Lumber will be received, and advances made thereon, at Spring Hill, when desired. On arriving at the house, I found Mrs Harris in great distress of mind. "What is the matter with Mr. Harris? asked on meeting this lady, who was i tears, and looking the picture of distress.

> "I'm afraid it is apoplexy," she replied 'I found him lying upon the floor, where he had, to all appearances, fallen suddenly from his chair. His face is purple, and though he breathes, it is with great difficulty." I went up to see my patient. He had been lifted from the floor, and was lying upon the bed. Sure enough his face was purple, and
