm sure. Mr. Lenox, you're portance of perfect purity in this respect, 'the wind cuts like a knife." "Pshaw, little mother! I don't mind the wind." And away he went, down the creaking flight of stairs, and out into the

In her splendid mansion on Fifth in the fashionable establishment.

The servant took up the handsome in the wide world. dress, and the message. In Store—A good assortment of Wrapping work," cried the angry beauty; "I ought thoughts went running back to the days who are healthy and happy. must call to-morrow."

"But we've no fire, and nothing to eat, the river of death, over the wide waters poetry, Mrs. Partington?" asked the N. B.—The highest price paid for Every Des and my little sister is sick," called the of time and change.

Capital and Cash Assets, - $17,000,000 Deposited at Ottawa, - - - 400,000 amazement. "Poor little boy" she said. it through the snow-wreaths that night, place in response to her answer, while the miscuous kissing parties," which a correspond getting married for a limited number of > sudden thought flooded her blue eyes a jewel-case in her hand. with sunshine, and snatching something "Would you buy these, sir?" she asked, this that you speak of." The roasting front, with the bosom between his shoulders, been discovered twelve to fourteen feet wide, from the table, she darted down the stairs. simply, in a clear sweet voice that stirred chicken hissed and sputtered, and Mrs. until some body happened to see him in his some of them traced for three quarters of a door, but she fluttered past him like a man's voice had power to do.

Ross looked up, half believing that the turned it over with eager, trembling fingface of an angel looked down upon him ers. and there on the tawny clasp was through the whirling snowflakes. "O. I can't go home without the lived in his heart for so many long years: money," he sobbed, "poor mother work- "Little Pansie." ed so hard, and little Flora is sick, and so "You wish to sell them all?" hungry.

Pansie's eyes glittered like stars. "Here," she said, "do you take this, little boy, and buy her lots of nice things. Accumulated and Inve. ted Fundsover£3,500,000 Tis worth a great deal; papa bought it for my birthday present, but do you take "No. no!" he cried, running up to a moment, every nerve in his manly frame where she stood: "I can't take this, take thrilling with supreme delight. He had found her at last, the one idol of his life. "They are very fine gems," he said, But Pansie shook her curly head.

"You shall take it!" she commanded, after a moment, "and I am willing to imperiously. "I've lots of jewels and give you a fair price-suppose we say one fine things-run home now, and buy thousand dollars; will that do?" The girl flashed a dazzling glance of your sister something nice to eat." She closed the door with a bang, and glad surprise from beneath her heavy significant, all that were obtained in the ter-Ross stood irresolute in the stormy gloom, veil. Should he ring the bell, and return the "So much as that?" she said, tremu- Europe. Now the trade has been diverted to jewels to Pansie's father, or should he do lously. "You are very kind, sir. O, you as she had bidden him? He thought of cannot know how this money will help his mother, and poor hungry little Flora me!" watching wistfully for his return. He The young man made some polite reply. could not go back and see them starve. and proceeded to put aside the jewels, With a sudden feeling of desperation, he and to draw up a check for the money. thrust the glittering necklace in his bosom, The March winds were still blustering her wraps closer, as she started out. The gaslights blazed brilliantly in a "Won't you let me run down to the fashionable jewelry establishment, and its bland proprietor looked down inquiringly on little Ross, as he approached the glittering counter. "Would you like to buy two."

At the Glasgow Dog Show, prices ranged on the catalogue from £1,000 to £10,000.— The retriever "True," 2 years and 6 months, the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. And to protect the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. And to protect the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. And to protect the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. And to protect the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. And to protect the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. And to protect the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. And to protect the champion winner at Birmingham and the building in which it is sold. fashionable jewelry establishment, and its bank for you?" said the jeweller, catch-Though the friendship of years pass away, tering counter. "Would you like to buy two."

