DIED. At Northampton, or the 10th inst., Robert H. G. Hemphill, of Scarlet Rash, aged 12 years and 7

We mourn earth's faded blossoms,
But there bright flowers will bloom;
Beyond the grave's cold portal,
Beyond the silent tomb. At Northampton, on the 12th inst., Mrs. Janet, widow of the late Robert Gibson, aged 83 years, leaving eleven children and a large circle of triends to mourn their loss. Her end was peace.

Asleep in Jesus, peaceful rest, Whose waking is supremely blest; No fear, no wee, shall dim that hour Which manifests the Saviour's power. At Jacksonville, on the 10th inst., of Diptheri Annie Bell; fourth daughter of Benjamin and Mary Burtt, aged 13 years and 6 months.

Our daughter she has gone to rest, Our Annie, darling child; We never more shall see her face Or greet her gentle smile. God called her from our vision, In the glory of morning light; le called her to his mansions,

Where there is no night. At Lower Brighton, on the 9th inst., in the 77th year of her age, Elizabeth, wife of Adam Tedlie. Deceased was a native of Londonderry, Ireland and came to this country in 1820, when she settled in Brighton, and remained a resident of that Parish ever since. She joined the F. C. B. Church in that Parish in 1830, and was baptised by Elder Worm-

She lived and died respected and beloved by all who knew her. [Religious Intelligencer please At Lower Brighton, on the 24th July last, of Scarlet Rash, Ida E., daughter of Reuben and Rebecca Robinson, aged 11 years, 2 months and

At Lower Woodstock, of Diptheria, on the 12th inst., Laura Ella, youngest daughter of Richard and Phobe Hull, aged 7 years and 4 months.

At Brighton, on the 16th ult., of Heart Disease, David H. Estabrooks, in the 87th year of his age, leaving an aged companion, two sons and two daughters to mourn the loss of a kind husband and an affectionate parent.

The deceased experienced religion when about 15 years of age, in Canning, the land of his birth, but was not baptized until 1832, by the late Rev. Samuel Hartt, and united with the F. C. Baptist Church in Brighton, where he remained a consistent and worthy member till his decease. He filled the and worthy member till his decease. He filled the office of Deacon until a few years previous to his death, when he resigned his deaconship in consequence of old age and infirmity. In his death, not only his family, but the Church, of which he was a member, sustained a great loss, as he was a good counsellor and a well-wisher to the cause of God, and truly it can be said of him, "Blessed are the peace-makers, for they shall be called the children food?" His funeral sermon was preached by of God." His funeral sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Orser, from the words, "There re maineth therefore a rest to the people of God."—

The large attendance at his tuneral indicated the respect in which he was so justly held. [Religious Intelligencer and Christian Visitor please copy.
