A favorite author has said that such were the intention was innocent. So girls take care—respect yourselves respect your sex, and do not give the enemy chance to speak reproachfully. Listen, all of you to what a man says. It is out of some old fashioned Father's Legacy, or some such artiquated book. He says: "A fine woman has a power over us of which she very little dreams, WOOLEN AND LINEN GOODS, but a little too near acquaintance often dissolves the illusion and converts the angel into an ordinary girl." Let a mother tell you girls, that mothers, when they send their boys into the great world and its temptations hope much for them from the influence of good women. Did you ever think of this, when you tell young men that you dote on smoking, when you urge wine upon them at parties? Some mother, some sister may wish that you would lead her son or brother to nobler, purer conceptions of life. Ought not some higher motive to govern your intercourse with the young men of your acquaintance than merely the desire to fasten their admiration on yourself-to please them at any and every hazard? Be sure that a young man who is pleased through the lower New Store? nature, because you encourage his indolent and self indulgent imp. lses, will think of you by and by only as a part of something unworthy, which his better self will seek to out grow .- Mrs. H. "Raffled for 'em, at Bing's," replied the boy of the religious parents. "But," said Scroggins, "does the aged parents approve of gambling for turkeys?"

"They do not know how I got 'em, and if they find out, I've got a good thing on 'em, for I tell 'em it's no worse than lotteries and guess cakes at levees." Scroggins was silent, and concluded that the boy "had got the old man," as

A CLEAR CONSCIENCE.—How bravely a man can walk the earth, bear the heaviest burdens, perform the severest duties, and look all men square in the conscience! There is no spring, no Raymond's Single Stitch Hand Machine, $14.00 spur, no inspiration like this. To feel that we have omitted no just act, and left no obligation unfilled, fills the heart with satisfaction and the soul with strength. Conscience, it is said, makes cowards of us all, but only cowards when it repreaches us with some unmanliness, some shrinking from truth and right, and the commission of some wrong.

TRUE.—The happiness derived from doing deeds of kindness is the sweetest, the purest, and the most lasting of all human enjoyment. The vilest sinner Florence Sewing Machines, breathing, if he has ever performed a benevolent act in the course of his life, knows this to be true. How strange, then, that so many thousands should ruin health, fortune, and reputation, in pursuit of pleasures that turn to ashes in the end, at 7 cents each, or 75 cents per dozen. Persons at Nos. 10 and 12-(Freight and Passenger Acwhile they utterly neglect this source of a distance can remit and order needles by mail, commodation] will leave Pictou for Halitax at enjoyment, accessible to all, which not and enclose 3 cents extra for postage. only brightens life, but softens the sting whom a large discount will be made.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience. of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
