Every person's feelings have a frontdoor and a side-door by which they may be entered. The front-door is on the street. Some keep it always open; some keep it latched, some locked, some bolted with a chain that will let you peep in, and not get in; and some nail it up so that nothing can pass its threshold .-This front-door leads into a passage which opens into an ante-room, and this into the interior apartments. The side-door opens at once into the sacred chambers. There is almost always, at least one key to the side-door. This is carried for years hidden in a mother's bosom. Fathers, brothers, sisters, and friends, often, but by no means universally, have duplicates of it. The wedding ring conveys a right to one; alas, if none is given with it !- Autocrat of the Breakfast Table.

That the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America is the most popular company in this country is evinced by the fact that in the first twenty months of its existence it received about 12,000 APPLICATIONS and issued 10,000 POLICIES, a much larger number than was ever issued at the same period of its existence by any other life Insurance Company in the is guaranteed by the character and skill of its owners and managers, who, in addition to their integrity and ability, are influenced by pecuniary interests. Its rates of premium are as low as is consistent with entire safety. Its plan is entirely free from any complications gf notes, interest, &c., or uncertainties and disappointments of dividends, &c. Its contracts are definite, clear, Tailors' Trimmings always on hand, and impossible to be misunderstood or misiepre sented. Its policies contain all of the promises made by the company, and are exceedingly liberal. All the advantages and privileges which can be safely granted to the insured are given by this deservedly popular and strong company.
