Grand Falls, April 29th, 1875. REPLY.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GRAND FALLS :-

Gentlemen,-I thank you most sincerely for the token of regard and approbation of my services for the long period during which I have labored among you. Amidst all the difficulties and discouragements that are common to the life of a teacher, I have on all occasions felt cheered by your many acts of kindness, and the general expression of satisfaction at the result of my labors. For behind. It has ever been my aim to do my utmost in instructing in useful knowledge fied with the half term's work. On account the youths of this village, who have come of some debt being on the district, the school under my control, and it has been a source of great pleasure to note from day to day the progress gradually made in those branchee which they have thought fit to pursue.

I thank you for your well wishes for my future prosperity, but feel satisfied that in my new field of labor I will find no kinder friends than these with many new fields.

friends than those with whom I have associated at this village, nor no more acts of courtesy or expressions of sympathy than those that I have received at your hands.
