The matter has been made Chair. Mr. Dibblee moved, seconded by Mr. a political question in the Province, and the In 1867 there was an excess of $14,417,418 Warden by ballot, without nomination, and elect men favorable to re-granting their charters, but without success. The passage of the cable monopolies into the hands of the Government of Newfoundland opens the way for competition in ocean telegraphy, and makes the reduction in prices a certainty .-The terms of the charters give the cable to the Government at their actual value, which will be a favorable one, for the business pays a dividend upon a million dollars of stock.

SAD BEREAVEMENT .- The family of Mr. Smith, South Bay, has lately suffered one of 12 o'clock at midnight of the same day two others fell before that fatal epidemic. Three children of one household buried at once, and five within three weeks is indeed a terrible bereavement, and one that calls for the largest sympathy for the sorrow-stricken parents.