There was a tremor in the boy's voice tered. And the flowers we gathered in childhood, as he asked the question, and the hand "Not a bit; just take this warm seat, A jilted lover in Mobile, Ala., stole the in regard to the real frender against the And the friends we have loved in the past, that held up the emerald necklace shook please, you'll not be likely to have any presents he had given the fickle fair one while law, it is provided that a member of a firm visibly. The lapidary took the gems, ex- customers." And seating her beside his she was being married to his successful rival. amined them closely for a moment, and desk, he took the check and hurried out. then shot a sharp glance at the child. Pansie Fontenay threw back her veil, "See here, sir," he said, presently, his and leaned her head upon her hand, a voice stern and commanding. "I want to puzzled, reflective look on her sweet sad know how you came by this?" The boy's clear eyes fell, he flushed "Where have I seen his tace?" she Majesty's dominions. and stammered, evidently embarrassed, asked herself over and over again. The jeweller put aside the emeralds, and is so familiar, who in the world can he taking the lad's arm, led him into a small | be?" His return broke in upon her medinecklace belongs to Mr. Fontenay: he hurried away to her humble lodgings. bought it of me not one month ago, You The following afternoon was even more stole it! You are a thief." blustering and stormy; the winds roared, The little fellow straightened himself, and the sleet beat and tinkled against the

and his brown eyes blazed. windows of the little room in which Pansie "I am not a thief, sir!" he retorted .- and her father sat. Severe misfortune 'I didn't steal that necklace—a kind lit- and reverses had reduced them to poverty. tle girl gave it to me, and I know it was and the old man, being an invalid, all the wrong to take it, but-but-my mother care fell upon Pansie's slender shoulders.

and sister are starving." The jeweller hesitated. but I will send for Mr. Fontenay; that money received for her jewels. Her what was once a truly beautiful face is to-

He despatched a messenger according- uture stretched before her hopeless and ly, and Ross sat down in one corner and gloomy sobbed bitterly, as he heard the driving There was a ring below, and a servant winds, and thought of his mother and brought up a package for Miss Fontenay. poor hungry little Flora, In half an An exquisite bunch of pansies, fragrant beneath the window, "shall you get the hour Mr. Fontenay came, bringing his and golden-hearted, done up in tissue fine dress done? O, mother, I'm so hun- daughter, little Pansie, with him. The paper, and attached to them a card beargry, if I could only have some tea, and a little creature darted in like a humming- ing the simple words, "Ross Dunbar has sists of 26 superintendents, 257 inspectors, pressed forward in eager haste to sign the bird, her cheeks ablaze, her blue eyes not forgotten little Pansie,"

"He didn't steal my emeralds!" she then a rich bloom drifted up to her white cried. "I give 'em to him! I told him cheeks. to sell 'em and buy bread for his little Ross rose to his feet, struggling hard last! to keep back his tears. He put out his little brown hand, which Pansie instantly clasping her fluttering hands in his, and ing to their rank. Their duties extend over who carry about them no specifics or myster-"I'm not a thief, sir," he said, at last, that brought the rosy blushes to her face.

sister is sick, and she's starving." The merchant drew his hand across his borders, little Pansie became Ross Dun-"You're a manly little fellow," he said, her back her string of emeralds. patting the ed's head, "and I do not in the least blame you; but we'll take back Pansie's emeralds, and she shall give you something more available. Here, Pansie, and icted to, is the use of tobacco and ligive this to your little friend." which she tendered to Ross, with the in- be expected to lose any of its force so ta February 15th, 1872, for Zanzibar. have a big sausage, little siss," he added, junction that he should run straight home long as its furnaces are kept heated with and buy lots o' goodies for his sick sister, the fumes of ardent spirits and tobacco. ly wounded her father occause he attempted laws have done in twenty, for without such a command he was not slow to obey.

"I think we'll not lose sight of the little other vices in the swarms of its victims, man. we, pet? Let's see, what can we do to wound man who reads these lines the im-"Hadn't you better put on your thick help him? he's a promising lad, and an young man who reads these lines the imin need of an errand boy, why not try we should be glad. If our passions rule him? I wish you would!" The jeweller consented, to Pansie's of others. great delight, and on the following day Ross was duly established as errand boy

"Only a sweet and virtuous soul,

Like seasoned timber, never gives,"

Mrs. Partington still lives and has rea moment. "As for the divine flatness, six months."

