RHEUMATIC CURE.
Effectually curing ONE THOUSAND of our citizens from that terrible malady,
RHEUMATISM.
This statement is substantially a fact based upon evidence in the possession of the agent, in the shape of numerous testimonials from past sufferers, in all the walks of life, and particularly from some of our respectable and trustworthy families.
DIAMOND
Rheumatic Cure!
In its history, this invaluable medicine occupies the most honorable position possible for any remedy to attain. A few years since it was known only to the friends and neighbors and patients of the proprietors, and always sought for by them whenever troubled with Rheumatism, and in the case of the notice of physicians generally, and through their favorable expression and its acknowledged value as a Rheumatic Remedy, the demand for it became so frequent and urgent as to oblige its proprietors to increase their facilities for its manufacture. Its reputation rapidly extended, and soon orders, letters of enquiry, letters of thanks, and certificates of praise were daily received from all sections of the United States and Canada; and in this way on a basis of merit alone—unaided by "tricks of the trade" or special efforts—it has risen to its present enviable position. Wherever introduced it has received the most flattering preference in the treatment of all rheumatic complaints. In this we are really grateful and happy, not alone because our medicine finds ready sale, and is consequently profitable to us, do we say this, but because we open a new field in medical science, and cure at once what the best medical practitioners have for ages found so difficult to relieve. We fill a place heretofore unoccupied. We relieve the suffering and minister to God's poor; we restore the labouring man to the use of his injured limbs, and save him scores of times its cost in doctor's bills; we carry contentment and gladness into the homes of the afflicted, and consequently are remembered by millions of grateful souls.
The proprietor of this medicine has walked the aisles of the hospitals of London, Eng., for the past twenty years, making Rheumatism a specialty, and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease.
This medicine is for sale at all the druggists throughout Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to

THE ALDINE,
The Art Journal of America,
ISSUED MONTHLY.
A Magnificent Conception, wonderfully carried out.
The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which so invariably follow each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art, so soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—The ALDINE.
The ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or family interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure light, and graceful illustrations, and a cultivation of pictures, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quality of fine paper and engraving in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there is the chromo benefit.
The national feature of THE ALDINE must be its own narrow compass. True art is comprehensive. While THE ALDINE is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art, and one that will discriminate only on grounds of intrinsic merit. The title placed before the patrons of THE ALDINE, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will be given to specimens from foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home or foreign sources.
The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with THE ALDINE is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of detail than can be afforded by any inferior page. The judicious interpretation of landscape, marine, figure, and animal subjects, sustain an unabated interest, impossible when the scope of the work is confined to the artist to a single style or subject. The literature of THE ALDINE is a light and graceful accompaniment, worthy of the illustrations, with only such technical discussions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.
PREMIUM FOR 1875.
Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.
"Man's Unselfish Friend" will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it! Although so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten.
Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to THE ALDINE for 1876 is constituted a member and entitled to all the privileges of the Union.
The ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or mailed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers except in cases where the certificates are given, bearing the like similar signature of J. A. S. STEVENS, President.
