TRUTH FOR DYSPEPTICS.

TRUTH FOR DYSPEPTICS.

Who ever says that Dyspepsia is incurable, say what is not true. Hundreds of aggravated cases have been cured by Wilson's Tonic and Sarsaparillian Elixir. In certain seasons of the year the appetite is sometimes too vigorous for the comfort and safety of the stomach, and indigestion is most prevalent and most distressing. The first thing now to be done is to restore the tonic of the stomach. There is no remedy so effectual to accomplish this object as the Elixir. The Tonic powers of the remedy render it particularly appropriate at this stage of Dyspepsia. It tonic and invgorating effets are immediately perceived, and the patient rallys under its influence. The Elixir also acts as a gentle laxative if taken in somewhat larger doses, rousing the liver from its torpidity, and enabling it to secrete a sufficient quantity of healthy bile, to keep up a regular motion of the bowels.