and sweetness and virtue never consort Avenue, Miss Garcia Fontenay was in a Fifteen years after, one blustering with the fumes of narcotics and stimuperfect furor of impatience and anger .- | March morning a young man sat behind lants. A word or two on good mental Her dear five hundred friends were as- the counter of a thriving jewelry establish- and moral habits as affecting health. The The coffin proved too big to be got into the of an Italian newspaper, the Capitale, of the sembling in the halls below, and her ment in one of the northern cities. He brain is the organ of the mind, but behandsome dress had not come home. was a handsome man, a scholar and a sides this, when perfectly vigorous and too small for it. It was hardly fair for a previous day. The Capitale, an anti-Papal disappointing her? At that moment money, for he was junior partner in the py state throughout the body: but when He should have died by inches. there was a ring at the door, and a voice firm, which was a prosperous one. But our intelects are clouded, and we are sour, despite all this good fortune, Ross Dunbar | morose, cross and ugly, or mournfully decould not finish it sooner, and she wants Flora had gone to their long home, and are poisoned, digestion becomes impaired, he was utterly alone, without kith or kin and our bodly vigor greatly lessened. Other things being equal, those whose Sitting alone that morning, with the mental and moral state is most perfect "I'll never give her another stitch of roar of the March winds in his ears, his are most healthful, and those persons only to have had it three hours ago. Here, of his boyhood-to his mother's humble Fanchon, come and dress me at once, home. How vivid the past seemed, and there's not a moment to lose! No, I how dear and sacred, despite its privations cently been interviewed with the follow- England, March 14th and 15th, between two can't pay to-night, I haven't time. He and sorrows! His eyes grew dim, and ing results :his heart swelled. All were gone over

"Shut that door, Fanchon!" command- he recalled that stormy night, when he The old lady was basting a chicken which ed Miss Garcia. And the door was sat sobbing on the steps of Mr. Fonte- her friends had sent her from the country. nay's mansion, and little Pansie taking "Oh, yes!" said the old lady, smiling: From her perch at the parlor window, pity on him, dropped him her string of "he is very partially fond of poultry, and little Pansie watched the whole scene, emeralds. Darling little Pansie, the re- it always seems as if he can't get enough night. He refused to speak. her violet eyes distended with childish membrance of her sweet face, as he saw of it." The old spit turned by the fireas Ross disappeared down the stairway, haunted him constantly. In all the fif- basting was going on. "I mean," said ent of that paper says is fashionable in some months, the consideration for which is paid "sister Garcia ought to pay him. It teen long years, never for one hour had the lady, "does he show any of the Di- parts of the Province.

to him forever! She stood for a moment balancing her- His reverie was broken by the entrance I don't know about it. He's had all the and bought a half-dozen fine plaited shirts self on the tip of one dainty foot, her of a customer, a lady closely cloaked and complaints of children; and, when he was which were opened at the back. He took rosebud face grave and reflective; then a veiled. She approached the counter, with a baby, he fell and broke the cartridge of that they were in the very latest style; and

The servant had just closed the street the young man's heart as no other wo- Partington basted it again. humming bird, and opened it. On the He took the casket and unclosed it, steps sat Ross, brave little fellow that he and spread out its contents. A watch, > asked, striving to steady his voice, and the wild throbbing of his heart. The lady hesitated an instant, then she put out a slender hand and drew the eme-

> the name, the sweet dear name that had lustrous, gleaming things, set in tawny her veil, revealing a lily face lit by lustrous the minute his father told him he could her dead when she next made her appearance sapphire eyes. Ross Dunbar stood silent eat all he wanted to."

ralds towards her.

Items Foreign & Local.

It is said that the fur trade at San Francisco has largely increased since the acquisition of Alaska to the United States. Last year the importation of fur was of the value of more than $2,000,000. Previous to the porchase of Alaska the trade in furs was in-San Francisco with much of that from Si-so yearly, for some years. A servant of A. T. Stewart, N. Y., was dale, Lancashire, at the latter price.

shall be responsible for the acts of his coly liable with his principal. Apothecaries In answer to a Parliamentary enquiry, the British government have distinctly stated that there is no intention on their part to with the slightest drop of alcohol contained place at the disposal of the Pope a residence either in Malta or any other portion of Her The Marquis of Ripon has for the thir time been unanimously elected Grand Master of the English Free Masons. A Jewish hotel has been established in

