At Brighton, on the 24th May, Sarah, relict of the late David H. Estabrooks, in the 36th year of her age. The deceased was a native of Jemseg, Queen's County. She professed religion in the days of her youth, and with her companion moved to Brighton in 1823, where she lived until her decease. She united herself with the Free Christian Baptist Church where she resided, and remained a Baptist Church where she resided, and remained a consistent and worthy member for forty-two years, until her decease. In her death not only the Church to which she belonged but the community has sustained a loss, as she was truly a mother in Israel, and was justly held in high esteem by all of her acquaintances and neighbors. Her funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Geo. W. Orser—23rd Psalm, 4th verse—to a large and attentive congregation. [Religious Intelligencer and Christian Visitor please copy.