"You are a thief, sir!" he said. "That tations, and receiving her money, she Boston, where Israelites can find food cooked after the fashion prescribed by their religion. The Rev. Mr. Spurgeon says he never wrote tic temperance ralleys that was ever held in Brigandage in Greece is said to be worse than ever, and that it is dangerous for a person to go a thousand paces out of Athens A Louisville lady paid $300 for having her face enameled so that the application would last just three years, and shortly after-She sat busy with her sewing, while her ward disappeared from society. There was father read aloud from a new book, which so much poison in the enamel that almost "You don't look like a thief," he said; she had bought for him with some of the total paralysis of the facial nerves ensued, and sweet face was wan and sad, and the day a distorted, distigured and ulcerous one. while her eyesight is rapidly failing.

The New York Herald estimates that the forty-five thousand Irishmen who paraded he streets of that city St. Patrick' day, suffered in pocket to the amount of ten dollars keep it." This was followed by enthusiastic each, or $450,000.

Pansie sat amazed for a moment, and "O father!" she cried, "I knew him— the police force as in the army, according to seniority or for distinguished merit; and after creased to nearly 500. Better than all the tem-An instant later, Ross was in the room, a pension for life, varying in amount accord- was this great meeting, for it was led by men looking into her blue eyes with a glance an area of 688 square miles. The city is ies, but only themselves to pray and be prayaddressing Mr Fontenay; "I never stole And a few weeks later, when the blus- guardianship of an individual officer, and all are conscious of the faith they profess, or in my life. I know it was wrong to take tering winds were over, and the blue- the districts are connected with headquarters even honest in expression or sincere in hope;

hearted pansies bloomed on the garden ground. in Rhode Island, the Governor issued a pro- sciences and judgment, and enact a manly part bar's bride, and for his bridal gift he gave clamation forbidding it, whereupon one of the in the undertaking so that everyone most parties sent him a note saying that one of cheerfully accords to this new move the fulthem would stand in Connecticut and the lest praise and believe it full of good auguries Two Bad Habits.—Two exceedingly other in Massachusetts, and shoot over his to the cause of temperance.

bad habits that young men are too much India, have volunteered to join the expedition in a year (for it will only last a twelve month, quor, and the licentiousness they invari-He put a gold piece into Pansie's hand, ably lead to. This latter vice need never in search of Dr. Livingstone, and left Calcut-

Sensuality to-day outnumbers almost all to prevent her elopement with a negro coach lentightment and improvement, no sumptuary fellow," continued Mr. Fontenay, as Ross and that, too, among every grade of so- A broken-hearted widower of Indianapolis, movement of a vast aggregated manliness in disappeared in the stormy darkness, "shall cial elevation, including many of our best whose wife died a few days ago, has erected which each makes the most of his opportuniaffliction, with a piano. Within the last year one hundred and fifty- the fullness of strength and the knowledge one murders were committed in London, how to use it. us they will ruin us, as they have millions while only ninety-six individuals were tried for murder, and not all of these were convict-In England it is not permitted to marry after twelve o'clock in the day. ing four hundred and twenty-five pounds. at Rome, favors a correspondent with a copy

What did that beggar woman mean by traveller, a man of taste, intellect and wisely occupied, it infuses a healthy, hap-person of those dimensions to die all at once. Journal, devotes no less than eleven columns The papers at Victoria, Australia, are forbidden by law to take news from each other been room 10,000 people would have attend-"Please tell Miss Garcia my mother was not happy. His mother and little pressed and dissatisfied, the secretions within twenty-four hours of its publication. ed. Among the speakers were Signor Gavazzi > only the very lowest class eat old men and appointed to carry out the objects of the So-William B. Astor's income is $5,000 a day and he owns six hundred houses. A brutal prize fight occurred near London,

"Does Isaac manifest any taste for died Gilmore wants one hundred clergymen to schoolinaster's wife while conversing on repeat the Lord's Prayer in unison, by way

It was thought, until lately that nothing ould stop Geo. Francis Train's tongue, bu in audience of twelve at Syracuse, N. Y. did the business very effectually, the other vet restricted to gambling and drinking whismust be dreadful to have no fire and he forgotten her. But she was gone, lost vine afflatus?" The old lady thought for In Montgomery county, there is a young man who went to town, about a year ago

"I think," said a farmer, "I should work on the back, but he was bound to be in make a good Congressman, for I use their the fashion at any sacrince. was, his face in his hands, sobbing as if exquisite and costly, a diamond ring, one language. I received two bills the other "Putty-eyed monster," is what appeared tained a patent for the manufacture of artifi-

> "Why, Ichabod, I thought you got pan was made March 5, by a party of 12 per-"Why, Ichabod, I thought you got married mor'n a year ago?" "Well, Aunt Jerush, it was talked of, but I found out that the girl and all her folks were opposed to it, and so I jest give 'em all the mitten, and let the thing drop."
>
> pan was made March 5, by a party of 12 persons, but was unsuccessful, and the guards succeeded in capturing two of the party. The attempt has caused great uneasiness on the part of the government. Orders have been issued forbidding foreigners to go beyond the limits of the city of Yeddo. limits of the city of Yeddo.

A croupy youth in a neighboring town | TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN A THEATRE. havingly strongly objected to taking his At the Opera House in Oporto, Portugal, "I dislike to part with this," she said; medicine, was induced to make a hearty there was a tragical occurrence not long since, extent to which drunkenness exists in Eng-on the stage.

Editors & Proprietors.

the laws never could reach the foundation of this evil; and some idea may be conceived of the immense difficulties encountered in fighting the adversary in the shape of a liquorseller, when we consider that the new law, passed at the last legislature and put into force yesterday, occupies twenty-five pages of the Revised Statutes, while those relating WHOLE NO.—1205. to the crimes of murder, manslaughter, assault, dueling, kidnapping, maiming, rape, robbery and arson, occupy in the aggregate only ix pages. It is the most stringent law ever passed by a Maine Legislature. All the litle guards and points that could be crawled around in Neal Dow's Maine Law have been arefully guarded against in the present one. t sets it down as a crime to sell a man who sits at a hotel table a glass of wine, ale or cider, and if the host does it he is liable to ill a felon's cell, and he cannot get a license to set before him a meal or give him a bed ritory being sent from Sitka by Siberia to unless he gives a bond in the sum of five bundred dollars that he will let him have nothing that has the smallest percentage of beria. From that port the markets of the decoholic stimulant in it. The penalties for world are more accessible. The trade is be- being a common seller of even a glass of coming quite valuable, and will become more home-made cider is a fine of a hundred dollars and costs and imprisonment for one year at hard labor, and the person who knowingly leases any tenement for the forbidden puring her out of doors and having her sent to pose may be fined $1,000 and imprisoned for and dashed rapidly down the snowy without, and the girl shivered, and drew street. Ing ner out of doors and having her sent to one year. The law making liquor sellers repossible for all injuries inflicted by intoxiand she now occupies it alone excepting only and she now occupies it alone, excepting only her attendants. It is a generous act and dether provision that every wife, child, parent, "But I'm troubling you so," she fal- Dublin, was set down by Mr. Morris, Roch- vide against the ends of justice being defeated through the uncertainty which may exist

OUR PORTLAND CORRESPONDENCE.

MR. EDITOR,-Portland, at the present moment, is just about the dryest place in all New England. Eye-openers, composed of anything in the shape of spirituous liquors, are as scarce in this city to-day as British sovereigns, and are a great deal harder to obtain. The laws against liquor selling have been very scrict in this State for years, but very little has been accomplished in the larger cities, and there never has been much trouble to get it, provided you had the money to pay for it—the reason being that are also liable for selling patent medicines Two hundred and twenty liquor shops were closed yesterday by the sheriff, and the excitement now is intense. The corners are crowded with woe-begone, come-treat-me expressions, who spit cotton by the yard, and hold social intercourse on this cruel " sheriff" And all this culminated on Friday night into one of the grandest and most enthusias-Maine. Three hundred Reformers from the Kennebec held a meeting in City Hall that was crammed to overflowing with an audience that came from all the country around, and all vitally interested in the great question of Temperance Reform. The Mayor presided and gave the audience a handsome welcome, and said it reminded him of the power of the Apostle's preaching, when 3,000 were converted in a single day. It was another Easter-a resurrection from the thrallom of rum; an emancipation like that which struck the shackles off the limbs of 4,000,000 blacks and enabled them to stand up like nen. He announced that he would be the irst man to sign the pledge, and taking the pen he wrote his name in the book, remarking, " I have signed that pledge and mean to outbursts from the audience, and, amid the The London police, in addition to Com- waving of handkerchiefs, and the shouts of missioners, and Assistant Commissioners, con- 4000 men, women and children, the throng 955 sergeants, and 7,922 constables. The sacred pledge. Roughs and drunkards, whose most inflexible military descipline is main- characters were blighted and dwarfed by tained, and the whole of the Commissioners crimes that men speak about in whispers, and other superior officers are experienced were among the signers, as well as thorough military officers. Promotion takes place in temperance reformers. For over an hour the a certain length of service the men retire on perance moves of the last ten years in Portland mapped out into divisions, each street or series | ed for. Not all men who go about in the of streets being placed under the especial strong setting current of unusual excitement have started this new Washingtonian move-Two men having arranged to fight a duel ment are heartily approved of their own con-

This effort, if persistently kept within this Six young African orphans, educated in scope, will be able to do more for temperance a- the rum party is all powerful in this State, and he who lives to see another Main Legislature will see a party of men who, by their A St. Louis girl lately fired at and severe- first act, will repeal this law) than all the law has any enduring vital forces. This is a sponsible thinking and patient waiting for

> More again from Portland, Me., April 9, 1871.

FORMATION OF A BIBLE SOCIETY IN ROME. A young man died in Connecticut, weigh- Dr. Grigor, Nairn, who is passing the winter house, or into the hearse, too heavy for the 6th inst., which gives an account of the ineight pall-bearers, and finally the grave was auguration of the Italian Bible Society on the to a report of the speeches delivered on the occasion. The vast hall of the Argentina at Small pox is on the increase in Toronto. and Signor Ribetti, the latter announcing It is stated in mitigation of Fejee cannibal- himself as a deputy from the most ancient ism that only boys of from twelve to fourteen Bible Society in the world, namely, the years old are now eaten by educated persons; Church of the Waldenses. A committee was ciety. The proceedings were of the most enthusiastic character.

CHARMING LADIES .- Now that Alaska with all its treasures is ours, the fashions folmen named Collis and Connor. The latter lowed by the female natives ought to be of interest to our ladies. According to a British Columbia paper, our sisters at Sitka wear a body dress of equal proportions of furs and dirt, arranged to suit the taste of the wearers. A tender smile softened his sad face as the merits of the youthful Partington. of an opening performance at his approaching the married ladies all wear silver rings in heir noses and needles through their lower tips, while elderly ladies add to their irrestiote charms a "stopper," whatever that may be, in the upper lip. Their amusements are key. The law of divorce is rendered unneces-The Provincial Wesleyan condemns "pro sary in Alaska, from a habit they have of in fish, bones, whale oil and old junk .- Albany Evening Times.

COPPER MINE. - The Courier reports that copper ore has been found on the lands of the spaulding family, and also on lands belonging to Messrs. Connick, Mann, and Douglass. his nose; but I hardly think that he's had he wore them eleven months buttoned up in in St. David. Large loads of quartz have shirt sleeves, and explained the situation, as mile and terminating near the Railway in the it were, to him. He said he thought it was neighborhood of Baillie Settlement, a short exquisite and costly, a diamond right of two rubies, and an emerald necklace.

"What's the matter little boy?" questioned Pansie.

"Putty-eyed monster, is what appeared or two only sandstone, but pophry, ment; the one I ordered to be laid on surprise, as his eyes fell upon it. He sons of the minister "interviewed" the editor the next morning with a shot gun.

"Putty-eyed monster, is what appeared or two only sandstone, but pophry, ment; the one I ordered to be laid on the table, the other to be read that day sons of the minister "interviewed" the editor the next morning with a shot gun. sandstone. They accept a polish as would jasper or agate, and not an enamel like vitri-tied bricks. Their superiority to naturally stone procured from the quarry, cost infinitely

A Liverpool paper says that to guage the Russia has more agricultural societies within her borders than any other nation.

March 18, 1868-13.

VICTORIA HOTEL, desting a Sammer Residence. Terms for tran sient customers, Two Dollars and a Half PER quired, which are selling very low. B. T. CREGAN.

St. John, Nov. 17